Craig Thorpe,2023-02-28 Explore the past present and future of rail travel through 30 years of one artist s work Once a common part of the American landscape trains are increasingly fading from public view Though photographs can accurately convey the details of what where and when sometimes paintings can better convey the deeper truths of an era Collecting more than thirty years of paintings and renderings Railroads Art and American Life tells the story of rail transportation in America through the life and works of artist J Craig Thorpe Commissioned by companies such as Amtrak and General Electric Thorpe s work can be found featured on items ranging from catalogs to calendars postcards to posters His artwork depicts not only the golden age of train travel but considers the present and looks forward to a potential future Featuring more than 130 color illustrations and combining history biography ethics and humor Thorpe s personal story joins with his paintings to invite the reader to relive the heyday of American rail and better understand the role of railroads in our society today Adam Smith's Invisible Hand as Self-control Mechanism of Social Structures Tadeusz Szuba,2022-11-07 This book shows how such a computational process functions how great is its power and versatility since it is possible to show how discoveries are made In 1759 A Smith realized that there must exist an additional powerful control mechanism behind Great Britain s authority and government explaining the extraordinary successes of Great Britain He called this the Invisible Hand Despite having used this term only 3 times the idea evokes extreme scientific and political emotions to this day If we apply a molecular model of computation such as in in Adleman s DNA computer a computational model for the Invisible Hand can be built to show how it affects a society It is a spontaneous unconscious distributed noncontinuous computational process on the platform of minds of e g people or ants Knowing this mechanism a future self steering and self optimization system for AI robot teams can be proposed e g for construction sites and rescue operations
