The BE Attitudes for Christians Mary Ruth Whitley, 2018-02-06 The Be Attitudes for Christians has thirty two Christian attitudes that can be applied to many different situations in our lives beginning with BE BLESSED and ending with BE PREPARED This is a devotional a resource and could easily be used for research Studying biblical end times and prophecy has actually given me peace of mind about our world Jesus laid God s plan out for his disciples and revealed to John some prophetic events that will take place in the future There is no date given for God s final plan to occur but it will come to pass like all other prior prophecies described in the Bible God s message is available for anyone who wants to peruse it meditate on it study it be prepared and be blessed by it As a devotional prior to an election I created a Forty Day Fast and Prayer for Christians After sharing it with a woman she urged me to write more devotions using the same process and style That daily devotion was simply an Attitude a Thought and some Scriptures After several years of writing and praying about this I chose the acronym AIM A is the attitude I stands for the instruction and M is the relevant Scripture for memory or meditation All the Be Attitudes are developed around Scripture and allow the reader to be in God s Word By choice the meditation can be long or short When we AIM to let the Word of God move us then His purpose will be accomplished modern medicine The authors describe the way the Apostle engages in feeling into the organic whole of the body in order to detect blockages to the healthy flow of powers by redirecting their vision to how God is working among them toward the building up of the Christian body The book breaks new ground in crossing the traditional disciplinary boundaries between biblical studies systematic theology and theological ethics Faith, Hope, and Love in the Kingdom of God Robert Hernan Cubillos, 2017-04-27 We live in a world full of challenges The three graces can almost be seen as motors for Christian life in today's world but the words faith hope and love have so many everyday uses that their technical theological meanings are for many difficult to appreciate Modern life also leaves many yearning for authenticity and meaning Many religions have answered that need by calling to mind the image of a path Always profound progressions religious paths tend to be motivated either by practices the act of walking the path or focal points Christianity has a focal point an object and it sees the three graces as distinctively content filled The heart of this book is about helping people find the Christian path and their intellectual emotional and spiritual balance an equilibrium that is sustained by a strong personal faith an enduring hope for the future and genuine love that will withstand the worst of times It contributes to the category of Christian literature that provides a pattern for Christian living without surrendering the intellect to the more popular side of this genre The Courage to Be Protestant, 2nd ed. Wells, David F., 2017 At its heart the Protestant Reformation was about a deep doctrinally shaped faith centered on God and his Word But that historic substantive faith is not faring so well in our contemporary Western context In his 2008 book The Courage to Be Protestant David Wells issued a summons to return to the historic Protestant faith defined by the Reformation solas grace faith and Scripture alone and by a high regard for doctrine In this thoroughly reworked second edition Wells presents an updated look at the state of evangelicalism and the changes that have taken place since the original publication of his book There is no better time than now to hear and heed Wells's clarion call to reclaim the historic doctrinally serious Reformation faith in our fast paced technologically dominated postmodern culture The Human Person J. Brian, 2019-03-25 In the 20th Century three social revolutions the industrial sexual and technological revolutions challenged the religious convictions of many John Paul II's teaching on the theology of the body was his response to the resulting societal shifts Fr Bransfield explores John Paul II's response to the challenges raised by these revolutions In this context Bransfield then explores how Theology of the Body leads us to live the fullness of the Christian life The Courage to Be Protestant David F. Wells, 2008-04 It takes no courage to sign up as a Protestant These words begin this bold new work the culmination of David Wells's long standing critique of the evangelical landscape But to live as a true Protestant well that's another matter This book is a jeremiad against new versions of evangelicalism marketers and emergents and a summons to return to the historic faith defined by the Reformation solas grace faith and Scripture alone and by a high regard for doctrine Wells argues that historic classical evangelicalism is marked by doctrinal seriousness as opposed to the new movements of the marketing church and the emergent church He energetically confronts the marketing communities and their tendency to try to win parishioners as consumers rather than worshipers advertising the most palatable environment rather than trusting the truth to be attractive He takes particular issue with the most popular evangelical movement in recent years the emergent church Emergents he says are postmodern and postconservative and postfoundational embracing a less absolute understanding of the authority of Scripture than traditionally held The Courage to Be Protestant is a forceful argument for the courage to be faithful to what Christianity in its biblical forms has always stood for thereby securing hope for the church's future

A Commentary on 1 & 2 Corinthians David Pawson, Were it not for problems in the church at Corinth we might never have had Paul's teaching on marriage and celibacy supernatural gifts the resurrection and above all his sublime description of Christian love We have just two of the four letters he wrote to them They reveal his major concerns for his converts to see them mature as individuals and to integrate them properly into Spirit-filled fellowships Follow up was essential to New Testament evangelism In the second Paul reveals more than ever of his personal experience his constant perils his feelings delight and disappointment his reactions to rivals his humiliations and his boasting in short the inner life of the apostle

The True Face of the Antichrist James Prince, 2013-06 This book that you're holding in your hands will do what it was said about the two olive trees in Revelation and believe it what is written in it will torment the inhabitants of the earth just like it is described in the book of Revelation I am not a theologian but in this book you will find all the evidences all the necessary proofs which expose the true face of the antichrist the true face of the devil the one Jesus talked about in Matthew 13:39 And the enemy who sows them is the devil In this book you will also find the name of the beast finally Name that millions have tried in vain to identify The devil sowed the lies but we have believed in them despite all of Jesus and his disciples warnings and this causes our loss Only the key of the kingdom of heaven that Jesus gave to Peter the truth the word of God can save us Read very carefully 2 Thessalonians 2:10 They perish because they refused to love the truth and to be saved If you really have love for the truth you will read The True Face of The Antichrist to the end even though it is very shocking and troubling as you have never been but remember one thing it is for your own salvation I already have my salvation because I saw and I believed the truth and I have accepted it So I wish you the same joy the same happiness The truth that is in this book is a knife straight to the heart of the beast The more it will be sold and the more the truth will be known and accepted the more the beast will be destroyed What gives the power to the beast are the ignorance and the hypocrisy of its members The beast has its foundation on lies and this is why it will be destroyed by the truth by the word of God just like the prophecy says See 2 Thessalonians 2:8 And then the lawless one will be revealed whom the Lord Jesus will overthrow with the breath of his mouth the word of God and destroy by the splendor of his coming James Prince
