Contested Country A History Of The Northcliffe Area Western Australia:

Contested Country Patricia Crawford, Ian M. Crawford, 2003 First chapters explore Aboriginal links to land based mainly on historical sources Murrumbidgee traditions and relationship to land Murrumbidgee use of the karri forests burning of land Murrumbidgee seasons contact history in the Northcliffe area Women, Identities and Communities in Early Modern Europe Stephanie Tarbin, Susan Broomhall, 2016-12-05 Addressing a key challenge facing feminist scholars today this volume explores the tensions between shared gender identity and the myriad social differences structuring women's lives By examining historical experiences of early modern women the authors of these essays consider the possibilities for commonalities and the forces dividing women They analyse individual and collective identities of early modern women tracing the web of power relations emerging from women's social interactions and contemporary understandings of femininity Essays range from the late medieval period to the eighteenth century study women in England France Germany Ireland Italy and Sweden and locate women in a variety of social environments from household neighbourhood and parish to city court and nation Despite differing local contexts the volume highlights continuities in women's experiences and the gendering of power relations across the early modern world Recognizing the critical power of gender to structure identities and experiences this collection responds to the challenge of the complexity of early modern women's lives In paying attention to the contexts in which women identified with other women or were seen by others to identify contributors add new depth to our understanding of early modern women's senses of exclusion and belonging The Scots in Australia Malcolm David Prentis, 2008 This is a highly descriptive account of the Scots in Australia from 1788 to the present It shows that the Scots have made a major contribution to all aspects of Australian life It is aimed at non specialist general readers although much of the audience will be Scottish Provided by publisher Forest Family John C. Ryan, Rod Giblett, 2018-06-12 Forest Family highlights the importance of the old growth forests of Southwest Australia to art culture history politics and community identity The volume weaves together the natural and cultural histories of Southwest eucalypt forests spanning pre settlement colonial and contemporary periods The contributors critique a range of content including historical documents music novels paintings performances photography poetry and sculpture representing ancient Australian forests Forest Family centers on the relationship between old growth nature and human culture through the narrative strand of the Giblett family of Western Australia and the forests in which they settled during the nineteenth century The volume will be of interest to general readers of environmental history as well as scholars in critical plant studies and the environmental humanities Henry Prinsep's Empire Malcolm Allbrook, 2014-09-01 Henry Prinsep is known as Western Australia's first Chief Protector of Aborigines in the colonial government of Sir John Forrest a period which saw the introduction of oppressive laws that dominated the lives of Aboriginal people for most of the twentieth century But he was also an artist horse trader member of a prominent East India Company family and everyday citizen whose identity was formed during his colonial upbringing in India and England As a creator of Imperial culture he supported the great men and women of history while he painted wrote about and photographed the scenes around him In terms of naked power he was a middle man perhaps even a small man His empire is an intensely personal place a vast network of family and friends from every quarter of the British imperial world engaged in the common tasks of making a home and a career while framing new identities new imaginings and new relationships with each other indigenous peoples and fellow colonists This book traces Henry Prinsep s life from India to Western Australia and shows how these texts and images illuminate not only Prinsep the man but the affectionate bonds that endured despite the geographic bounds of empire and the historical social geographic and economic origins of Aboriginal and colonial relationships which are important to this day Twentieth Century Land Settlement Schemes Roy Jones,Alexandre M.A. Diniz,2018-10-17 Land settlement schemes sponsored by national governments and businesses such as the Ford Corporation and the Hudson s Bay Company took place in locations as diverse as the Canadian Prairies the Dutch polders and the Amazonian rainforests This novel contribution evaluates a diverse range of these initiatives By 1900 any land that remained available for agricultural settlement was often far from the settlers homes and located in challenging physical environments Over the course of the twentieth century governments corporations and frequently desperate individuals sought out new places to settle across the globe from Alberta to Papua New Guinea This book offers vivid reports of the difficulties faced by many of these settlers including the experiences of East European Jewish refugees New Zealand soldier settlers and urban families from Yorkshire This book considers how and why these settlement schemes succeeded found other pathways to sustainability or succumbed to failure and even oblivion In doing so the book indicates pathways for the achievement of more economically socially and environmentally sustainable forms of human settlement in marginal areas This engaging collection will be of interest to individuals in the fields of historical geography environmental history and development studies Sustainability and Change in Rural Australia Chris Cocklin,Jacqui Dibden,2005 By addressing themes such as social and economic change government policy and gender relations this volume tackles the thematic complexities of sustainability It attempts to understand how small rural communities have survived in the past what factors shaped them and how these factors will impact on their future survival Food Security in Australia Quentin Farmar-Bowers,Vaughan Higgins,Joanne Millar,2012-10-28 This book considers the ability and capacity of the food supply system in Australia to provide food security for the ever increasing domestic and international population in the face of growing challenges in production resource supply and failures within the food system itself Although Australia is a net food exporting country domestic food insecurity exists and will increase as food prices rise in the coming decades An overview of the food supply system highlights the main challenges that are determining the future Many of these challenges can be resolved by the Australian government but others are in the hands of global governance to which Australia can only adapt This book sheds light on the challenges and discusses the prospects for developing more sustainable and resilient future food systems in Australia In addition it covers food security and sovereignty issues under the heading of food equity and access food production policy and trade and impacts of land use planning on agriculture The unique features of the book include the following Most literature on food security pertains to developing countries By way of contrast this book explores food security in a developed nation Australia that seemingly should not have food security issues The topics covered in the book are relevant to other developed nations with growing populations and resource management challenges The book chapters are written by specialists to paint a comprehensive picture of the political social economic and environmental issues that give rise to food insecurity and the challenges these issues present to the security of the food system in coming decades The overall organization of the book uses a theoretically informed and multi disciplinary approach This enables a critical and in depth analysis of food security by outlining the key challenges as well as prospects for the development of more sustainable and resilient agri food systems The three principal topics in the book are dealt with by a multi disciplinary team of authors in a way that teases out diverse points of view illustrating the complexity of food security Author disciplines include health and nutrition agriculture ethics social science law and practitioners managing food aid programs The book shows how food security relates to many technical social and moral issues in society and how it is possible to develop successful programs to improve food security

Patriots William J. Lines, 2006 Powerful and provocative Patriots travels through the history and politics of Australia's conservation movement and describes a new national identity an identity deeply enmeshed in nature an identification with the land that non Indigenous Australia has lacked
