Courting Death Carol Stephenson, 2011-05-02 After watching a murderer walk free on a technicality Nicole Sterling left the state attorney's office to start a criminal law practice. She lets her partners handle the assault and murder files while she specializes in white collar crime. With her own mother's life slowly slipping away before her eyes, Nicole has had about all she can take of death. But when a client is accused of killing her own baby, Nicole is drawn in to the case. Also looking for answers is Detective Sam Bowie, a man as infuriating as he is sexy. Sparks fly between them, but the last thing Nicole has room in her life for is a romantic entanglement. Their investigation reveals that Nicole's client could be just one of many innocent victims of a horrific conspiracy. Now she must put her own life on the line to uncover the truth and risk her heart if she's to have a future with Sam. 55,000 words

Shakespeare on the Double! The Taming of the Shrew William Shakespeare, 2008-09-15 End your struggle with the Bard's prose and enjoy the story of gold digging Petruchio and tongue lashing Kate. Shakespeare on the Double: The Taming of the Shrew includes an easy to understand modern English translation alongside the original Shakespearian text so that you can read only the translation, read the translation with the original text, or tackle the original text referring only to the translation when you're stumped. A comprehensive character list describes the traits of each major character, a visual map depicts relationships, and review questions reinforce important information so you won't miss the action.

Do Not Go On Bryan Furuness, 2020 Witness protection supposedly offers a fresh start, but for Ana Easterday it's a personal apocalypse. Stranded in Indiana, she's lost her future as well as her past. When a hitman offers her a way home, she has to decide: stay or go. Do Not Go On is about secrets, second chances, and stories that can save your skin and soul.
