New Masculinities in Contemporary German Literature Frauke Matthes, 2023-05-13 The complex nexus between masculinity and national identity has long troubled but also fascinated the German cultural imagination This has become apparent again since the fall of the Iron Curtain and the turn of the millennium when transnational developments have noticeably shaped Germany's self perception as a nation This book examines the social and political impact of transnationalism with reference to current discourses of masculinity in novels by five contemporary male German language authors Specifically it analyses how conceptions of the masculine interact with those of nationality ethnicity and otherness in the selected texts and assesses the new masculinities that result from those interactions Exploring how local discourses of masculinity become part of transnational contexts in contemporary writing the book moves a consideration of masculinities from a native into a transnational sphere

Generational Shifts in Contemporary German Culture Laurel Cohen-Pfister, Susanne Vees-Gulani, 2010 The concept of the generation in today's German culture and literature and its role in German identity In the debates since 1945 on German history and culture the concept of generations has become ever more prominent Recent and ongoing shifts in how the various generations are seen and see themselves in relation to history and to each other have taken on key importance in contemporary German cultural studies The seismic events of twentieth century German history are no longer solely first generational lived experiences but are also historical moments seen through the eyes of successor generations The generation seen as a category of memory thus holds a key to major shifts in German identity The changing generational perspectives of German writers and filmmakers not only reflect but also influence these trends exposing both the expected differences between generational views and unexpected continuities Moreover as younger artists reframe recent history older generations like the 1968ers are also contributing to these shifts by reassessing their own experiences and cultural contributions This volume of new essays applies current discourse on generations in German culture to contemporary works dealing with major sociohistorical events since the Nazi period Contributors Svea Br unert Laurel Cohen Pfister Friederike Eigler Thomas C Fox Katharina Gerstenberger Erin McGlothlin Brad Prager Ilka Rasch Susanne Rinner Caroline Schaumann Maria Stehle Reinhild Steingr ver Susanne Vees Gulani Laurel Cohen Pfister is Associate Professor of German at Gettysburg College and Susanne Vees Gulani is Assistant Professor of German and Comparative Literature at Case Western Reserve University Postsocialist Memory in Contemporary German Culture Michel Mallet, Maria Mayr, Kristin Rebien, 2024-08-05 Scholarship on Eastern Europe after 1989 often focuses narrowly on the socialist past as authoritarian dictatorial or totalitarian This collection by contrast illuminates an additional dimension of post socialist memory it traces the survival of hopes and dreams born under socialism and the legacy of the unrealized alternative futures embedded within the socialist past Looking at contemporary German language literature film theater and art the volume analyzes reflections on everyday socialist realities as well as narratives of opposition and dissent The texts discussed here not only revisit the past but also challenge the present and help us imagine alternative futures Rather than framing the unrealized futures envisioned in the pre 1989 era as failures this collection probes post socialist memory for its future oriented potential to rethink issues of community equity and equality and late stage capitalism Foregrounding the complexities of Eastern European legacies also helps us reimagine the relationship between East and West both in Germany and in Europe as a whole Contemporary German Life Jon E.
