Contributions To Punch Etc:

Contributions to Punch, Etc. William Makepeace Thackeray, 2008-02-01 Thackeray's contributions to the magazine Punch with illustrations by the author and a portrait Facsimile reprint edition The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1883
The Literary World, 1898 Thackeray in the United States James Grant Wilson, The Scarlet Letter Nathaniel Hawthorne, 1893 Catalogue of Title Entries of Books and Other Articles Entered in the Office of the Register of Copyrights, Library of Congress, at Washington, D.C., 1900 Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature, 1901 Catalog of Copyright Entries, 1911 Illustrated Catalogue of Books, Standard and Holiday McClurg, Firm, Booksellers, Chicago, 1897 The Bookman, 1898 The Spectral Arctic Shane McCorristine, 2018-05-01 Visitors to the Arctic enter places that have been traditionally imagined as otherworldly This strangeness fascinated audiences in nineteenth century Britain when the idea of the heroic explorer voyaging through unmapped zones reached its zenith The Spectral Arctic rethinks our understanding of Arctic exploration by paying attention to the importance of dreams and ghosts in the quest for the Northwest Passage The narratives of Arctic exploration that we are all familiar with today are just the tip of the iceberg they disguise a great mass of mysterious and dimly lit stories beneath the surface In contrast to oft told tales of heroism and disaster this book reveals the hidden stories of dreaming and haunted explorers of frozen mummies of rescue balloons visits to Inuit shamans and of the entranced female clairvoyants who travelled to the Arctic in search of John Franklin's lost expedition Through new readings of archival documents exploration narratives and fictional texts these spectral stories reflect the complex ways that men and women actually thought about the far North in the past This revisionist historical account allows us to make sense of current cultural and political concerns in the Canadian Arctic about the location of Franklin's ships The Server Markus Krajewski, 2018-06-19 A cutting edge media history on a perennially fascinating topic which attempts to answer the crucial question Who is in charge the servant or the master Though classic servants like the butler or the governess have largely vanished the Internet is filled with servers web ftp mail and others perform their daily drudgery going about their business noiselessly and unnoticed Why then are current day digital drudges called servers Markus Krajewski explores this question by going from the present back to the Baroque to study historical aspects of service through various perspectives be it the servants relationship to architecture or their function in literary or scientific contexts At the intersection of media studies cultural history and literature this work recounts the gradual transition of agency from human to nonhuman actors to show how the concept of the digital server stems from the classic role of the servant Catalogue of Ship's and Crew's Libraries of the U.S.S. California California (U.S. Cruiser), 1905 Thackerayana: notes and anecdotes, etc. [By J. Grego.] William Makepeace Thackeray, 1875 Idlehurst John Halsham, 1898 The Gaze of the Listener Regula Hohl Trillini, 2008-01-01 This study analyzes representations of music in fiction drama and poetry as well as normative texts in order to contribute to a gendered cultural history of domestic performance From the Tudors to the First World War playing the harpsichord or piano was an indispensable asset of any potential bride and education manuals as well as courtship plots and love poems pay homage to this social function of music The Gaze of the Listener charts the fundamental tension which determines all these texts while music is warmly recommended in conduct books and provides standard metaphors like concord and harmony for virtuous love a profound anxiety about its sensuous inarticulateness and implicit femininity unsettles all descriptions of actual music making Along with repressive plot lines the privileging of visual perception over musical appreciation is the most telling indicator of this problem The Gaze of the Listener is the first coherent account of this discourse and its historical continuity from the Elizabethan to the Edwardian period and provides a significant background for more narrowly focused research Its uniquely wide database contextualizes numerous minor works with classics without limiting itself to the fringe phenomenon of musician novels Including a fresh account of the novels of Jane Austen in their contemporary rather than Victorian context the book is of interest to scholars and students in gender studies English literature cultural studies and musicology

The Arabian Desert in English Travel Writing Since 1950 Jenny Walker, 2022-12-30 Broadly this book is about the Arabian desert as the locus of exploration by a long tradition of British travellers that includes T E Lawrence and Wilfred Thesiger more specifically it is about those who since 1950 have followed in their literary footsteps In analysing modern works covering a land greater than the sum of its geographical parts the discussion identifies outmoded tropes that continue to impinge upon the perception of the Middle East today while recognising that the laboured binaries of East and West desert and sown noble and savage have outrun their course Where however only a barren legacy of latent Orientalism may have been expected the author finds instead a rich seam of writing that exhibits diversity of purpose and insight contributing to contemporary discussions on travel and tourism intercultural representation and environmental awareness By addressing a lack of scholarly attention towards recent additions to the genre this study illustrates for the benefit of students of travel literature or indeed anyone interested in Arabia how desert writing under the emerging configurations of globalisation postcolonialism and ecocriticism acts as a microcosm of the kinds of ethical and emotional dilemmas confronting today's travel writers in the world's most extreme regions The Crystal

Button Chauncey Thomas, 1891 Critical reviews. Tales. Various essays, letters, sketches, etc. Life of Thackeray, by Leslie Stephen (Reprinted from the "Dictionary of national biography") Bibliography William Makepeace Thackeray, 1899

Theophrastus and His World Paul Millett, 2020-08-30 This is the first extended study in English of Theophrastus Characters one of the briefest but also most influential works to survive from classical antiquity Since the seventeenth century the Characters has served as a model and an inspiration for authors as diverse as La Bruyère Thackeray George Eliot and Elias Canetti This study aims to locate Theophrastus and his Characters with respect to the political and philosophical worlds of Athens in the late fourth century focusing on later imitators in order to provide clues to reading the

Theophrastan original Special attention is paid to the problems and possibilities of the Characters as testimony to the culture and society of contemporary Athens integrating the text into the extensive fragments and testimonies of Theophrastus other writings The implications for the historian of the elusive humour of the Characters dependent in large measure on the device of caricature are explored in detail What emerges is a picture of the complex etiquette appropriate for upper class citizens in the home the streets and other public places in Athens where individuals were on display Through their resolutely shaming behaviour the Characters illuminate the honour for which citizens should by implication be striving A key theme of the study is Theophrastus ambivalent position in Athens a distinguished philosopher and head of the Lyceum yet still subject to the disabilities of his metic status
