Content Of The Form Narrative Discourse And Historical Representation:

The Content of the Form Hayden White,1990-08-01 Hayden White probes the notion of authority in art and literature and examines the problems of meaning its production distribution and consumption in different historical epochs In the end he suggests the only meaning that history can have is the kind that a narrative imagination gives to it The secret of the process by which consciousness invests history with meaning resides in the content of the form in the way our narrative capacities transform the present into a fulfillment of a past from which we would wish to have descended The Content of the Form Hayden V. White,1987 Form Hayden V. White,1987 Representing Elizabeth in Stuart England John Watkins,2002-08-08 Publisher Description Deconstructing History Alun Munslow,1997 In Deconstructing History Alun Munslow examines history in the postmodern age providing an introduction to the topics and debates inherent in a postmodern approach to history Detailing both empiricist and deconstruction issues and considering the arguments of both schools Munslow debates the position that not only is history defined as the textual product of historians but also that narrative may provide the textual model for the past itself An examination of the character of historical evidence and an exploration of the role of historians as well as a discussion of the failure of traditional historical models is included Munslow maps the controversies involved in and assesses the merits of the deconstructionist position arguing that instead of beginning with past events themselves history begins with representations of the past Discourses and Narrations in the Biosciences Brian Hurwitz,Paola Spinozzi,2011 Discourses and Narrations in the Biosciences investigates the forms of writing in which scientific claims are formulated and announced Argumentative strategies compositional rules and figurative expressions in communication and narrativization of scientific knowledge are the focus of interdisciplinary contributions by humanities and science scholars The first part of the book dedicated to Rhetorical and Epistemological Aspects of Science Writing addresses how scientific pursuits and methods feed into multi level texts that generate responses within science society and culture The second part entitled Bioscientific Discourses and Narrations examines popularisations and fictionalizations of science in relation to diversity deviancy ageing illness reproduction the evolution of humankind mathematical models of biomedical systems and the myth of the heroic scientist Assessing the narrative impetus and command of literary and meta discursive strategies shown by contemporary science writers enhances understanding of the methods and conventions through which the biosciences produce knowledge The Persistence of History Vivian Sobchack,2014-02-04 The Persistence of History examines how the moving image has completely altered traditional modes of historical thought and representation Exploring a range of film and video texts from The Ten Commandments to the Rodney King video from the projected work of documentarian Errol Morris to Oliver Stone s JFK and Spielberg s Schindler s List the volume questions the appropriate forms of media for making the incoherence and fragmentation of contemporary history intelligible Transformations in Personhood and Culture After Theory Christie McDonald,Gary Wihl,2010-11-01 Story

Harold Scheub,1998-10-01 What is the essence of story How does the storyteller convey meaning Leading scholar Harold Scheub tackles these questions and more demonstrating that the power of story lies in emotion While others have focused on the importance of structure in the art of story Scheub emphasizes emotion He shows how an expert storyteller uses structural elements image rhythm and narrative to shape a story s fundamental emotional content The storyteller uses traditional images repetition and linear narrative to move the audience past the story s surface of morals and ideas and make connections to their past present and future To guide the audience on this emotional journey is the storyteller s art The traditional stories from South African Xhosa and San cultures included in the book lend persuasive support to Scheub s These stories speak for themselves demonstrating that a skilled performer can stir emotions despite the obstacles of space time and culture Methods for the Study of Literature as Cultural Memory ,2022-06-08 In this volume collaborators from different universities all over the world explore a wide variety of methods for the study of literature as cultural memory In literature the past may be re constructed in various ways and in very diverse forms This immediately raises the question as to how one can describe and inventory the various discourses and metadiscourses of historical representation In what sense can the rhetoric of literary historiography itself contribute to literature s function as cultural memory Which methods of analysis are most appropriate for describing specific text types or genres as cultural memory What have been the pragmatic uses and the ethical merits of the stability and continuity that literature has often provided for European American Asian and African cultures What are the dilemmas they create for our teaching at the end of the twentieth century To all these questions a wide range of scholars here tries to find answers In thorough and highly original contributions they not only address theoretical problems but also engage themselves in practical analyses of specific works Educating China Peter Zarrow,2015-09-23 A major study of how Chinese school textbooks shaped social cultural and political trends in the late imperial and Republican period Blood Libel Hannah Johnson,2012-07-09 The first book investigating the recent historiography of the ritual murder accusation Making History with Manuscripts in Medieval and Early Modern Europe Johannes Junge

Ruhland,2025-06-02 This volume interrogates the role of the manuscript medium in conveying history to medieval and early modern readers The contributors adopt a capacious understanding of history to explore history writing in its materiality from a variety of methodological and disciplinary perspectives The core contentions of this book are that the material features of manuscripts helped shaping historical narratives and defining history conceptually and that therefore the makers of these manuscripts played an instrumental role in history writing alongside authors Ranging from the ninth to the sixteenth centuries and comprising materials from across Western Europe in Latin and the vernaculars the ten chapters of this volume uncover stakes and strategies tied to highly specific contexts such as late thirteenth century Corbie or fifteenth century Zurich yet partaking in a shared practice of history writing with manuscripts Manuscript makers made history through layout rewriting illumination compilation choice of script and annotation and conferred history writing its material dimension This volume therefore situates the writing of history in its material dimension and invites us to consider medieval and early modern historiography in its medium

An Introduction to the Philosophy of History Michael Stanford, 1998-02-04 This book uncovers the wealth of philosophical problems that history presents and encourages further thought on how these issues grow out of historical questions

Master Narratives of the Middle Ages in Bulgaria Roumen Daskalov, 2021-08-30 This volume offers a history of historiography as Roumen Daskalov presents a critical analysis of Bulgarian historiographical views of the Middle Ages to reveal their embeddedness in their historical context and their adaptation to the contemporary circumstances The study traces the establishment of a master narrative of the Bulgarian Middle Ages and its evolution over time to the present day including the attempt at a Marxist counter narrative Daskalov uses categories of master national narratives which typically are stories of origins and migrations state foundations and rises golden ages and decline and fall yet they also assert the continuity of the people present certain historical personalities good or evil great or weak and describe certain actions or passivity to others actions

The Power of a Woman's Voice in Medieval and Early Modern Literatures Albrecht Classen, 2007 The study takes the received view among scholars that women in the Middle Ages were faced with sustained misogyny and that their voices were seldom heard in public and subjects it to a critical analysis The ten chapters deal with various aspects of the question and the voices of a variety of authors both female and male are heard The study opens with an enquiry into violence against women including in texts by male writers Hartmann von Aue Gottfried von Stra burg Wolfram von Eschenbach which indeed describe instances of violence but adopt an extremely critical stance towards them It then proceeds to show how women were able to develop an independent identity in various genres and could present themselves as authorities in the public eye Mystic texts by Hildegard of Bingen Marie de France and Margery Kempe the medieval conduct poem known as Die Winsbeckin the Devout Books of Sisters composed in convents in South West Germany but also quasi historical documents such as the memoirs of Helene Kottaner or Anna Weckerin s cookery book demonstrate that far more women were in the public gaze than had hitherto been assumed and that they possessed the self confidence to establish their positions with their intellectual and their literary achievements

Cultural Memory and Literature Diane Molloy, 2015-10-20 Cultural memory involves a community s shared memories the selection of which is based on current political and social needs A past that is significant to a national group is re imagined by generating new meanings that replace earlier certainties and fixed symbols or myths This creates literary syncretisms with moments of undecidability The analysis in this book draws on Renate Lachmann s theory of intertextuality to show how novels that blur boundaries without standing in for history are prone to intervene in cultural memory A brief overview of Aboriginal politics between the 1920s and the 1990s in relation to several novels provides historical and political background to the links between and problems associated with cultural memory testimony trauma and Stolen Generations narratives which are discussed in relation to Sally Morgan s My Place and Doris Pilkington s

Rabbit Proof Fence There follows an analysis of novels that respond to the history of contact between Aboriginal and settler Australians including Kate Grenville's historical novels The Secret River The Lieutenant and Sarah Thornhill as examples of a traditional approach David Malouf's Remembering Babylon charts how language and naming defined our early national narrative that excluded Aboriginal people Intertextuality is explored via the relation between Thea Astley's The Multiple Effects of Rainshadow Chloe Hooper's The Tall Man and the Royal Commission into Aboriginal Deaths in Custody Kim Scott's Benang from the heart and That Deadman Dance and Alexis Wright's Carpentaria reflect a number of Lachmann's concepts syncretism dialogism polyphony Menippean satire and the carnivalesque Suggested is a new way of reading novels that respond to Australia's violent past beyond trauma studies and postcolonial theory to re imagine a different syncretic past from multiple perspectives

Religion and Politics under the Early 'Abbāsids Muhammad Qasim Zaman, 2021-12-06

The main concern of this book is the religious policies of the early Abb sid caliphs It focuses on the religious trends which went into the making of Sunn Islam and traces the emergence of the nascent Sunn elite in relation to the Abb sids Various aspects of the caliphs evolving relationship with the religious scholars are studied and the nature of caliphal patronage and its impact on the scholars and ultimately on the evolution of early Sunnism is explored What emerges is a picture of close collaboration between the caliphs and the ulama with the caliphs playing an active and multifaceted role in religious life This book challenges the prevailing interpretations of the separation of religion and politics in early Islam and offers new insights into the social and religious history of Islam's formative centuries

Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing Kelly Boyd, 2019-10-09 The Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing contains over 800 entries ranging from Lord Acton and Anna Comnena to Howard Zinn and from Herodotus to Simon Schama Over 300 contributors from around the world have composed critical assessments of historians from the beginning of historical writing to the present day including individuals from related disciplines like Jürgen Habermas and Clifford Geertz whose theoretical contributions have informed historical debate Additionally the Encyclopedia includes some 200 essays treating the development of national regional and topical historiographies from the Ancient Near East to the history of sexuality In addition to the Western tradition it includes substantial assessments of African Asian and Latin American historians and debates on gender and subaltern studies

The

Narrative Reader Martin McQuillan, 2000 The Narrative Reader aims to provide a comprehensive survey of narrative theories ranging from Plato to Post Structuralism The selection of texts is bold and broad demonstrating the extent to which narrative permeates the entire field of literature and culture It shows the ways in which narrative crosses disciplines continents and theoretical perspectives and is a long overdue and welcome addition to the field The Narrative Reader will fascinate students and researchers alike providing a much needed point of entry to the increasingly complex field of narrative theory
