Keddie, 1981 Social Movements in Twentieth-Century Iran Stephen C. Poulson, 2005-10-17 In this work Stephen C Poulson a scholar of collective action and social movements investigates cycles of social protest in Iran from 1890 to the present era He illuminates the following social movements the 1890 1892 Tobacco Movement the 1906 1909 Constitutional Revolution two post World War II movements the Tudeh Masses and the National Front the 1963 Qom Protest and the 1978 1979 Iranian Revolution These movements confronted two primary questions How should the Iranian state achieve independence in the world and what rights should individual Iranians enjoy in their political and social system Poulson examines the framing of these questions and their answers by various Iranian political actors over time revealing both continuity and change A Dynastic History of Iran Mehran Kamrava, 2022-08-25 Explores the political history of modern Iran considering the myriad factors that facilitated the rise and fall of the last two dynasties Tribal Politics in Iran Stephanie Cronin, 2007-01-24 Placing Iran's tribal problem in its historical context this innovative and important work provides an overall assessment of tribal politics in the Riza Shah period challenging conventional political and scholarly approaches to tribal politics Days of Revolution Mary Elaine Hegland, 2013-10-30 Outside of Shiraz in the Fars Province of southwestern Iran lies Aliabad Mary Hegland arrived in this then small agricultural village of several thousand people in the summer of 1978 unaware of the momentous changes that would sweep this town and this country in the months ahead She became the only American researcher to witness the Islamic Revolution firsthand over her eighteen month stay Days of Revolution offers an insider's view of how regular people were drawn into experienced and influenced the 1979 Revolution and its aftermath Conventional wisdom assumes Shi'a religious ideology fueled the revolutionary movement But Hegland counters that the Revolution spread through much more pragmatic concerns growing inequality lack of development and employment opportunities government corruption Local expectations of leaders and the political process expectations developed from their experience with traditional kinship based factions guided local villagers attitudes and decision making and they often adopted the religious justifications for Revolution only after joining the uprising Sharing stories of conflict and revolution alongside in depth interviews the book sheds new light on this critical historical moment Returning to Aliabad decades later Days of Revolution closes with a view of the village and revolution thirty years on Over the course of several visits between 2003 and 2008 Mary Hegland investigates the lasting effects of the Revolution on the local political factions and in individual lives As Iran remains front page news this intimate look at the country's recent history and its people has never been more timely or critical for understanding the critical interplay of local and global politics in Iran The Forgotten Years of Kurdish Nationalism in Iran Abbas Vali, 2019-06-26 This book investigates the forgotten years of Kurdish nationalism in Iran from the fall of the Kurdish republic to the advent of the Iranian revolution. An original and path breaking investigation of the period it sheds light not only on the historical specificity of the phenomenon of nationalism in exile but also on the political processes and practices defining the development of Kurdish nationalism in the post revolutionary era. Although nationalist landmarks such as the Kurdish republic in 1946 and the resurgence of the movement in the revolutionary conjuncture of 1978-79 have attracted the attention of historians and social scientists in recent years little is known about the three decades of Kurdish nationalism in exile between these two events. This analysis draws on contemporary poststructuralist theory to question the concept of the minority in democratic and constitutional theory arguing that it is an effect of the discursive linkage between sovereign power and the dominant ethnic linguistic identity in the nation state. This text will appeal to a wide academic audience ranging from the fields of Kurdish Iranian and Middle East Studies to ethnicity nationalism government and political science.
