Social and Behavioral Foundations of Public Health Jeannine Coreil, 2010 This book is intended as a core textbook for courses in public health that examines current issues in health from a social and behavioral science perspective It is a cross disciplinary course public health medical sociology health psychology medical anthropology and thus there are many ways to teach the course based on a particular instructor s perspective The authors wrote the book because they were dissatisfied with the way other texts apply social science to public health and found that many texts being used were from related fields such as medicine nursing or general health The authors are planning to do a major revision based on reviews they have collected and the reviews we have collected We believe the revised edition will essentially be a new text based on rich feedback They will include new theory new cases new research and a rich ancillary package They will also reduce the frameworks presented to make the book more readable to students Living and Dying in the Contemporary World Veena Das, Clara Han, 2015-11-17 Taking a novel approach to the contradictory impulses of violence and care illness and healing this book radically shifts the way we think of the interrelations of institutions and experiences in a globalizing world Living and Dying in the Contemporary World is not just another reader in medical anthropology but a true tour de force a deep exploration of all that makes life unbearable and yet livable through the labor of ordinary people This book comprises forty four chapters by scholars whose ethnographic and historical work is conducted around the globe including South Asia East Asia Latin America Africa the Middle East Europe and the United States Bringing together the work of established scholars with the vibrant voices of younger scholars Living and Dying in the Contemporary World will appeal to anthropologists sociologists health scientists scholars of religion and all who are curious about how to relate to the rapidly changing institutions and experiences in an ever more connected world CONTEMPORARY ISSUES IN
