Screening Contemporary Irish Fiction and Drama Marc C. Conner, Julie Grossman, R. Barton Palmer, 2022-09-16 In this book each chapter explores significant Irish texts in their literary cultural and historical contexts With an introduction that establishes the multiple critical contexts for Irish cinema literature and their adaptive textual worlds the volume addresses some of the most popular and important late 20th Century and 21st Century works that have had an impact on the Irish and global cinema and literary landscape A remarkable series of acclaimed and profitable domestic productions during the past three decades has accompanied while chronicling Ireland's struggle with self identity national consciousness and cultural expression such that the story of contemporary Irish cinema is in many ways the story of the young nation's growth pains and travails Whereas Irish literature had long stood as the nation's foremost artistic achievement it is not too much to say that film now rivals literature as Ireland's key form of cultural expression The proliferation of successful screen versionings of Irish fiction and drama shows how intimately the contemporary Irish cinema is tied to the project of both understanding and complicating even denying a national identity that has undergone radical change during the past three decades This present volume is the first to present a collective accounting of that productive synergy which has seen so much of contemporary Irish literature transferred to the screen

Silence in Modern Irish Literature, 2017-08-21 Silence in Modern Irish Literature is the first book to focus exclusively on the treatment of silence in modern Irish literature It reveals the wide spectrum of meanings that silence carries in modern Irish literature a mark of historical loss a form of resistance to authority a force of social oppression a testimony to the unspeakable an expression of desire a style of contemplation This volume addresses silence in psychological ethical topographical spiritual and aesthetic terms in works by a range of major authors including Yeats Joyce Beckett Bowen and Friel

Narratives of the Unspoken in Contemporary Irish Fiction M. Teresa Caneda-Cabrera, José Carregal-Romero, 2023-07-21 This Open access book is a collection of essays and offers an in depth analysis of silence as an aesthetic practice and a textual strategy which paradoxically speaks of the unspoken nature of many inconvenient hidden truths of Irish society in the work of contemporary fiction writers The study acknowledges Ireland's history of damaging silences and considers its legacies but it also underscores how silence can serve as a valuable even productive means of expression From a wide range of critical perspectives the individual essays address among other issues the conspiracies of silence in Catholic Ireland the silenced structural oppression of Celtic Tiger Ireland the recovery of silenced stories voices of the past and their examination in the present as well as millennial disaffection and the silencing of vulnerability in today's neoliberal Ireland The book's attention to silence provides a rich vocabulary for understanding what unfolds in the quiet interstices of Irish writing from recent decades This study also invokes the past to understand the present and thus demonstrates the continuities and discontinuities that define how silence operates in Irish culture Grant FFI2017 84619 P AEI ERDF EU INTRUTHS Inconvenient Truths Cultural Practices of Silence in Contemporary Irish Fiction
