Positive Youth Development, Mental Health, and Psychological Well-Being in Diverse Youth Nora Wiium, Laura Ferrer-Wreder, Jennifer E. Lansford, Lene Arnett Jensen, 2023-06-15 In this Research Topic our aim is to examine how personal resources related to competencies skills and self perception as well as environmental contextual and relational features of the social contexts of diverse youth directly or indirectly are important to mental health and psychological well being As previous research on young people has mainly focused on youth's weaknesses rather than their strengths our use of Positive Youth Development

PYD in working with culturally diverse youth and their well being in this Research Topic is novel We invite contributions from researchers that were initially presented their papers in a meeting that was held by research partners of the Cross National Project on Positive Youth Development CN PYD and who represent an international and multidisciplinary panel of experts on PYD The CN PYD was initiated in 2014 at the University of Bergen and has an ongoing data collection that involves approximately 10 000 minority and majority youth and emerging adults ages 16 to 29 living in Africa Asia Australia Europe New Zealand and South America CN PYD uses a strengths based approach to the conceptualization of youth as resources and agentic which is in opposition to the view of the developmental period of adolescence as being a period inherently fraught with problems and risks The goal of the cross national project is to assess personal strengths and contextual resources considering how these resources come together to facilitate youth thriving and to document how young people make positive and valued contributions to themselves and others We also advance research on the complex interplay between personal and contextual resources and their connections with risk behaviors and problems in essence taking a perspective of the whole child both in terms of strengths and problems

Enterprising Youth Monika Elbert, 2008-06-09 Recommended by Choice Enterprising Youth examines the agenda behind the shaping of nineteenth century children's perceptions and world views and the transmission of civic duties and social values to children by adults The essays in this book reveal the contradictions involved in the perceptions of children as active or passive as representatives of a new order or as receptacles of the transmitted values of their parents The question then is whether the business of telling children's stories becomes an adult enterprise of conservative indoctrination or whether children are enterprising enough to read what many of the contributors to this volume see as the subversive potential of these texts This collection of literary and historical criticism of nineteenth century American children s literature draws upon recent assessments of canon formations gender studies and cultural studies to show how concepts of public private male female and domestic foreign are collapsed to reveal a picture of American childhood and life that is expansive and constrictive at the same time
