Shadow Lines Lorna Martens, 1996-01-01 Intellectual culture in early twentieth century Austria reached levels of originality and excellence that have rarely been equalled before or since Shadow Lines examines works by major novelists dramatists poets and intellectuals of that extraordinary era among them Sigmund Freud Arthur Schnitzler Robert Musil Hugo von Hofmannsthal Rainer Maria Rilke Ludwig Wittgenstein and Franz Kafka Lorna Martens considers how each of these authors contributed to a decisive transformation in Austrian culture involving a shift away from the dialectical syntheses of much nineteenth century German thought and culture to potent unresolvable dualisms of known and unknown orderly and chaotic features of human experience consciousness and the unconscious reason and the irrational language and the inexpressible In most of these writers according to Martens all that is knowable reasonable and orderly is grounded in that which is dark irrational chaotic What Martens calls the dark area emerges variously as the unconscious Freud the sexual drive Freud Schnitzler Musil the death instinct Freud Schnitzler the dangerous chaos below the surface of things Rilke the inaccessible totality von Hofmannsthal or the unsayable Mauthner von Hofmannsthal Musil Wittgenstein The essential yet enigmatic relation between the known and the unknown leads to much that is unsettling and strangely fascinating in these writers works A book that shrewdly relates the works of these authors to the intellectual and political turmoil of the times Shadow Lines is a new critical appraisal of Austrian literature and intellectual culture at the dawn of the century Lorna Martens is an associate professor in the Department of Germanic Languages and Literatures at the University of Virginia She is the author of The Diary Novel

Courage to Live John Bishop, 1976 Count Benyowsky; Or, The Conspiracy of Kamtschatka August von Kotzebue, 1798 Perfection in Death Patrick M. Clark, 2015-11-03 Perfection in Death compares and contrasts the relationship between conceptions of courage and death in the thought of Aquinas and his ancient philosophical sources At the center of this investigation is Aquinas' identification of martyrdom as the paradigmatic act of courage as well as the greatest proof of the perfection of charity Such a portrayal of perfection in death bears some resemblance to the ancient tradition of noble death but departs from it in decisive ways Clark argues that this departure can only be fully understood in light of an accompanying transformation of the metaphysical and anthropological framework underlying ancient theories of virtue Perfection in Death aims to provide a new theological account of this paradigm shift in light of contemporary Thomistic scholarship
