Coup Of The Aliens Coup For A New Order:

Coup of the Aliens Ernest G. Takala, 1998-10 Coup Theories and Officers' Motives Donald L. Horowitz, 2014-07-14

Donald Horowitz presents a case study of an attempted military coup in Sri Lanka. On the basis of interviews with twenty three participants in this attempted coup, a mine of information rarely available for a study like this, he provides first hand evidence of the way officers' motives interact with social and political conditions to foster coup attempts. Originally published in 1981, The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press. These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions. The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905.

The Overthrow of Allende and the Politics of Chile, 1964-1976 Paul E. Sigmund, 1977-06-15 Paul Sigmund, who has studied Chile for more than a decade and lived and taught there, offers an exhaustive, balanced analysis of the overthrow of Salvador Allende and why it occurred. Sigmund examines the Allende government, the Frei government that preceded it, the coup that ended it, and the Pinochet government that succeeded it. He also views the roles of various Chilean political and interest groups, the CIA, and U.S. corporations.

Lord Churchill's Coup Stephen Saunders Webb, 1999-01-01 Stephen Saunders Webb argues that both England and its American social experiments were the underdeveloped elements of an empire emerging on both sides of the Atlantic, and that the pivotal moment of that empire, the so-called Glorious Revolution, was in fact a military coup driven by religious fears. Webb focuses on John Churchill, who rises from page boy to Earl of Marlborough, winning battlefield glory, influence, and promotion, eventually becoming lieutenant general of the English army.

From Election to Coup in Fiji Jonathan Fraenkel, Stewart Firth, 2007-06-01 Provides an analysis of the lead up to the outcome and the aftermath of Fiji's historic 2006 election, including the December coup. Contributions from ex-Vice President Ratu Joni Madraiwiwi, ousted Prime Minister Laisenia Qarase, interim Minister for Finance Mahendra Chaudhry, and an array of leading commentators.

Official History in Modern Indonesia Michael Wood, 2005-08-01 Dealing with New Order perceptions of the past, this study gives insights into how the past can be used for purposes of national building and regime legitimization and into the nature of the New Order. The Suharto regime created a coherent history that is reflected in recent archaeological and historical research in popular histories and biographies, in monuments, and in school textbooks. The author describes an official history stretching from the proto-Indonesia of Majapahit through the Indonesian Revolution up to the birth of the New Order in 1965. He also gives a counterview to this history, stressing Indonesia's place in the larger Islamic world. The past emphasized political stability and national unity under the guidance of the military, and socially disruptive ideas were to be avoided.

Committee on the Judiciary,1973 Rethinking the Soviet Collapse Michael Cox,1998 This text is informed by the view that part of the answer to the conundrum Did we fail to anticipate the end of the Cold War lies in a dissection of the ways in which the USSR was theorized by its leading practitioners in the West The Specter of Genocide Robert Gellately,Ben Kiernan,2003-07-07 Genocide mass murder and human rights abuses are arguably the most perplexing and deeply troubling aspects of recent world history This collection of essays by leading international experts offers an up to date comprehensive history and analyses of multiple cases of genocide and genocidal acts with a focus on the twentieth century The book contains studies of the Armenian genocide the victims of Stalinist terror the Holocaust and Imperial Japan Several authors explore colonialism and address the fate of the indigenous peoples in Africa North America and Australia As well there is extensive coverage of the post 1945 period including the atrocities in the former Yugoslavia Bali Cambodia Ethiopia Rwanda East Timor and Guatemala The book emphasizes the importance of comparative analysis and theoretical discussion and it raises new questions about the difficult challenges for modernity constituted by genocide and other mass crimes

Enemies Within Scott Radnitz,2022 The invocation of fifth columns in the political arena whether contrived or based on real fears has recurred periodically throughout history and is experiencing an upsurge in our era of democratic erosion and geopolitical uncertainty Fifth columns accusations can have baleful effects on governance and trust as they call into question the loyalty and belonging of the targeted populations They can cause human rights abuses political repression and even ethnic cleansing Enemies Within is the first book to systematically investigate the roots and implications of the politics of fifth columns In this volume a multidisciplinary group of leading scholars address several related questions When are actors likely to employ fifth column claims and against whom What accounts for changes in fifth column framing over time How do the claims and rhetoric of governments differ from those of societal groups How do accusations against ethnically or ideologically defined groups differ Finally how do actors labeled as fifth columns respond To answer these questions the contributors apply a common theoretical framework and work within the tradition of qualitative social science to analyze cases from three continents oftentimes challenging conventional wisdom Enemies Within offers a unique perspective to better understand contemporary challenges including the rise of populism and authoritarianism the return of chauvinistic nationalism the weakening of democratic norms and the persecution of ethnic or religious minorities and political dissidents

The Heaviest Blow Patrick A. Smythe,2004 The author examines responses within the international Catholic community to the annexation and rule of East Timor by Indonesia from 1975 1999 Theoretically the Catholic Church is committed to prioritise the needs of the poorest and weakest members of the human family but the evidence put forward here reveals that there were significant shortcomings in its reaction to the plight of the East Timorese Yet the Church also played a crucial role in their eventual achievement of independent nationhood This study scrutinises the disposition of the Catholic community in several countries closely involved in the issue of East Timor Indonesia Portugal Australia Japan Britain the United States and of the Vatican and calls upon the Church to live up to its own social doctrine Bishop Carlos Belo Apostolic Administrator emeritus of the Diocese of Dili East Timor comments in an Afterword to the book This excellent study carries concrete lessons for the global community as we face the many challenges of the new millennium In essence how can we best help our brothers and sisters who often suffer in silence This book helps to answer that question CMJ New Music Report

Seeking Meaning, Seeking Justice in a Post-Cold War World Judith Keene, Elizabeth Rezniewski, 2018-03-27 The challenge for historians as for individuals and nations has been to make sense of the Cold War past without recourse to the obsolete frameworks of a dichotomous world The editors of Seeking Meaning Seeking Justice in the Post Cold War World Judith Keene and Elizabeth Rezniewski have brought together contributions that address the diverse modes by which the Cold War is being assessed with a major focus on countries on the periphery of the Cold War confrontation These approaches include developments in historiography as new intellectual and cultural frame are applied to old debates Authors also consider the universal principles and moral discourses including that of human rights on which judgements have been based and judicial processes instigated and the forms of memorialisation that have sought to come to terms and perhaps achieve reconciliation with a Cold War past Contributors are Ann Curthoys Philip Deery Katherine Hite Michael Humphrey Su kyong Hwang Perry Johansson Judith Keene Betty O'Neill Peter Read Elizabeth Rezniewski Estela Valverde Adrian Vickers and Marivic Wyndham

Militocracy vs. Democracy in West Africa 1960s - 1990s Godfrey Mwakikagile, This is a historical narrative and analysis of the unconstitutional changes of government in most West African countries where military rule became institutionalised more than in any other part of the continent from the sixties to the nineties There is no specific reason why the region has suffered from usurpation of power by soldiers more than any other part of the continent besides the desire by soldiers to rule recently demonstrated by coups in Mali in 2020 and 2021 Guinea in 2021 and Burkina Faso in 2022 Governments in West Africa are no more unstable or weaker than their counterparts in other parts of the continent Overthrowing governments became a continental phenomenon when military rulers went on to legitimise their seizure of power through rigged elections by turning themselves into civilian rulers They civilianised themselves not only to claim that they were no longer military rulers but were democratically elected leaders a manipulation of power that triggered counter coups by their opponents to end their rule resulting in many deaths in many countries where this violent change took place Military rule in Africa started soon after independence in the sixties The most ambitious goals in the postcolonial era were consolidation of the state and nation building with varying degrees of success in different parts of the continent Military rulers proved to be no better than their civilian counterparts they had replaced In most cases they were even worse and used coercive power of the state to perpetuate themselves in office just as their civilian counterparts did The result was consolidation of the state as an instrument of oppression the most oppressive apparatus being the executive branch itself invested with all the powers which evolved into the imperial presidency a phenomenon that persists in some African countries legitimised through rigged elections enabling leaders to remain in office under the guise of democracy in the name of the people Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1968-02 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin s iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world
