Swales, Theodore J Ziolkowski, 2014-05-14 The profound political and social changes Germany has undergone since 1989 have been reflected in an extraordinarily rich range of contemporary writing Contemporary German Fiction focuses on the debates that have shaped the politics and culture of the new Germany that has emerged from the second half of the 1990s onwards and offers the first comprehensive account of key developments in German literary fiction within their social and historical context Each chapter begins with an overview of a central theme such as East German writing West German writing writing on the Nazi past writing by women and writing by ethnic minorities The authors discussed include Gunter Grass Ingo Schulze Judith Hermann Christa Wolf Christian Kracht and Zafer Senocak These informative and accessible readings build up a clear picture of the central themes and stylistic concerns of the best writers working in Germany today The Cambridge Companion to the Modern German Novel Graham Bartram, 2004-04-05 The Cambridge Companion to the Modern German Novel first published in 2004 provides a broad ranging introduction to the major trends in the development of the German novel from the 1890s to the present Written by an international team of experts it encompasses both modernist and realist traditions and also includes a look back to the roots of the modern novel in the Bildungsroman of the late eighteenth and nineteenth centuries The structure is broadly chronological but thematically focused chapters examine topics such as gender anxiety images of the city war and women's writing within each chapter key works are selected for close attention Unique in its combination of breadth of coverage and detailed analysis of individual works and featuring a chronology and guides to further reading this Companion will be indispensable to students and teachers Germans as Victims in the Literary Fiction of the Berlin Republic Stuart Taberner, Karina Berger, 2009 An opening section on the 1950s a decade of intense literary engagement with German victimhood before the focus shifted to German perpetration provides context drawing parallels but also noting differences between the immediate postwar period and today The second section focuses on key texts written since the mid 1990s and examines shifts in perspectives on the Nazi past on perpetration and victimhood on ordinary Germans and on the balance between historical empathy and condemnation BOOK JACKET German Jewish Literature After 1990 Katja Garloff, Agnes C. Mueller, 2018 Edited volume tracing the development of a new generation of German Jewish writers offering fresh interpretations of individual works and probing the very concept of German Jewish literature Nomadic Ethics in Contemporary Women's Writing in German Emily Jeremiah, 2012 Explores nationality gender and postmodern subjectivity in the work of five German speaking women writers who embody a nomadic ethics How can postmodern subjectivity be ethically conceived What can literature contribute to this project What role do gender and nation play in the construction of contemporary identities Nomadic Ethics broaches these questions exploring the work of five women writers who live outside of the German speaking countries or thematize a move away from them Birgit Vanderbeke Dorothea Gr nzwieg Antje R vic Strubel Anna Mitgutsch and Barbara Honigmann It draws on work by Rosi Braidotti Sara Ahmed and Judith Butler to develop a nomadic ethics and examines how the writers under discussion conceptualize contemporary German and Austrian identities especially but not only gender identities in instructive ways The book engages with a number of critical issues in contemporary German studies globalization green thought questions of gender and sexuality East and West German identities Austrianness the postmemory of the Holocaust and Jewishness In this way Nomadic Ethics offers a valuable contribution to debates about the nature of German studies itself as well as insightful readings of the individual authors and texts concerned Emily Jeremiah is Lecturer in German Royal Holloway University of London

Encyclopedia of German Literature Matthias Konzett, 2015-05-11 Designed to provide English readers of German literature the opportunity to familiarize themselves with both the established canon and newly emerging literatures that reflect the concerns of women and ethnic minorities the Encyclopedia of German Literature includes more than 500 entries on writers individual work and topics essential to an understanding of this rich literary tradition Drawing on the expertise of an international group of experts the essays in the encyclopedia reflect developments of the latest scholarship in German literature culture and history and society In addition to the essays author entries include biographies and works lists and works entries provide information about first editions selected critical editions and English language translations All entries conclude with a list of further readings

Expatriate Writing Gerhard Fischer, 2009 This volume presents the work of internationally renowned scholars from Australia Germany Italy South Africa the UK and the US The focus on W G Sebald's writing as that of an expatriate author offers a fresh and productive approach to Sebald scholarship In one way or another all 28 essays in this innovative bi lingual collection take up the notion of Sebald's experience as an expatriate writer be it in the analysis of intertextual transmedial and generic border crossings on the exposure to the other and the experience of alterity on the question of identity construction and performance on affinities with other expatriate writers on the recurring topics of home exile dislocation and migration or on the continuing work of memory to work through and to preserve the consciousness of a destructive past that has informed the childhood as much as the adult life world of the author Gerhard Fischer is Head of German Studies at the University of New South Wales in Sydney Australia His research interests and publications are in modern theatre and drama World War I and migration history and multiculturalism As convenor of the Sydney German Studies Symposia he has edited a number of volumes on modern German literature including Heiner Müller ConTEXTS and HISTORY T bingen 1995 Debating Enzensberger Great Migration and Civil War T bingen 1996 and with David Roberts Schreiben nach der Wende Ein Jahrzehnt deutscher Literatur 1989 1999 2nd ed T bingen 2008 The latest volume in the series is The Play within the Play with Bernhard Greiner Amsterdam New York NY 2007

Literary Translation, Reception, and Transfer Norbert Bachleitner, 2020-09-21 The three concepts mentioned in the title of this volume imply the contact between two or more literary phenomena they are based on similarities that are related to a form of travelling and imitation or adaptation of entire texts genres forms or contents Transfer comprises all sorts of travelling with translation as a major instrument of transferring literature across linguistic and cultural barriers Transfer aims at the process of communication starting with the source product and its cultural context and then highlighting the mediation by certain agents and institutions to end up with inclusion in the target culture Reception lays its focus on the receiving culture especially on criticism reading and interpretation Translation therefore forms a major factor in reception with the general aim of reception studies being to reveal the wide spectrum of interpretations each text offers Moreover translations are the prime instrument in the distribution of literature across linguistic and cultural borders thus they pave the way for gaining prestige in the world of literature The thirty eight papers included in this volume and dedicated to research in this area were previously read at the ICLA conference 2016 in Vienna They are ample proof that the field remains at the center of interest in Comparative Literature      Perspectives on Literature and Translation Brian Nelson, Brigid Maher, 2013-10-15 This volume explores the relationship between literature and translation from three perspectives the creative dimensions of the translation process the way texts circulate between languages and the way texts are received in translation by new audiences The distinctiveness of the volume lies in the fact that it considers these fundamental aspects of literary translation together and in terms of their interconnections Contributors examine a wide variety of texts including world classics poetry genre fiction transnational literature and life writing from around the world Both theoretical and empirical issues are covered with some contributors approaching the topic as practitioners of literary translation and others writing from within the academy

A History of Women's Writing in Germany, Austria and Switzerland Jo Catling, 2000-03-23 This volume makes the wide ranging work of German women writers visible to a wider audience It is the first work in English to provide a chronological introduction to and overview of women's writing in German speaking countries from the Middle Ages to the present day Extensive guides to further reading and a bibliographical guide to the work of more than 400 women writers form an integral part of the volume which will be indispensable for students and scholars of German literature and all those interested in women's and gender studies      German-Language Nature Writing from Eighteenth Century to the Present Gabriele Dürbeck, Christine Kanz, 2024-05-11 This volume examines the topic of German language nature writing in a broad historical context spanning more than two centuries It brings together contributions on the debates of the category Nature Writing by numerous renowned international scholars It discusses literary texts of natural history nature exploration nature poetry perception and reflection by German speaking authors since the 18th century including texts by Ulrike Draesner and on Esther Kinsky's writing The book asks whether the here discussed texts can should or may also be labeled as Nature Writing and how this new perspective on German literary history might change traditional classifications such as Naturlyrik nature poetry in German literary history
