Contemporary Thinking about Jesus ,1944      Contemporary Thinking about Paul Thomas Samuel Kepler,1950

Jesus Christ in Modern Thought John Macquarrie,2010-06 Here following the example of Rahner and Pannenberg John Macquarrie examines Jesus Christ's humanity to his origin as God Part one considers the New Testament sources including the classical theology period Part two examines the Enlightenment and post Enlightenment critique of classical christology i.e. studying Jesus Christ as him from above as opposed to his humanity while in part three Macquarrie makes his own christological statement on who Jesus Christ really is for us today      Issues in Contemporary Christian Thought Duane Olson, Olson's clear and concise overview roots contemporary questions firmly in Christian responses to the Enlightenment He discusses the range of contemporary opinions their rationales and what's at stake Olson illustrates these alternate frameworks as they play out in central concerns over the being of God in relation to the universe how to understand the figure of Christ today and the distinctively new notions of being human Specifically geared to the novice theologian in college or seminary settings Olson's text includes Reflection Research Questions Suggestions for Further Reading and a Glossary      The Oxford Handbook of Theology and Modern European Thought Nicholas Adams,George Pattison,Graham Ward,2013-02-28 Modern European thought describes a wide range of philosophies cultural programmes and political arguments developed in Europe in the period following the French Revolution This handbook charts and explores recurring themes and approaches to this broad and complex topic particularly with regard to Theology      God's Autopsy and the Living Truth of Soul Hal Childs,2022-08-22 The Grand Narrative of Christianity that the Bible created is dead and the Bible is silent Does the Bible have anything relevant to say to our modern circumstances We ask where did God come from What happened to God God's Autopsy reinterprets soul and God as historical psychological phenomena related to the cultural structure of consciousness the invisible shared context of thought which has changed dramatically over the past three millennia This book offers a new way to understand the trajectory of Western civilization by making the implicit foundation of Western consciousness soul visible and conscious Our modern Western consciousness is radically different from that of antiquity when the Bible emerged Jung's psychological philosophical insight that whenever we speak about the psyche it is the psyche speaking about itself leads to the realization that today consciousness has come home to itself Beginning with preliterate polytheism the emergence of the transcendent god Yahweh and Christ which led directly to the Enlightenment objective soul continues to unfold itself How did late modernity become a topsy turvy quantum virtual digital impersonal and abstract world that appears to be running away from us The answer is unexpectedly and shockingly in the Bible itself

Jesus in an Age of Neoliberalism James G. Crossley,2014-10-20 Jesus in an Age of Neoliberalism analyses the ideology underpinning contemporary scholarly and popular quests for the historical Jesus Focusing on cultural and political issues the book examines postmodernism multiculturalism and the liberal masking of power The study ranges across diverse topics the dubious periodisation of the quest for the historical Jesus biblioblogging Jesus the Great Man and western individualism image conscious Jesus scholarship the Jewishness of Jesus and the multicultural Other evangelical and mythical Jesuses and the contradictions between personal beliefs and dominant ideological trends in the construction of historical Jesuses Jesus in an Age of Neoliberalism offers readers a radical revisioning of contemporary biblical studies      Christ in Contemporary Thought William E. May, 1970      Anthropomorphic Depictions of God Zulfiqar Ali Shah, 2012-01-01 This monumental study examines issues of anthropomorphism in the three Abrahamic Faiths as viewed through the texts of the Hebrew Bible the New Testament and the Qur'an Throughout history Christianity and Judaism have tried to make sense of God While juxtaposing the Islamic position against this the author addresses the Judeo Christian worldview and how each has chosen to framework its encounter with God to what extent this has been the result of actual scripture and to what extent the product of theological debate or church decrees of later centuries and absorption of Hellenistic philosophy Shah also examines Islam's heavily anti anthropomorphic stance and Islamic theological discourse on Tawhid as well as the Ninety Nine Names of God and what these have meant in relation to Muslim understanding of God and His attributes Describing how these became the touchstone of Muslim discourse with Judaism and Christianity he critiques theological statements and perspectives that came to dilute if not counter strict monotheism As secularism debates whether God is dead the issue of anthropomorphism has become of immense importance The quest for God especially in this day and age is partly one of intellectual longing To Shah anthropomorphic concepts and corporeal depictions of the Divine are perhaps among the leading factors of modern atheism As such he ultimately draws the conclusion that the postmodern longing for God will not be quenched by pre modern anthropomorphic and corporeal concepts of the Divine which have simply brought God down to this cosmos with a precise historical function and a specified location reducing the intellectual and spiritual force of what God is and represents causing the soul to detract from a sense of the sacred and thereby belief in Him      Faces of Jesus Jose Miguez Bonino, 2002-11-20

Jesus Christ Today Stuart G. Hall, 2009-02-26 Jesus of Nazareth is a perennial subject of interest and one of the most influential people that ever lived The religious movement which flowed from him produced the Christian Church in all its various manifestations Christian believers have in common a regard for Jesus as Lord and God in some way a bodily appearance revealing the Father of the universe Christian thinkers down the centuries have continually tried to define and explain who Jesus was and is This book draws together some of the best modern thinking about the biblical evidence the beliefs of the first few centuries when orthodoxy was being defined the past two centuries when churchmen have responded to the challenge of modern rationalism and some of the reactions to Jesus in the world wide spread of modern Christianity and in Islam It concludes with an attempt at a simple formula which might provoke and sustain faith in Jesus Christ in the most recent intellectual environment      The Millennial Kingdom John F. Walvoord, 1959 The Millennial Kingdom is a comprehensive biblical and historical treatment of the doctrine of the millennium written for the pastor students scholar or layperson The three leading millennial views postmillennialism amillennialism and premillennialism are presented in the context of their history their theology and their biblical interpretation Dr Walvoord presents postmillennialism first and then discusses amillennialism However the subject of premillennialism forms the main body of the work The author introduces premillennialism with a survey of its historical background in the Old and New Testaments and in the history of the church Its theological setting and methods of interpretation are discussed A presentation of the character of the millennium concludes the volume

One Priest's Wondering Beliefs John E. Bowers,2016-09-15 This book is aimed at those Christians who have begun to question the conventional understandings of Jesus and Christianity and even of what we mean by God and have become discomfited by the dissonance between their own thinking and the church's stance A critical thinker by inclination and education Jack Bowers explored Celtic Christian spirituality for a decade That taught him there are other ways to live out the Christian faith than what we have been told by Rome and Protestantism Upon retirement in 1998 no longer professionally required to reflect conventional theology his belief structure began to wander seriously re-examining all he had taught and believed Having heard whispered rumors in younger years of priests losing their faith instead he felt he was not losing his theology but growing it This volume leads you through the evolution of his beliefs to what he can speak out with confidence right now understanding that as he continues to grow and experience this world and hopefully get a little wiser his beliefs will evolve yet farther He invites you into this challenging spiritual pilgrimage to discover what you can confidently believe in 2016 AD

Studies in the Life of Christ Rory C. Foster,Rupert Clinton Foster,1995 This work offers a comprehensive study in the life of Christ from book preface

The Christian Century ,1927

Eberhard Jüngel and Existence Deborah Casewell,2021-05-30 This book interrogates the contemporary Lutheran theologian Eberhard Jüngel's theological anthropology arguing that Jüngel's thought can provide a model for theological engagement with philosophical accounts of existence Focusing on Jüngel's theology of existence the author explores the thought of philosophers including Heidegger and Hegel their influence on and application to his theology and argues that Jüngel's account of humanity should be seen as a response to atheistic existentialist accounts of existence In showing how Jüngel's theology is informed by and dependent on philosophical thought this book provides a new lens on the interplay between philosophy theology and religion in twentieth century German thought It will be of particular interest to researchers in philosophy theology and philosophy of religion

Second Thoughts about the Second Coming Joe Reeves,2011-10 In the book Second Thoughts About The Second Coming teacher author and systems engineer Joe Reeves deals with many aspects of the idea of Jesus second coming that are seldom considered by modern Christians but he does so from the standpoint of asking several critical questions The basic questions he asks and answers in this book are can a book of scripture at some later date come to mean what it never meant Can a scriptural text at a later date come to mean what the author obviously did not intend it to mean to those of his original envisioned recipients to whom he wrote and a meaning that the first recipients simply would not have understood Then based on those answers he asks and answers several questions about Jesus resurrection His resurrected nature and His ascension Then based on the biblical answers to those questions asks and answers the question about whether or not Jesus and the biblical writers predicted a second coming Using those questions and the question of specifically what would those first century Christians have understood about what modern interpreters call Jesus second coming as the basis for study Joe uses his training and experience in systems thinking Bible history cultural anthropology and logic and philosophical realism to formulate a system of thinking that challenges many of the modern assumptions upon which the four most common doctrines about Jesus second coming are based For the person who wishes to learn more about how the first Christians would have used and understood the writings they received about Jesus and His life after His resurrection this book is a must read     Way of Blessing Way of Life Clark M.
