Living Art Elly Kent, Virginia Hooker, Caroline Turner, 2022-11-08 Living Art Indonesian Artists Engage Politics Society and History is inspired by the conviction of so many of Indonesia's Independence era artists that there is continuing interaction between art and everyday life In the 1970s Sanento Yuliman Indonesia's foremost art historian of the late twentieth century further developed that concept stating New Indonesian Art cannot wholly be understood without locating it in the context of the larger framework of Indonesian society and culture and the whole force of history The essays in this book accept Yuliman's challenge to analyse the intellectual sociopolitical and historical landscape that Indonesia's artists inhabited from the 1930s into the first decades of the new millennium including their responses to the COVID 19 pandemic The inclusion of one of Yuliman's most influential essays translated into English for the first time offers those outside Indonesia an insight into a formative period in the generation of new art knowledge in Indonesia The volume also features essays by T K Sabapathy Jim Supangkat Alia Swastika Wulan Dirgantoro and FX Harsono as well as the three editors Elly Kent Virginia Hooker and Caroline Turner The book s contributors present recent research on issues rarely addressed in English language texts on Indonesian art including the inspirations and achievements of women artists despite social and political barriers Islam inspired art artistic ideologies the intergenerational effects of trauma and the impacts of geopolitical change and global art worlds that emerged in the 1990s The Epilogue introduces speculations from contemporary practitioners on what the future might hold for artists in Indonesia Extensively illustrated Living Art contributes to the acknowledgement and analysis of the diversity of Indonesia s contemporary art and offers new insights into Indonesian art history as well as the contemporary art histories of Southeast Asia and Asia more generally

Religion, Law and Intolerance in Indonesia Tim Lindsey, Helen Pausacker, 2016-05-20 Despite its overwhelmingly Muslim majority Indonesia has always been seen as exceptional for its diversity and pluralism In recent years however there has been a rise in majoritarianism with resurgent Islamist groups pushing hard to impose conservative values on public life in many cases with considerable success This has sparked growing fears for the future of basic human rights and in particular the rights of women and sexual and ethnic minority groups There have in fact been more prosecutions of unorthodox religious groups since the fall of Soeharto in 1998 than there were under the three decades of his authoritarian rule Some Indonesians even feel that the pluralism they thought was constitutionally guaranteed by the national ideology the Pancasila is now under threat This book contains essays exploring these issues by prominent scholars lawyers and activists from within Indonesia and beyond offering detailed accounts of the political and legal implications of rising resurgent Islamism in Indonesia Examining particular cases of intolerance and violence against minorities it also provides an account of the responses offered by a weak state that now seems too often unwilling to intervene to protect vulnerable minorities against rising religious intolerance
