Contemporary Wales Vol 15 2002:

Contemporary Wales The Open University, This 15 hour free course explored key aspects of the economy society politics and culture of contemporary Wales from a social science perspective Conservative Party Politicians at the Turn of the 20th/21st Centuries: Their Attitudes, Behaviour and Background Dr Nigel Gervas Meek,2012 Using data collected from one of the most comprehensive quantitative surveys of its type Conservative party politicians at the turn of the 20th 21st centuries offers an authoritative insight into the behaviour background and attitudes of Conservative politicians in England Scotland and Wales at all levels from local councillors to MPs Peers and MEPs Modern Maritime Law (Volume 2) Aleka Mandaraka-Sheppard,2013-12-17 This unique title examines in depth issues of jurisdiction maritime law and practice from a modern perspective and highlights the importance of risk management with a view to avoiding pitfalls in litigation or arbitration and minimising exposure to liabilities The third edition has been fully revised and restructured into two self contained volumes the first covering jurisdictional issues and risks and the second exploring the diverse aspects of maritime law risks and liabilities The second volume tackles the substantive maritime law with a particular emphasis on risk and liabilities and analyses issues of contract tort and criminal law causation and remoteness of damages Key features of Volume Two include An analysis of the regulatory regime new EU and IMO safety at sea legislation reforming practices for flag states and recognised organisations vetting codes of good practice and International Conventions An explanation of the Rules of attribution of liability the impact of the ISM Code upon liabilities including criminal corporate manslaughter and the new Directive for ship source pollution Important developments in areas including Ship managing risks best endeavours and fiduciary duties Mortgagees risks and economic torts New BIMCO standard terms of contracts Ship sale risks including sale as is and as she was Shipbuilding risks guarantees and performance bonds New trends on wrongful acts of employees collisions and measure of damages salvage issues environmental salvage and towage contracts Piracy risks cases and general average New perspectives on risks and liabilities of port authorities Pollution liabilities including trends of prosecution of class societies and charterers and new limits of liability under International Conventions Purchase Volumes 1 and 2 of the Modern Maritime Law together for a reduced price at <http://www.routledge.com/books/details/9780415843201> Territorial Politics and Health Policy Scott L. Greer,2004 This study identifies the different combinations of market profession management and civil society that England Northern Ireland Scotland and Wales chose in their efforts to provide health services to all It explains why these four health systems despite facing similar pressures and opportunities have developed dramatically different health policy trajectories A Bird that Flies with Two Wings Miranda Forsyth,2009-09-01 This book investigates the problems and possibilities of plural legal orders through an in depth study of the relationship between the state and customary justice systems in Vanuatu It argues that there is a need to move away from the current state centric approach to law reform in the South Pacific region and instead include all state and non state legal orders in development strategies and dialogue The book also presents a typology of models of engagement between state and non state legal systems and describes a process for analysing which of these models would be most advantageous for any country in the South Pacific region and beyond

E-Learning and Business Plans Elaina Norlin,Tiffini Travis,2008-07-25 E learning and Business Plans National and International Case Studies provides a comprehensive view on how to develop non profit business plans for both small and large scale e learning projects Editors Tiffini Travis and Elaina Norlin present both national and international case studies covering many elements of a typical non profit business plan and reveal the experiences individuals have had while developing their project This book will be useful to professionals non profit organizations and academic researchers who are currently considering working on large scale e learning or high cost high risk projects While many issues are library related the book is relevant to non librarians as well

The Welsh and the Shaping of Early Modern Ireland, 1558-1641 Rhys Morgan,2014 Demonstrates that there was a significant Welsh involvement in Ireland between 1558 and 1641 It explores how the Welsh established themselves as soldiers government officials and planters in Ireland It also discusses how the Welsh although participating in the English colonisation of Ireland nevertheless remained a distinct community settling together and maintaining strong kinship and social and economic networks to fellow countrymen including in Wales

What's Wrong with Contemporary Art? Peter Timms,2004 The packing promotion and reception of contemporary art troubles Peter Timms Market demands dominate and art has been corrupted and trivialized The problem he argues extends to the way art is taught in art schools the art that artists make the collecting and curatorial methodologies of galleries and museums funding criteria the way that art is written about and the media s depiction of art

Early Modern Northern English Lexis Javier Ruano-García,2010 The history of regional Englishes in the Early Modern period still presents numerous lacunae that need to be filled in order to provide a complete insight into the English linguistic setting at this time This book aims to remedy these deficiencies in some measure In particular this monograph seeks to shed light upon the history of Early Modern Northern English vocabulary by means of the first corpus of Early Modern texts where Northern linguistic traits are used for literary purposes It provides a linguistically documented description of Northern words from a synchronic standpoint dealing with their distribution etymology as well as with some of their morphological and semantic characteristics In addition this study offers a discussion of the Early Modern literary representations of Northern speech A thorough revision of the treatment that Northern lexical items are given in contemporary and modern lexicographic sources is also presented together with a glossary that outlines the diachronic profile of the terms gathered

Humanism and the Reform of Sacred Music in Early Modern England Hyun-Ah Kim,2016-05-13 John Merbecke c 1505 c 1585 is most famous as the composer of the first musical setting of the English liturgy The Booke of Common Praier Noted BCPN published in 1550 Not only was Merbecke a pioneer in setting English prose to music but also the compiler of the first Concordance of the whole English Bible 1550 and of the first English encyclopaedia of biblical and theological studies A

Booke of Notes and Common Places 1581 By situating Merbecke and his work within a broader intellectual and religious cultural context of Tudor England this book challenges the existing studies of Merbecke based on the narrow theological approach to the Reformation Furthermore it suggests a re thinking of the prevailing interpretative framework of Reformation musical history On the basis of the new contextual study of Merbecke this book seeks to re interpret his work particularly BCPN in the light of humanist rhetoric It sees Merbecke as embodying the ideal of the Christian musical orator demonstrating that BCPN is an Anglican epitome of the Erasmian synthesis of eloquence theology and music The book thus depicts Merbecke as a humanist reformer through re evaluation of his contributions to the developments of vernacular music and literature in early modern England As such it will be of interest not only to church musicians but also to historians of the Reformation and students of wider Tudor culture

Modern Studies in Property Law - Volume 2 Elizabeth

Cooke,2003-05-09 This book comprises a collection of papers given at the conference of the Centre for Property Law at the University of Reading held in 2002

Mediation Law Penny Brooker,2013-10-23 In England mediation became a key part of the civil justice reform agenda after the Woolf Reforms of 1996 as disputants were deflected from litigation towards settlement outside the court system The Civil Procedure Rules CPR give courts the power to encourage mediation through judicial case management or use stronger measures by using costs to penalise parties who act unreasonably by refusing to use ADR or mediation One of the effects of this institutionalisation is an emerging case law that defines how mediation is practiced as it merges with the litigation process When mediation first began to be used in England the parties either agreed to mediate by a contract before a dispute happened or decided to attempt the process as a way of resolving disagreements Inevitably some disputants either refused to abide by their contractual obligations or would not follow through with the settlement agreements reached through the process This brought the authority of the law into a new area and the juridification process began This book explores how mediation law shapes the practice of mediation in the English jurisdiction It provides a comprehensive examination of the legal framework for mediation and explores the jurisprudence in order to analyse the extent that institutionalisation by the state and courts has led to the monopolisation by lawyers and a further juridification process results The book includes a comparative legal methodology on the framework underpinning mediation practise in other common law jurisdictions including the United States Australia and Hong Kong in order to explicate shared or distinctive approaches to mediation The book will be of great interest to academics and students of legal theory and dispute resolution

Modern Criminal Procedure Yale Kamisar,2008 The new 12th edition of the Kamisar LaFare Israel King Kerr criminal procedure casebook is completely up to date Older material has been compressed or eliminated to make way for the new Moreover the new edition displays the same a thoughtful organization of subjects b judicious selection and editing of cases and c intelligent use of the rich criminal procedure literature that has made this casebook the most widely used book in its field since it first appeared 40 years ago
