Courage Of The Common Men Texans Remember World War II:

The Courage of Common Men Stephen Manning, 2001 The book contains stories from 19 veterans across Texas and is thoroughly engaging It s an extremely quick read The stories are tragic and at times humorous It s told in an interview style so you feel the emotions that the veterans are experiencing as they relive their personal accounts One of my favorite chapters is of the Gibesons a couple from San Antonio who met during the War and are still married today What a love story
