Contemporary Racisms And Ethnicities Social And Cultural Transformations:

Contemporary Racisms and Ethnicities Mairtin Mac an Ghaill, 1999 Questions of migration national and ethnic belonging are of major symbolic significance to Western post colonial societies in uncertain times The main focus of this text is the interrelationship of changing representations of race ethnicity and racism with wider socio economic political and cultural transformations Europe's new racism? : causes, manifestations and solutions, 2002 Street Gangs,

Migration and Ethnicity Frank van Gemert, Dana Peterson, Inger-Lise Lien, 2013-05-13 This book is the third publication from the Eurogang Network a cross national collaboration of researchers from both North America and Europe devoted to comparative and multi national research on youth gangs It provides a unique insight into the influence of migration on local gang formation and development paying particular attention to the importance of ethnicity The book also explores the challenges that migration and ethnicity pose for responding effectively to the growth of such gangs particularly in areas where public discourse on such issues is restricted Chapters in the book are concerned to address both situations where there have been longstanding problems with street gangs as well as areas where such issues have just started to emerge A variety of different research traditions and approaches are represented including ethnographic methods self report surveys and interviews official records data and victim interviews It will be essential reading for anybody interested in the phenomenon of street and youth gangs Race, Ethnicity and Social Theory John Solomos, 2022-07-01 Race Ethnicity and Social Theory provides a critical analysis of the main areas of scholarly research and debate about racial and ethnic relations over the past few decades The book covers substantive areas of scholarly debate in this fast changing field including race and social relations identities and the construction of the racial other feminism and race the relationship between race and nationalism antisemitism the evolution of new forms of racism race and political representation and more generally the changing debates about race and ethnicity in our global environment The book argues that there is a need for more dialogue across national and conceptual boundaries about how to develop the theoretical tools needed to understand both the historical roots of contemporary forms of racialised social and political relations and the contemporary forms through which race is made and re made A key argument that runs through the book is the need to develop conceptual frameworks that can help us to make sense of the changing forms of racial and ethnic relations in contemporary societies This means developing more dialogue across national research cultures as well as empirical research that seeks to engage with the key issues raised by contemporary theoretical debates The book will be of interest to both students wanting to develop a deeper understanding of this area of scholarship and to researchers of race ethnicity and migration working in various national and disciplinary environments Anti-racism and Multiculturalism Mark Alleyne, 2017-09-08 All scholarly books are engagements with the existing literature often the published scholarly work of one established discipline This book originated with modest objectives to produce a work that would be in conversation with the literature of international relations even though not of relevance only to that field The professed goal of international relations is international peace The ethical lens of pondering the best means to achieve world peace is used to filter media content in the field of multiculturalism and anti racism Although there has been little work on the impact of racial difference on the contours of contemporary international order there has been a sizeable body of research intended to abolish the credibility of pseudo scientific racism Such racism has provided the ideological foundation and justification for imperialism colonialism the holocaust and apartheid Race has been debunked as a myth Because of this racism the ideology bred of human classification according to racial difference has been found to be intellectually and morally barren But the need to communicate egalitarian and scientific sentiments remains The contributors to this volume consider five questions How does the literature on antiracism improve our understanding of conflict resolution How does the analysis of the media s role in racist and anti racist discourses improve the process of theorizing on hate and war propaganda How can research on anti racist discourse improve UN peacekeeping What implications does this subject have for theory building and cultural diversity How and why should the literature on anti racism expand research in international relations This is a unique worthwhile framework for cross disciplinary research in race and intellectual consensus and conflict

Anti-racism in Social Work practice Angie Bartoli,2025-02-28 Anti racism has a long history within the profession of social work and its education Despite an agenda within higher education which promotes internationalization and practice which recognizes diversity little has been written to address the question of why black African students have a different experience from others on their social work educational journey This book is based upon the authors experience as educators and their own research about and with black students experience of racism and otherness within social work practice and education Radical and honest in nature it re visits anti racism within social work practice and education from a student focused and informed perspective based on lived experience and conversations This book will be of interest to all social work students educators and policy makers with an interest in anti racism and diversity It includes practical models and tried and tested tools to help the reader work through these issues Tools that can assist students in discussing uncomfortable issues in the classroom are to be welcomed and this book is thus a valuable resource This book offers many examples of how racism can be addressed in social work education and training Important features of the book are the summaries of key pieces of research in each chapter as well as case studies and critical questions which provide a springboard for discussion It offers a timely reminder that discussion about race and anti racist forms of pedagogical approaches for teaching has fallen off the agenda It is written in an accessible style is an engaging read and this is a welcome addition to the literature Dr Claudia Bernard Goldsmiths College

Racism and Anti-Racism in Europe Alana

Lentin,2004-06-20 Remarkable a major contribution to our understanding and handling of one of the crucial contemporary issues that acquires more gravity by the day Zygmunt Bauman This is an in depth sociological study of the phenomenon of anti racism as both political discourse and social movement practice in western Europe Lentin develops a comparative study of anti racism in Britain France Italy and Ireland While race and racism have been submitted to many profound analyses anti racism has often been dealt with as either the mere opposite of racism or as a theme for prescriptives or polemics by those concerned with the persistence of racist discrimination By contrast this book views anti racism as a variety of discourses that are central to the understanding of the politics of modern states Examining anti racism gives us insights not only into current debates on citizenship immigration and Europeanisation but it also crucially assists us in understanding the nature of race racism and racialisation themselves At a time of mounting state racism against asylum seekers migrants and refugees throughout Europe and beyond this book provides a much needed exploration of the discourse of anti racism that shapes policy and public opinion today

Europe's New Racism Evens Foundation,2002-06 Europe has seen a tremendous rise in popularity of new rightist political parties in the last two decades or so claiming cultural supremacy of the so called native Europeans over foreign immigrants In this volume European scholars from Russian to Britain have come together to examine the media and social and legal policies in an effort to determine the causes of this resurgence of rightist and anti democratic ideologies They furthermore suggest actions that might help combat racism more effectively

Islamic Radicalism and Multicultural Politics Tahir Abbas,2011-03 The emergence of an Islamic political radicalism in Britain has been one of the most dramatic developments in post war society Islamic Radicalism and Multicultural Politics explores the context behind this phenomenon focusing on post war immigration and integration the complex relations that exist between Britain and Islam and the true extent of social and economic inequalities that affect Muslims

Experiences of Islamophobia James Carr,2015-09-07 Since 9 11 interest in Islamophobia has steadily increased as has the number of academic publications discussing the phenomenon However theoretical expositions have dominated the field Lived experiences of Islamophobia by contrast have received little attention In recognition of the importance of addressing this imbalance this book provides theoretically informed analyses alongside everyday testimonies of anti Muslim racism set comparatively in an international context Carr argues that the failure of the neoliberal state to collect data on anti Muslim racism highlights the perpetuation of race blindness within governance Not only does this mean that the salience of racism is denied in the lives of those who experience it but this also enables the state to absolve itself from challenging the issue and providing the necessary supports to Muslim communities Offering original empirical research and theoretical engagement with the concept of race blind neoliberal governance this book will appeal to students and scholars across the social sciences in addition to policymakers and activists working in this topical area

Muslim Britain Tahir Abbas,2013-04-04 This edited collection is a cogent exploration of how the events of September 11 and the subsequent war on terror have impacted on the lived experiences of British South Asian Muslims in a number of important spheres namely religious and ethnic identity citizenship Islamophobia gender and education radicalism media and political representation The contributors to this volume are specialists in the fields of sociology social geography anthropology theology and law Each of the chapters explores the positions of South Asian Muslims from different analytical perspectives based on various methodological approaches A number of the chapters carry primary empirical analysis therefore making this one of the most pertinent compilations in this field Other contributions are more discursive providing valuable polemics on the current positions of British South Asian Muslims

Believing Women in Islam Asma Barlas, 2019-01-16 Does Islam call for the oppression of women Non Muslims point to the subjugation of women that occurs in many Muslim countries especially those that claim to be Islamic while many Muslims read the Qur'an in ways that seem to justify sexual oppression inequality and patriarchy Taking a wholly different view Asma Barlas develops a believer's reading of the Qur'an that demonstrates the radically egalitarian and antipatriarchal nature of its teachings Beginning with a historical analysis of religious authority and knowledge Barlas shows how Muslims came to read inequality and patriarchy into the Qur'an to justify existing religious and social structures and demonstrates that the patriarchal meanings ascribed to the Qur'an are a function of who has read it how and in what contexts She goes on to reread the Qur'an's position on a variety of issues in order to argue that its teachings do not support patriarchy To the contrary Barlas convincingly asserts that the Qur'an affirms the complete equality of the sexes thereby offering an opportunity to theorize radical sexual equality from within the framework of its teachings This new view takes readers into the heart of Islamic teachings on women gender and patriarchy allowing them to understand Islam through its most sacred scripture rather than through Muslim cultural practices or Western media stereotypes For this revised edition of Believing Women in Islam Asma Barlas has written two new chapters Abraham's Sacrifice in the Qur'an and Secular Feminism and the Qur'an as well as a new preface an extended discussion of the Qur'an's wife beating verse and of men's presumed role as women's guardians and other updates throughout the book

Asylum Seekers Linda Briskman,Alperhan Babacan,2009-05-27 Negotiating Political Identities Daniel

Faas, 2016-04-22 Globalization European integration and migration are challenging national identities and changing education across Europe The nation state no longer serves as the sole locus of civic participation and identity formation ceasing to have the influence it once had over the implementation of policies Drawing on rich empirical data from four schools in Germany and Britain this groundbreaking book is the first study of its kind to examine how schools mediate government policies and create distinct educational contexts to shape youth identity negotiation and integration processes Negotiating Political Identities will appeal to educationists sociologists and political scientists whose work concerns issues of migration identity citizenship and ethnicity It will also be an invaluable source of evidence for policymakers and professionals concerned with balancing cultural diversity and social cohesion in such a way as to promote more inclusive citizenship and educational policies in multiethnic multifaith schools
