Becoming a Leader Is Becoming Yourself Russ S. Moxley, 2015-07-04 People yearn for leaders who are authentic, who show their own face and not a game face, who find and use their voice in appropriate ways, and act with a tangible sense of integrity. Those who engage in the process of leadership, each of us at some point, want to do so as our true self. But staying true to one's self is not easy. We are continually moving in and out of authenticity. We are present one moment and absent the next. We often say yes when we want to say no. We act from our core values some of the time but give them a wink when the heat is on. There is no formula for being integral and authentic. Becoming and being ourselves requires confidence and courage. Drawing on the author's 40 years in leadership training, this book discusses the things we can do along the way, recognizing our strengths and limitations, speaking truth to power, trusting our companions as we strive to fulfill our leadership potential. Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here.

Joe's Table - A True Story Stephanie Chung, 2018-01-01 Hi, my name is Joe. What is your name? You will see these words on the wall inside a unique café called Joe's Table, named after Joseph Chung. Joseph was diagnosed with autism at a young age and was also afflicted with a seizure disorder. Because Joseph loved to socialize in his own loving and harmless way, Dr. Stephanie Chung and her husband envisioned a job where Joseph could experience the joy and self-esteem that come from having meaningful work. Joe had a talent for engaging people by greeting them. A coffee shop seemed like the perfect place for that gift. In Joe's Table, Stephanie shares her story of a son birthed in joy and later diagnosed with autism, a long battle raising an autistic son, and the journey that made her understand God's providence and compassion, heaven's comfort for mothers who struggle and grieve because their children are different than they expected, a disability that became a blessing to teach God's love. Joseph passed away unexpectedly in September 2012. Stephanie had to face despair and frustration once again as she sent her child to heaven.

before her In that moment she met the heart of God Joe s Table continued to evolve and had its grand opening on June 24 2013 Now it is a one of a kind coffee shop that serves the community and opens employment opportunities for those with different abilities complete this comprehensive character study My Li'l Paradise D.A. Koelbransen, 2010-10-21 Debbi is an independent 51 year young mother of two grown sons whose lifestyle was a richly woven tapestry of creative interests and activities She cherished her great array of friends and enjoyed the past six years of weekends with a man she adored Life was perfect until one day in a bizarre twist of fate her boyfriend her life partner very suddenly left her While her devastation was earth shattering her strength and fierce determination reset her compass to move forward After a few months of mourning then refocusing and with support from her family friends and an amazing therapist Debbi found the courage to take a stab at internet dating again but had no idea that one click of her mouse would have such far reaching karmic effects that would change her life forever This is the true story of two 50 something souls who were trying to find their way and on the way found each other Theirs is the kind of love we all dreamt of in our youth and would never expect it to grace our hearts after we've experienced mid life crisis Just when Debbi reached an age when she thought she figured it all out life love and the workings of her entire universe she meets someone who shakes up her life and the universe she thought she knew so well If it happened to you would you still believe in love at first sight or that a love can transcend any obstacle including death Can the depth of that love permeate your soul so deeply and completely that against any and all odds you could live a lifetime together in seven weeks Well this is Debbi's story It is possible because it happened its real and its all true *Mothers
