New Dimensions In Women's Health Linda Lewis Alexander, Judith H. LaRosa, Helaine Bader, Susan Garfield, 2009-07-29

The Whole Truth About Contraception Suzanne Wymelenberg, Beverly Winikoff, 1997-09-27 What birth control method is most reliable Can contraceptives protect me from AIDS How can I choose the method that's best for me Finding the answers to these and other questions about birth control can be tough On the one hand today's sexually active person has many contraceptive options On the other hand each option has pluses and minuses that must be weighed For teenagers especially asking questions about birth control can be awkward and difficult Yet teenagers may be in greatest need of the facts While there is no right method for everyone The Whole Truth About Contraception is the right book for anyone making decisions about contraception men and women from teenagers to middle agers It illustrates male and female anatomy and explains how conception occurs The book carefully describes the birth control methods available today barrier such as condoms and diaphragms hormonal the Pill and Norplant intrauterine devices surgical sterilization and other approaches such as the rhythm method and breastfeeding as a contraceptive For each method the authors discuss how well it prevents pregnancy its potential effects on the user s health and common problems Illustrated how to sections are provided and the authors comment on how each method typically affects sexual experience The book also discusses how birth control products can be obtained and their cost Precautions tips on usage and other features throughout the book will help each reader decide what type of contraception is best for his or her age personal preferences and situation in life The Whole Truth About Contraception gives up to date information on new products such as the female condom and the nonlatex male condom The book provides details about contraception and sexually transmitted diseases with an emphasis on AIDS Also offered is an expanded discussion of emergency contraception designed for use after unprotected sex The book includes a full and factual discussion of abortion Contraception may be the most important and deeply personal choice anyone has to make This book provides the straight facts that will make the decision easier and the results better for everyone Sexual and Reproductive Health Paul Van Look,Kristian Heggenhougen,Stella R.

Quah,2011-01-10 This volume presents the highlights of current global thinking about sexual and reproductive health Major changes have taken place in the last 15 years in the way decision makers think about the subject and the manner in which programmes deliver comprehensive sexual and reproductive health services The turning point was the International Conference on Population and Development ICPD held in Cairo Egypt in 1994 ICPD was a watershed for several reasons First more than in any of the preceding United Nations population conferences the issue of population was clearly placed as being central to sustainable development Second the narrow focus on population growth the population bomb which had been a neo Malthusian concern and preoccupation ever since the Club of Rome published its 1972 report Limits to Growth was replaced by the comprehensive concept of sexual and reproductive health Third and linked to the definition and introduction of the reproductive health concept was the strong call for a paradigm shift away from a policy environment driven by demographic considerations sometimes to the point of using coercion in family planning services in order to reach demographic targets to an environment that recognized the right of individuals to make their own choices And last but not least ICPD as well as the Fourth World Conference on Women FWCW held the following year in Beijing People s Republic of China strongly emphasized that the rights of women and men to good sexual and reproductive health are firmly grounded in universal human rights Provided by publisher New Dimensions in Women's Health Linda Lewis Alexander, PhD, FAAN, Judith H.
