Producing and Contesting Urban Marginality Julie Cupples, Tom Slater, 2019-10-25 In Mexico City as in many other large cities worldwide contemporary modes of urban governance have overwhelmingly benefited affluent populations and widened social inequalities Disinvestment from social housing and rent seeking developments by real estate companies and land speculators have resulted in the displacement of low income populations to the urban periphery Public social spaces have been eliminated to make way for luxury apartments and business interests Low income neighbourhoods are often stigmatized by dominant social forces to justify their demolition The urban poor have however negotiated and resisted these developments in a range of ways This text explores these urban dynamics in Mexico City and beyond looking at the material and symbolic mechanisms through which urban marginality is produced and contested It seeks to understand how things might be otherwise how the city might be geared towards more inclusive forms of belonging and citizenship

Warfare and Society in British India, 1757-1947 Ashutosh Kumar, Kaushik Roy, 2022-12-30 This book explores the intricate and intimate relationship between military organization imperial policy and society in colonial South Asia The chapters in the volume focus on technology logistics and state building The present volume highlights the salient features of expansion and consolidation of imperial control over the subcontinent and ultimate demise of the Raj Further it turns the spotlight on to subaltern challenges to imperialism as well as the role of non combatants in warfare The volume Deals with both conventional and guerrilla conflicts and focuses on the frontiers both North West and North East including Burma Looks at the army as an institution rather than present a chronological account of military operations which highlights the complex and tortuous relationship between combat institution colonial state and Indian society Integrates top down approaches in military and strategic studies with the bottom up perspectives and discusses on how the conduct of war organisation and technology is related to the economic societal and cultural impact of war A rich account of the British Army in India this book will be essential reading for scholars and researchers of South Asian history military history political history colonialism and the British Empire

Interrogating Marginalities across Disciplinary Boundaries Anna Bochkovskaya, Sanjukta Das Gupta, Amit Prakash, 2024-12-18 This volume adopts an interdisciplinary approach to rethink the multiple dimensions of marginality political societal economic cultural legal and spatial It explores their new representations in colonial and post colonial India Departing from extant analyses of experiences of marginalization in diverse social groups it proposes to problematize the conceptualization of marginality focusing on its evolution through space and time A relational position marginality it is argued presupposes a confrontation with centrality or the mainstream within a common discourse of knowledge and power The volume emphasizes that the process of marginalization is not a marginal phenomenon and draws attention to the historical processes which determine establish and perpetuate the margins The book reflects on varied aspects of evolving marginalities structural cultural and psychological in South Asia in diverse temporal spatial or societal contexts It examines the discourses institutional mechanisms and economic processes within which marginalities are located This work will be an important read for scholars and researchers of history anthropology subaltern studies exclusion studies South Asian history post colonial studies political studies Indian history cultural studies and history in general Tribal History of North-East India H. Sudhir, 2014-01-01 This volume is an honour to no one else at all but one among the distinguished forerunners who has made a long lasting contribution in the disciplinary academic of northeast history and tribal studies in the region Professor Lal Dena It is an acknowledgement of the rich treasure of scholarship that Professor Lal Dena has contributed through his scholarly writings with a scientific knowledge of research in the subject It dwells on a variety of close knit contents linked up with one way or another absorbed in the Chin Kuki Mizo study In researching into the multifaceted aspects of the study the work harps on origin traditional religious beliefs and practices customary laws Christianity and social transformation identity ethnic conflict women society polity education civil society etc

Multicultural Challenges and Redefining Identity in East Asia Nam-Kook Kim, 2016-04-15 Globalization and increased migration have brought both new opportunities and new tensions to traditional East Asian societies Multicultural Challenges and Redefining Identity in East Asia draws together a wide range of distinguished local scholars to discuss multiculturalism and the changing nature of social identity in East Asia Regional specialists review specific events and situations in China Korea Japan Thailand Vietnam Singapore Taiwan Malaysia Indonesia and the Philippines to provide a focus on life as it is lived at the local level whilst also tracing macro discourses on the national issues affected by multiculturalism and identity The contributors look at the uneven multicultural development across these different countries and how to bridge the gap between locality and universality They examine how ethnic majorities and minorities can achieve individual rights exert civic responsibility and explain how to construct a deliberative framework to make sustainable democracy possible This book considers the emergence of a new cross national network designed to address multicultural challenges and imagines an East Asian community with shared values of individual dignity and multicultural diversity With strong empirical support it puts forward a regulative ideal by which a new paradigm for multicultural coexistence and regional cooperation can be realized

Separatism in North-East India Dr. Kunal Ghosh, 2008-01-01 It is a constant refrain from various political leaders that religion and politics should not be mixed together Notwithstanding this sloganeering what we find in real life is often quite opposite The author Kunal Ghosh connotes on two North East regions Tripura and the BAC Bodo Autonomous Council area in Assam where a mixture of religion and politics has produced an explosive situation If religion can be tied up with language and linguistics it would acquire a direct hold on nationality This book is intended for those readers particularly from North East India who are actively engaged to the motherland Readers will be compelled to think after reading this book In Review Inter-American Foundation, Cultural Constellations, Place-Making and Ethnicity in Eastern India, c. 1850-1927 Swarupa Gupta, 2017-11-01 In Cultural Constellations Place Making and Ethnicity in Eastern India c 1850 1927 Swarupa Gupta outlines a fresh paradigm moving beyond stereotypical representations of eastern India as a site of ethnic fragmentation The book traces unities by exploring intersections between 1 cultural constellations 2 place making and 3 ethnicity Centralising place making it tells the story of how people made places mediating caste religious linguistic contestations It offers new meanings of region in Eastern Indian and global contexts by showing how an interregional arena comprising Bengal Assam and Orissa was forged Using historical tracts novels poetry and travelogues the book argues that commonalities in Eastern India were linked to imaginings of Indian nationhood The analysis contains interpretive strategies for mediating federalist separatisms and fragmentation in contemporary India Performance, Resistance and Refugees Suzanne Little, Samid Suliman, Caroline Wake, 2022-12-30 This book offers a unique Australian perspective on the global crisis in refugee protection Using performance as both an object and a lens this volume explores the politics and aesthetics of migration control border security and refugee resistance The first half of the book titled On Stage examines performance objects such as verbatim and documentary plays children s theatre immersive performance slam poetry video art and feature films Specifically it considers how refugees and their artistic collaborators assert their individuality agency and authority as well as their resistance to cruel policies like offshore processing through performance The second half of the book titled Off Stage employs performance as a lens to analyse the wider field of refugee politics including the relationship between forced migrants and the forced displacement of First Nations peoples that underpins the settler colonial state philosophies of cosmopolitanism the role of the canon in art history and the spectacle of bordering practices In doing so it illuminates the strategic performativity and nonperformativity of the law philosophy the state and the academy more broadly in the exclusion and control of refugees Taken together the chapters in this volume draw on and contribute to a wide range of disciplines including theatre and performance studies cultural studies border studies and forced migration studies and will be of great interest to students and scholars in all four fields Collaborators, Rebels and Traitors Awadhesh C Sinha, 2024-09-24 Investigates attitudes toward and relationships with the Indian Union from those in frontier states who at times rose up in opposition from centralized Indian powers This book delves into the status of three regions Kashmir Sikkim and the province of Assam in 1947 In Kashmir Sheikh Abdullah had emerged as a charismatic leader before it was raided by Pakistan It explores how Sikkim was accorded the status of an India protectorate stage in 1950 The Naga National Council led by Z A Phizo resorted to armed uprisings in the 1950s in Naga Hills followed by M N F and Laldenga thereafter The work sheds light on the dynamics of collaboration and rebellion involving leaders like Sheikh Abdullah and the last King of Sikkim P T Namgyal with the Indian establishment and why and how they rebelled against them Additionally it discusses consequences of these tribal leaders armed insurrections and the role in the formation of Nagaland and Mizoram as Indian states Offering a unique perspective on the historical evolution of these regions this book will be invaluable for Indian policymakers allowing readers to see the Indian Union from the viewpoint of the Frontier leadership Awadhesh Coomar Sinha is an anthropologist and sociologist Having taught sociology and served as Dean of the School of Social Sciences at North Eastern Hill University Shillong he has also been a visiting professor in various universities in India and beyond and is a pioneer in the field of Eastern Himalayan research Among his highly acclaimed books on the region are Nepalese in Globalized Era 2016 Dawn of Democracy in the Eastern Himalayan Kingdoms 2019 and Federation of the Himalayan Kingdoms and a Greater Nepal 2023

Cultivating Peace Marty Branagan, Bert Jenkins, Helen Ware, 2014-04-11 Cultivating Peace Contexts Practices and Multidimensional Models moves away from negative connotations associated with the concept of post conflict peacebuilding It embraces a multiplicity of trans disciplinary approaches to peacebuilding mostly coinciding with the eco horticultural metaphor of peace cultivation Ultimately the idea of cultivating peace embodies love and compassion while utilising local knowledge expertise and wisdom to do no harm Using various case studies from across the world the narratives and insights in this book present diverse facets of peacebuilding yet all contribute constructive lessons The chapters cover three general themes Some examine the structural and discursive causes of violence and how to improve situations where violence is evident or to prevent it from breaking out Others deal with the aftermath of violence and how to reconcile and restore shattered lives and societies The third group deals with positive social change by nonviolent means which is much more constructive than the negative peace of ceasefires and peace enforcement used to manage direct violence Promoting the ideal of peace cultivation this volume emphasises ways to improve things to suggest alternatives and to employ initiatives to plant and grow positive changes both during the fighting and in the aftermath of violent conflicts Polish Countryside in Transition Wioletta Knapik, Tomasz Masłyk, Katarzyna Zajda, Łukasz Trembaczowski, 2025-07-14 Today's quality of life in the Polish countryside is intertwined with residents social capital resources To describe the matter comprehensively and suggest potential trends the authors examine in four chapters critical socioeconomic issues that have shaped selected dimensions of the rural quality of life in Poland In addition to the description of Polish rural areas before and after accession to the European Union 1 the level and standards of living in the countryside identified in the study is presented 2 The social capital of the Polish rural population 3 and the changes in the quality of life in the Polish countryside from the perspective as perceived by local leaders are also described in detail 4 Colonization, Proselytization, and Identity Tezenlo

Thong,2016-10-15 This book examines the formation of identity of the Nagas in northeast India in light of the proselytizing efforts by the Americans and the colonization by the British in their search for control over areas inhabited by the Nagas which were perfect for tea plantations The author explores the westernization of Naga culture its effect on the Naga Nationalist movement and how it has led to the formation of modern Naga identity As a unique indigenous group the colonization of the Naga people offers fresh insights into our understanding of the processes and effects of colonization in India as well as its long term negative effects particularly with regards to the preservation of traditional beliefs and customs

Nation, Nationalism and Indian Hindi Cinema Goutam Karmakar,Pippa Catterall,2025-11-03 This book explores the complex relationship between Indian nationalism and Hindi cinema examining how film serves as a crucial medium due to its visual narrative power and connections to traditional cultural forms including Parsi theatre folk traditions and mythological storytelling While Hindi films have often been positioned as embodiments of nationalism they simultaneously present alternative more inclusive and liberal conceptions of national belonging This collection investigates the multifaceted construction dissemination and reception of Indian nationalism across four decades of Hindi cinema from the 1980s through the 2020s The contributors analyze how Hindi cinema as both a discursive and popular medium not only portrays various forms of nationalism but also shapes the politics of film production through nation building narratives and industry power dynamics This volume demonstrates how films have served as mouthpieces for those in power showcasing both majoritarian perspectives and critical challenges to hegemonic thinking Covering a deliberately broad timeline and diverse genres from war epics and sports dramas that exemplify muscular nationalism to biopics comedy dramas and spy thrillers this collection offers a nuanced examination of nationalist messaging across different periods of India s socio economic development and political leadership This book is essential reading for academics researchers and students in film studies cultural studies regional studies and nationalism studies focused on Indian cultural landscapes The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of National Identities Refugees and Borders in South Asia Antara Datta, 2013 The war in 1971 between India and Pakistan led to a huge refugee crisis This book argues that the massive influx of ten million refugees into India within a few short months changed ideas about citizenship and belonging in South Asia The book looks at how the Indian state while generously keeping its borders open to the refugees made it clear that these refugees were different from those generated by Partition and would not be allowed to settle permanently It discusses how the state was breaking its effective link between refugees and citizenship and how at the same time a second affective border was developing between those living in the border areas especially in Assam and West Bengal The book argues that the present discourse regarding illegal infiltration from Bangladesh has a long historical trajectory in which the events of 1971 play a key role It goes on to analyse the aftermath of the 1971 war and the massive repatriation project undertaken by the governments of India Pakistan and Bangladesh to examine ways in which questions about minorities and belonging remained unresolved post 1971 The book is an interesting contribution to the history of refugees border making and 1971 in South Asia as well as to studies in politics and international relations Provided by publisher Routledge

Encounter and Interventions Sajal Nag,M. Satish Kumar,2023-08-07 The advent of colonialism and its associated developments has been characterized as one of the most defining moments in the history of South Asia The arrival of Christian missionaries has not only been coeval to colonial rule but also associated with development in the region Their encounter critique endeavour and intervention have been very critical in shaping South Asian society and culture even where they did not succeed in converting people Yet there is precious little space spared for studying the role and impact of missionary enterprises than the space allotted to colonialism Isolated individual efforts have focused on Bengal Madras Punjab and much remains to be addressed in the context of the unique region of the North East India In North East India for example by the time the British left a majority of the tribals had abandoned their own faith and adopted Christianity It was a socio cultural revolution Yet this aspect has remained outside the scope of history books Whatever reading material is available is pro Christian mainly because they are either sponsored by the church authorities or written by ecclesiastical scholars Very little secular research was conducted for the hundred years of missionary endeavour in the region The interpretations which have emerged out of the little material available are largely simplistic and devoid of nuances This book is an effort to decenter such explanations by providing an informed historical and cultural appreciation of the role and contribution of missionary endeavors in British India
