Contrastive Rhetoric Ulla Connor, 1996-01-26 Shows how a person's first language and culture influence writing in a second language Contrastive Rhetoric, 1997 Contrastive Rhetoric Nagwa Kassabgy, Zaynab Ibrāhīm, Sabiha T. Aydelott, 2004 The essays in this volume explore the field of contrastive rhetoric the study of how a person's first language L1 and culture influence the acquisition of another language Contrastive rhetoric encourages inquiry into various levels of discourse and text examining the conventions and rhetorical structures of L1 and their influence on the use of another language It also studies the cognitive dimensions of transfer in relation to both writing and speech The four sections of this volume focusing on writing and translation diglossia second language acquisition and pragmatics cover a broad spectrum of studies in the field of contrastive rhetoric with essays by some of its leading scholars from Cyprus Egypt Hong Kong Jordan Tunisia Turkey the United Kingdom and the United States The collection will be invaluable to language teachers students of applied linguistics and anyone interested in second language acquisition and related issues Contributors Nahwat El Arousy Reem Bassiouney Ulla Connor Mohammed Farghal Ola Hafez Martin Harfmann Julide Inozu Georgette Ioup Mona Kamel Hassan Miranda Lee Zuhail Okan Mona Osman Andreas Papapavlou Paul Stevens Hulya Yumru Izzedin al Zou bi

Contrastive Rhetoric Revisited and Redefined Clayann Gilliam Panetta, 2000-11 This volume demonstrates the role of contrastive rhetoric in ESL courses and offers suggestions for using CR toward cultural understanding of rhetorical decisions For scholars and educators in composition rhetoric education ESL and related areas Exploring the Dynamics of Second Language Writing Barbara Kroll, 2003-04-14 A collection of 13 original articles this book is intended to provide a series of discussions about multiple aspects of second language writing presenting chapters that collectively address a range of issues that are important to new teachers at the post secondary level The chapters provide scholarly visions insight and interpretation oriented toward explaining the field of teaching academic writing to non native speakers The book is designed to provide foundational content knowledge in this area each chapter authored by recognized experts in the field Throughout the chapters presentation and review of scholarship is presented primarily in the interest of understanding how such knowledge directly or potentially impart teaching making this a pedagogically relevant book In addition to helping train new teachers the book will serve as an updated reference book for practicing teachers and scholars to consult Contrastive Rhetoric Revisited and Redefined Clayann Gilliam Panetta, 2000-11-01 The theory of contrastive rhetoric was first put forth by Robert Kaplan in the mid 1960s to explain the differences in writing and discourse between students who were native speakers of English and their international counterparts Over the past three decades contrastive rhetoric theory has been used primarily by linguists in language centers and involved in ESL teaching As the number of international students in American universities has continued to grow contrastive rhetoric has become increasingly relevant to all disciplines and to rhetoric and composition in particular This volume breaks important new ground in its examination of contrastive rhetoric in the exclusive context of composition The editor has assembled contributors with varying areas of specialty to demonstrate how the traditional definition of contrastive rhetoric theory can be applied to composition in new and innovative ways and how it can be redefined through the lens of addressing difference issues in writing Thus the volume as a whole clarifies how the basic principles of contrastive rhetoric theory can help composition instructors to understand writing and rhetorical decisions With the inclusion of current research on multicultural issues this collection is appropriate for all instructors in ESL writing including teachers in rhetoric composition and linguistics It can also be used as an advanced text for students in these areas Wherever it is employed it is certain to offer significant new insights into the application of contrastive rhetoric within the composition discipline

Language and Literacies Teresa O'Brien, 1999-01-01 The theme chosen for the 31st BAAL Annual Meeting held in September 1998 at the University of Manchester was Language and Literacies This volume contains selected papers from the Meeting

Writing Across Languages and Cultures Alan Purves (ed), Contrastive rhetoric is the term used to describe the observable differences in the linguistic and structural aspects of writing from culturally different settings Writing Across Languages and Cultures the second volume in the Written Communication Annual series presents contrastive cross cultural studies in the rhetoric of writing The contributors introduce theoretical and methodological approaches to issues in contrastive rhetoric and its relationship to teaching and curricula They consider national differences in writing styles how these cultural patterns are transferred to second language writing and the criteria applied to the writing of non native speakers

Research on Composition Peter Smagorinsky, 2006 Covering the period between 1984 and 2003 this authoritative sequel picks up where the earlier volumes Braddock et al 1963 and Hillocks 1986 now classics in the field left off It features a broader focus that goes beyond the classroom teaching of writing to include teacher research second language writing rhetoric home and community literacy workplace literacy and histories of writing Each chapter is written by an expert in the area reviewed and covers both conventional written composition and multimodal forms of composition including drawing digital forms and other relevant media Research on Composition is an invaluable road map of composition research for the next decade and required reading for anyone teaching or writing about composition today

English as a Foreign or Second Language Mohammed S. Assiri, 2015-09-01 This book offers a brief review of the theoretical perspectives and empirical findings that have shaped our understanding of salient facets of English language teaching learning and testing It also communicates my personal views in regard to certain issues in these three domains The book is divided into five chapters that range in their foci from theory to practice Chapter one presents the most influential theoretical perspectives that have sought to account for the processes involved in second language acquisition and the roles of the so many variables that affect how a learner acquires a second language The second chapter discusses several methods and practices commonly used in EL2 English as a foreign second language teaching Chapter three highlights the differences between Basic Interpersonal Communication Skills and Cognitive Academic Language Proficiency or BICS vs CALP as well as the various categories of language learning and use strategies In the fourth chapter the presentation centers on EL2 testing and assessment Chapter five is wholly devoted to my personal views including my philosophy of language education critiques of some scholarly views and practical recommendations Such views have had their inspiration and support from my experiences both as a learner and as a teacher

Exploring the Cross-Language Transfer of L1 Rhetorical Knowledge in L2 Writing Xing Wei, 2023-12-02 This book addresses the transfer of rhetorical knowledge from a first language L1 to a second language L1 to L2 rhetorical transfer a common cognitive phenomenon in the L2 writing of students in foreign language learning environments It investigates L1 to L2 rhetorical transfer from a cognitive perspective and examines a specific component of L2 writers agency in this transfer namely metacognition The book s ultimate goal is to enhance our understanding of the cognitive mechanism of rhetorical transfer across languages This goal is in turn connected to the need to determine how L1 rhetorical knowledge can be steered and oriented toward successful L2 writing To this end this book proposes a theoretical framework for transfer studies encompassing the dimensions of text transfer agency and L2 essay raters It facilitates an in depth exploration of the intricacies involved in L1 to L2 rhetorical transfer It then presents empirical studies on this transfer Embracing a dynamic perspective this book furthers our understanding of interlingual rhetorical transfer as a conscious or intuitive process for making meaning one that can be monitored and steered Moreover it discusses the pedagogical implications for L2 writing instruction that guides students to use metacognition to transfer L1 rhetorical knowledge during L2 writing
