Contesting The Monument:

Fallen Monuments and Contested Memorials Juilee Decker, 2023-07-05 Fallen Monuments and Contested Memorials examines how the modification destruction or absence of monuments and memorials can be viewed as performative acts that challenge prescribed embodied narratives in the public realm Bringing together international multidisciplinary approaches the chapters in this volume interrogate the ways in which memorial constructions disclose implicitly and explicitly the proxy battle for public memory and identity particularly since 2015 Acknowledging the ways in which the past which is given agency through monuments and memorials intrudes into daily life this volume offers perspectives from researchers that answer questions about the roles of monuments and memorials as persistent yet mutable works whose meanings are not fixed but are rather subject to processes of continual re interpretation By using monuments and memorials as lenses through which to view race memory and the legacies of war power and subjugation this volume demonstrates how these works and their visible representations of entitlement possession control and authority can offer the opportunity to pose and answer questions about whose memory matters and what our symbols say about who we are and what we value Fallen Monuments and Contested Memorials is essential reading for scholars and students studying cultural heritage history art history and public history It will be particularly useful to those with an interest in public monuments and memorials colonial and post colonial history memory studies and nationalism race and ethnic studies

Contesting Indochina M. Kathryn Edwards, 2016-06-14 How does a nation come to terms with losing a war especially an overseas war whose purpose is fervently contested In the years after the war how does such a nation construct and reconstruct its identity and values For the French in Indochina the stunning defeat at Dien Bien Phu ushered in the violent process of decolonization and a fraught reckoning with a colonial past Contesting Indochina is the first in depth study of the competing and intertwined narratives of the Indochina War It analyzes the layers of French remembrance focusing on state sponsored commemoration veterans associations special interest groups intellectuals films and heated public disputes These narratives constitute the ideological battleground for contesting the legacies of colonialism decolonization the Cold War and France's changing global status

Reading Confederate Monuments Maria Seger, 2022-08-24 Winner of a 2023 Edited Collection Award from the South Atlantic Modern Language Association Contributions by Danielle Christmas Joanna Davis McElligatt Garrett Bridger Gilmore Spencer R Herrera Cassandra Jackson Stacie McCormick Maria Seger Randi Lynn Tanglen Brook Thomas Michael C Weisenburg and Lisa Woolfork Reading Confederate Monuments addresses the urgent and vital need for scholars educators and the general public to be able to read and interpret the literal and cultural Confederate monuments pervading life in the contemporary United States The literary and cultural studies scholars featured in this collection engage many different archives and methods demonstrating how to read literal Confederate monuments as texts and in the context of the assortment of literatures that produced and celebrated them They further explore how to read the literary texts advancing and contesting Confederate ideology in the US cultural imaginary then and now as monuments in and of themselves On top of that the essays published here lay bare the cultural and pedagogical work of Confederate monuments and counter monuments divulging how and what they teach their readers as communal and yet contested narratives thereby showing why the persistence of Confederate monuments matters greatly to local and national notions of racial justice and belonging In doing so this collection illustrates what critics of US literature and culture can offer to ongoing scholarly and public discussions about Confederate monuments and memory Even as we remove relocate and recontextualize the physical symbols of the Confederacy dotting the US landscape the complicated histories cultural products and pedagogies of Confederate ideology remain embedded in the national consciousness To disrupt and potentially dismantle these enduring narratives alongside the statues themselves we must be able to recognize analyze and resist them in US life The pieces in this collection position us to think deeply about how and why we should continue that work

Monuments to the Lost Cause
Cynthia Mills, Cynthia J. Mills, Pamela Hemenway Simpson, 2003 This richly illustrated collection of fourteen essays examines the ways in which Confederate memorials from Monument Avenue to Stone Mountain and the public rituals surrounding them testify to the tenets of the Lost Cause a romanticized narrative of the war Several essays highlight the creative leading role played by women's groups in memorialization while others explore the alternative ways in which people outside white southern culture wrote their very different histories on the southern landscape The authors who include Richard Guy Wilson Catherine W Bishir W Fitzhugh Brundage and William M S Ramussen trace the origins objectives and changing consequences of Confederate monuments over time and the dynamics of individuals and organizations that sponsored them Thus these essays extend the growing literature on the rhetoric of the Lost Cause by shifting the focus to the realm of the visual They are especially relevant in the present day when Confederate symbols and monuments continue to play a central role in a public and often emotionally charged debate about how the South's past should be remembered The editors Art Historian Cynthia Mills a specialist in nineteenth century public sculpture is executive editor of American Art the scholarly journal of the Smithsonian American Art Museum Pamela H Simpson is the Ernest Williams II Professor of Art History at Washington and Lee University She is the coauthor of The Architecture of Historic Lexington

Contested Urban Spaces
Ulrike Capdepón, Sarah Dornhof, 2022-02-09 This book takes the urban space as a starting point for thinking about practices actors narratives and imaginations within articulations of memory The social protests and mobilizations against colonial statues are examples of how past injustice and violence keep on shaping debates in the present Following an interdisciplinary approach the contributions to this book focus on the in visibility and affective power of monuments and traces through political activist and artistic contestations in different geographical settings They show that memories are shaped in contact zones most often in conflict and within hierarchical social relations The notion of decentered memory shifts the perspective to relationships between imperial centers and margins remembrance and erasure nationalistic tendencies and migration This plurality of connections emerges around unfinished histories of violence and resistance that are reflected in monuments and traces

Expression in Contested Public Spaces Spoma Jovanovic, 2021-08-06 Expression in Contested Public Spaces Free Speech and Civic Engagement addresses how people express themselves and their differences in ways that amplify the many voices central to the mission of democracy This book investigates in what ways and in what discursive forms people interrupt the status quo or unjust practices to advance positive social change The chapters feature research activity engaged scholarship and creative expression to boldly frame the issues of free speech amid attempts to chill and silence expressions of dissent in order to demonstrate how community organizers activists and scholars use their voices to advance peace and justice befitting the human condition Scholars and students of communication and the social sciences will find this book particularly interesting

Contested Ground Geoffrey Bleakley, 2002 Born in the social and political turmoil surrounding the struggle over the fate of Alaska's public lands Wrangell St Elias National Park and Preserve was and in many respects remains contested ground This study identifies and clarifies the complex assortments of policies and issues that led to the creation of the park and have shaped its operations for the past two decades

Contested Histories in Public Space Daniel J. Walkowitz, Lisa Maya Knauer, 2009-01-16 Historians anthropologists and other scholars explore the public presentation of contested historical narratives in museums monuments texts and festivals around the world

Contested Antiquity Esther Solomon, 2021-02-02 While the archaeological legacies of Greece and Cyprus are often considered to represent some of the highest values of Western civilization democracy progress aesthetic harmony and rationalism this much adored and heavily touristed heritage can quickly become the stage for clashes over identity and memory In Contested Antiquity Esther Solomon curates explorations of how those who safeguard cultural heritage are confronted with the best ways to represent this heritage responsibly How should visitors be introduced to an ancient Byzantine fortification that still holds the grim reminders of the cruel prison it was used as until the 1980s How can foreign archaeological institutes engage with another nation's heritage in a meaningful way What role do locals have in determining what is sacred and can this sense of the sacred extend beyond buildings to the surrounding land Together the essays featured in Contested Antiquity offer fresh insights into the ways ancient heritage is negotiated for modern times

Approaching Monumentality in Archaeology James F. Osborne, 2014-10-24 Interdisciplinary study of monumental art and architecture in human history Monumentality is a human phenomenon that has occurred in nearly all times and places Because of its ubiquity monumentality is something that has been studied by a large number of disciplines and individuals Approaching Monumentality in Archaeology explores the phenomenon of monumental art and architecture from humankind's most ancient past to recent history and does so using an interdisciplinary approach that incorporates the research of anthropological archaeologists art historians classicists and sociologists working in a wide variety of historical and cultural contexts The volume seeks to define what is meant by the terms monument and monumentality and to understand the social and political significance of monument building as it has manifested around the world By advocating for a relational approach to the topic that seeks to find monumentality in the ongoing relationship between object and person this book offers the opportunity to begin the process of uniting these varied interests into a unified discourse The One-Hundred-Year Contest David Wen Zhong, 2023-08-16 Zhong's latest book The One Hundred Year Contest Can America Defeat Communism is an account of America's encounters with communism after its rise and the history of its frequent failures America's encounter with communist headwinds began with the founding of the Soviet Union In 1921 the Chinese Communist Party was founded and communist forces expanded into China Successive presidents of the United States were ambiguous and vague in their understanding of the Chinese Communist Party which led to the gradual expansion of communist power It has been over 100 years since the Bolsheviks' second revolution in Russia in 1917 when Lenin seized power The United States founded on democracy and freedom to fight against communism is to blame for its misjudgment which has led to a wave of communism that is still going strong today Why did communism bring such a profound disaster to humankind Looking at it from a historical perspective Zhong Wen presents the contest between the United States and communism over the past 100 years so that people can recognize the nature of communism Today China and the United States have entered the nuclear age The results of nuclear war cannot be compared to the disasters brought to humankind by the Cold War and the hot wars Handbook on the History and Culture of the Black Sea Region Ninja Bumann, Kerstin S. Jobst, Stefan Rohdewald, Stefan Troebst, 2024-12-30 Following the annexation of Crimea by the Russian Federation in spring 2014 160 years after the Crimean War and the full scale invasion of Ukraine in February 2022 the Black Sea region has again become the focus of world history In this handbook international scholars from various historical and cultural disciplines provide deep historical insights into the structures of conflict cooperation and interrelations between the Balkans the Middle East the Caucasus and Eastern Europe in the space referred to as the Black Sea world The trans maritime communication and intra regional circulations spanning from Antiquity to the present day via Byzantium the Polish Lithuanian Commonwealth the Crimean Khanate the Venetian Safavid Ottoman and Romanov empires two World Wars and the Cold War highlight the autonomy of this historical region in the larger transcontinental setting designated in various times and varying languages as the Pontus Euxinus the Mare Maggiore the Kara Deniz the Chernoe More or the Black Sea This voluminous edition sheds real light upon the history of the Black Sea region from antiquity until the end of the 20th century Not only does this first rate book provide a host of excellent historical essays across time it also devotes considerable attention to important questions regarding how the Black Sea region is conceptualized and theorized A very useful contribution James H Meyer Montana State University In the wake of several research projects monographs and journals this is the first groundbreaking handbook on the cohesive history of the Black Sea as a historical meso region. It gathers 39 excellent contributions that provide the conceptual apparatus survey the history of the region from a Greek to Byzantine to Ottoman lake to conflicting rivalries to its recent transformation from a quasi Soviet to a quasi NATO lake. It examines the ideas that underpin the various national ethnic and religious identities research the different mobilities through migration transport infrastructure and take stock of its turbulent history through conflicts and war. Maria Todorova, University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign. Mostly the work of scholars from Central Europe and the Black Sea region, this massive volume focuses on the relationship between historical research and memory in particular the difficulty of certain groups living in the region when confronted with empires and nation states whose centers may be quite distant from the Black Sea. Attentive readers may thus view the present handbook not merely as a work of reference on history memory and movement but also as a testimony to the historical perspectives developed by a significant number of Central European and Black Sea scholars during the first quarter of the twenty first century. Suraiya Faruqi, Ibn Haldun University, Istanbul.

Reading Memory Sites Through Signs, Cristina Demaria, Patrizia Violi, 2025-10-01. What can space tell us about our past? Which stories do memory sites narrate? Which memories do they transmit? And more importantly how can we read their meanings? Semiotics can provide us with a homogeneous shareable and theoretically sound methodology to analyse space within a comparable and common frame of reference for scholars of memory studies and traumatic heritage as well as for historians architects and museum curators. The book describes in clear and understandable language the main semiotic concepts that can be used to analyse space illustrating them with carefully chosen case studies of memory spaces monuments museums post war urban restoration filmed and virtual space in order to show the applicability and efficacy of a semiotic methodology.

Toppling Things as Memorial Contestation, 2025-01-07. Following the murder of George Floyd in 2020 monuments became a focal point. Protestors toppled or spray painted them even danced on them. These politically visually and emotionally potent events may have looked instantaneous yet frequently sprang from years of activism as well as protracted political and academic debate. Toppling Things challenges stereotypical notions monument topplings as riotous spontaneous or irrational. Bringing together the ideas and emotions the uncertainty and convictions of artists activists and academics the volume rejects a neatly tied up distant narrative. As it sheds light on the global personal immediate and historical processes around the fall of a monument the volume engages directly with the complexity of toppling activism and monument removal as a form of lived experience.

Grappling with Monuments of Oppression, Christopher C. Fennell, 2024-12-30. Grappling with Monuments of Oppression provides a timely analysis of the diverse approaches being used around the world to confront colonial and imperial monuments and to promote social equity. Presenting 12 interdisciplinary international case studies this volume explores the ways in which the materiality of social domination can be combated. With contributions from activists scholars artists and policymakers the book envisions the theme of restorative justice in heritage and archaeology as encompassing initiatives for the reconciliation of past societal transgressions using processes that are multivocal dialogic historically informed community based negotiated and transformative Arguing that monuments to historical figures who engaged in oppressive regimes provide rich opportunities for dialogue and negotiation chapters within the book demonstrate that by confronting these monuments citizens can envision new ways to address the context and significance of the figures they memorialize and the many people who were targets of their oppression Contributors to the book also provide a toolkit of methods and strategies for addressing the continuing structures of social domination Grappling with Monuments of Oppression will be essential reading for academics and students working in heritage studies archaeology anthropology material culture studies landscape analysis and museum studies It will also be of great interest to practitioners and activists around the world Privacy Act Issuances ... Compilation, 1985 An Architecture of Education Angel David Nieves, 2018 Examines material culture and the act of institution creation especially through architecture and landscape to recount a deeper history of the lives of African American women in the post Civil War South
