Olson Sundberg Kundig Allen Olson Sundberg Kundig Allen Architects, 2001 Over the past thirty five years Olson Sundberg Kundig Allen Architects based in Seattle has created a body of architecture that is recognized for its ability to merge notions of materiality craft and lightness all of which are richly demonstrated in their work on art collectors residences and art museums The firm began its creative existence with architect Jim Olson whose work in the late 1960s explored the complex relationship between dwellings and the landscape they inhabit In the early 1970s the growing firm broadened its emphasis to include urbanism and the landscape of the city Though firmly rooted in the regional features of the Pacific Northwest its unique climate and dramatic landscape the firm's work extends beyond any regionalist classification Instead the projects are characterized by a relaxed modernism that is attuned to its regional context Each of the projects featured in this volume exhibits a striking use of both natural and highly refined materials masterful modulation of light a careful balance between monumentality and intimacy and frequent collaborations with artists and craftsmen especially glass artists such as Ed Carpenter In addition to generous illustrations including full color and black and white photography and detailed drawings and plans Olson Sundberg Kundig Allen Architects Architecture Art and Craft features a statement from the firm's partners explicating their influence and process and an essay by noted architectural critic Paul Goldberger American Builder: Old Money Architecture Alberto J.

Living in Seattle Maria Christensen,2007-04 CM ,1981 Ebey's Landing National Historical Reserve, General Management Plan ,2006 Subject Catalog, 1981 Library of Congress,1981 AIA Journal American Institute of Architects,1980 Encyclopedia of Native American Tribes Carl Waldman,2014-05-14 A comprehensive illustrated encyclopedia which provides information on over 150 native tribes of North America including prehistoric peoples

Old-House Journal ,2009-10 Old House Journal is the original magazine devoted to restoring and preserving old houses For more than 35 years our mission has been to help old house owners repair restore update and decorate buildings of every age and architectural style Each issue explores hands on restoration techniques practical architectural guidelines historical overviews and homeowner stories all in a trusted authoritative voice The House with Sixteen Handmade Doors: A Tale of Architectural Choice and Craftsmanship Henry Petroski,2014-05-05 An architectural whodunit that unlocks the secrets of a hand built home When Henry Petroski and his wife Catherine bought a charming but modest six decades old island retreat in coastal Maine Petroski couldn't help but admire its unusual construction. An eminent expert on engineering history and design, he began wondering about the place's origins and evolution. Who built it and how? What needs, materials, technologies, historical developments, and laws shaped it? How had it fared through the years with its various inhabitants? Sleuthing around dimly lit closets, knotty pine wall panels, and even a secret passage, but never removing so much as a nail, Petroski zooms in on the details but also steps back to examine the structure in the context of its time and place. Catherine Petroski's beautiful photographs capture the clues and the atmosphere. A vibrant cast of neighbors and past residents, most notably the house's masterful creator, an engineer turned folk architect, become key characters in the story. As the mystery unfolds, revealing an extraordinary house and its environs, this ode to loving design will leave readers enchanted and inspired. Re-imagining the Modern American West Richard W. Etulain, 1996-09 Describes changes in how the West has been seen from a male-dominated frontier to a region with a powerful sense of place to a modern center of both genders, ethnic groups, and environmental interests. Eco-Homes Doctor Jenny Pickerill, 2016-01-15 It is widely understood that good, affordable eco-housing needs to be at the heart of any attempt to mitigate or adapt to climate change. This is the first book to comprehensively explore eco-housing from a geographical, social, and political perspective. It starts from the premise that we already know how to build good eco-houses and we already have the technology to retrofit existing housing. Despite this, relatively few eco-houses are being built. Featuring over thirty case studies of eco-housing in Britain, Spain, Thailand, Argentina, and the United States, Eco-Homes examines the ways in which radical changes to our houses, such as making them more temporary, using natural materials, or relying on manual heating and ventilation systems, require changes in how we live. As such, it argues, it is not lack of technology or political will that is holding us back from responding to climate change, but deep-rooted cultural and social understandings of our way of life and what we expect our houses to do for us. American Indians in a Modern World Donald Lee Fixico, 2008 American Indians in a Modern World recounts how American Indians, tribal communities, and tribal governments have survived and flourished in the period following the Dawes Land Allotment Act of 1887, especially through tremendous cultural resilience.
