Regenerating England Christopher Lawrence, Anna-K. Mayer, 2000 In the inter war years there was much debate in Britain as to whether the best path to post World War I regeneration would be found in the promises of science and technology in continued and increased efficiency in specialization and professionalization or whether the future of the nation depended on a rediscovery of older and more authentic ways of doing things on a defiant anti modernism This debate on Britain s future was often conducted in terms of Englishness and the rebirth of a lost more spiritual village England However Englishness also entered inter war social thinking through eclectic assimilations of diverse traditions Prominent themes in the discourses on Britain s post war regeneration include national character citizenship fitness education utopia community and so on The chapters in the present volume address these themes and break new ground by examining debates well known in political and literary history through their relations to science medicine architecture and ideas of social and political health

The Central and the Peripheral Jakub Lipski, Joanna Malicka, Paweł Schreiber, 2014-09-26 Representing reality in terms of secure familiar centres and dangerous lesser known peripheries is one of the most elementary human cognitive instincts However we live in a world where this established division is becoming more and more problematic One person s periphery can be another s centre and many simple geographies of the world and of the mind clearly separating the known from the unknown have become obsolete How can one reconcile this complexity with the fact that human thinking cannot escape the centre periphery dichotomy How is it possible to find one's way in a world in which peripheries become centres and centres turn into peripheries. The chapters of this book try to determine how the problem of centres and peripheries has been dealt with in the domains of literature and culture. The contributors focus on different aspects of the issue from travel writing through attempts at mapping the self to finding central and peripheral territories in narrative itself. , Dictionary of British Women's Organisations, 1825-1960 Peter Gordon, David Doughan, 2001. Contested Countryside Cultures Paul Cloke, Jo Little, 2005-08-12. This book charts the experiences of marginalised groups living in and visiting the countryside, revealing how notions of the rural have been created to reflect and reinforce divisions among those living there. Race and Ethnicity Stephen Spencer, 2006-04-18. Broad ranging and comprehensive, this incisive new textbook examines the shifting meanings of race and ethnicity and collates the essential concepts in one indispensable companion volume. From Marxist views to post colonialism, this book investigates the attendant debates, issues and analyses within the context of global change. Using international case studies from Australia, Malaysia, the Caribbean, Mexico and the UK, and examples of popular imagery that help to explain the more difficult elements of theory, this key text focuses on everyday life issues such as ethnic conflicts and polarized states, racism and policies of multiculturalism, diasporas, asylum seekers and refugees, mixed race and hybrid identity. Incorporating summaries, questions, illustrations, exercises and a glossary of terms, this student friendly text also puts forward suggestions for further project work. Broad in scope, interactive and accessible, this book is a key resource for undergraduate and postgraduate level students of race and ethnicity across the social sciences. Ethical Speculations in Contemporary British Theatre M.
