Contemporary Painting:

Contemporary Painting in Context Anne Ring Petersen, Mikkel Bogh, Hans Dam Christensen, Peter Nørgaard Larsen, 2010 These essays examine the transformation and expansion of the field of painting in relation to the more general lines of development in culture and visibility The book is divided into five parts with each of them pursuing a distinct line of inquiry Modern Painting Simon Morley, 2023-09-07 While acknowledging the legacy of Herbert Read's classic 1959 study A Concise History of Modern Painting in the World of Art series academic and artist Simon Morley places the foundation of modern art much earlier than Read at the emergence of Romanticism and the dawn of the industrial age Structured loosely chronologically by period the focus is as much on individual artists as well as movements with works discussed within a broader context stylistic historical geographical and gender and ethnic frames themes that recur throughout the chapters Generously illustrated the global and diverse range of artists featured include William Blake douard Manet Hilma af Klint Kazimir Malevich Willem de Kooning Amrita Sher Gil Faith Ringgold and Kehinde Wiley This guide also includes an Appendix in the form of questions the reader might like to ask in relation to the artists and the ideas discussed in order to reconsider the works from a contemporary perspective The History of Modern Painting Richard Muther, 1895 Figure and Abstraction in Contemporary Painting Ronald Paulson, 1990 What Is Contemporary Art? Terry E. Smith, 2009-10-15 Who gets to say what counts as contemporary art Artists critics curators gallerists auctioneers collectors or the public Revealing how all of these groups have shaped today's multifaceted definition Terry Smith brilliantly shows that an historical approach offers the best answer to the question What is Contemporary Art Smith argues that the most recognizable kind is characterized by a return to mainstream modernism in the work of such artists as Richard Serra and Gerhard Richter as well as the retro sensationalism of figures like Damien Hirst and Takashi Murakami At the same time Smith reveals postcolonial artists are engaged in a different kind of practice one that builds on local concerns and tackles questions of identity history and globalization A younger generation embodies yet a third approach to contemporaneity by investigating time place mediation and ethics through small scale closely connective art making Inviting readers into these diverse yet overlapping art worlds Smith offers a behind the scenes introduction to the institutions the personalities the biennials and of course the works that together are defining the contemporary The resulting map of where art is now illuminates not only where it has been but also where it is going Jizi and His Art in Contemporary China David Adam Brubaker, Chunchen Wang, 2015-02-12 This interdisciplinary study promotes the thesis that some contemporary Chinese ink artists succeed in using principles of traditional Chinese aesthetics to convey the union of self with nature others and the universe The investigation is a case study of the writings and paintings of Jizi an ink wash artist in Beijing who combines images of icy mountains Tibetan landscapes cosmic vistas and enclosures of personal existence Jizi's success in expressing the unification of these dimensions is confirmed by developing and applying an interpretation of Jing Hao's classic description of the

authentic image which resonates with the vitality of nature To find words for resonance with visible nature the inquiry extends to such writers as Li Zehou Arthur Danto and Maurice Merleau Ponty In short an account of authenticity in Chinese ink painting is offered experimentally as a means for assessing whether contemporary Chinese artworks are expressive of Chinese philosophy and culture The text includes stylistic comparisons with artists such as E C Escher Guo Xi Jia Youfu Liu Guosong Rene Magritte Piet Mondrian and Xu Bing The result is an appreciation of the healing influence of Chinese ink art in a global culture that is vibrant complex diverse and affirming of the present In this rigorous far reaching and original analysis of contemporary ink art painting Brubaker and Wang focus our attention on the work of one independent painter Jizi whose work exemplifies an uncanny marriage between ink art and contemporary concerns In the central chapters Brubaker persuasively argues that in this work Jizi captures principles essential to traditional Chinese aesthetics articulated in terms of wholeness emptiness and visibility that enable the works to express the unification of the self with nature and the universe as a whole It does this through forms that are innovative and part of artistic practices and discourses that are becoming increasingly global Mary Wiseman The City University of New York This important publication focuses on the evocative ink wash paintings of an artist who has over the course of decades demonstrated an unwavering commitment to exploring the technical formal philosophical and experiential dimensions of his chosen medium The essays commentaries and critical reflections collected in this volume present unique perspectives on Jizi s practice significantly contributing to the growing body of scholarship on the continuing vitality of the ink wash tradition in the global contemporary Dr Wenny Teo The Courtauld Institute of Art Through an in depth study of the ink painting practice of contemporary Chinese artist Jizi the authors discover Chinese ink painting s philosophical perspectives cosmic foundations and contemporary possibilities They also uncovered a way to enter into the artist s rich and profound spiritual world through Jiazi s expansive visual patterning and refined spiritual imagery he activates a long and great cultural tradition Yu Yang Central Academy of Fine Arts
