Courtship, Love, and Marriage in Nineteenth-Century English Canada W. Peter Ward, 1990 Argues that freedom to love court and marry in nineteenth century English Canada was constrained by an intricate social institutional and familial framework which greatly influenced the behavior of young couples both before and after marriage Courtship, Love, and Marriage in Nineteenth-Century English Canada Peter Ward, 1990-03-01 Courtship love and marriage are seen today as very private affairs and historians have generally concluded that after the late eighteenth century young people began to enjoy great autonomy in courtship and decisions about marriage Peter Ward disagrees with this conclusion and argues that freedom in nineteenth century English Canada was constrained by an intricate social institutional and familial framework which greatly influenced the behaviour of young couples both before and after marriage Canadian History: Beginnings to Confederation Martin Brook Taylor, Doug Owram, 1994-01-01 In these two volumes which replace the Reader's Guide to Canadian History experts provide a select and critical guide to historical writing about pre and post Confederation Canada with an emphasis on the most recent scholarship Cover The Infinite Bonds of Family Cynthia R. Comacchio, 1999-01-01 With this book Cynthia Comacchio presents the first historical overview of domestic life in Canada showing how families have both changed and remained the same through transitions brought about by urbanization Telling Tales Catherine A. Cavanaugh, Randi R. Warne, 2011-11-01 Women played a vital role in industrialization and war the shaping of the West in Canada between the 1880s and 1940s Yet surprisingly little is known about their contributions or the differences sex and gender made to the opportunities and obstacles women encountered Telling Tales contributes to the rewriting of western Canada's past by integrating women into the shifting power matrix of class race and gender that undergirded its colonization and settlement This book cover a range of topics African American settlement on Vancouver Island prairie childbirth narratives and Mennonites as domestic servants are but three examples They focus on women of both minority and dominant cultures and reflect the West's characteristically mixed population Telling Tales challenges founding myths of the region and invites a retelling of the story of western Canadian colonization and settlement The Canadian Shields, 2024-09-09 Newly discovered work by one of Canada's favourite writers The Canadian Shields brings together fifty short writings by Carol Shields 1935 2003 including more than two dozen previously unpublished short stories and essays and two dozen essays previously published but never before collected Invaluable to scholars and admirers of Shields s work the writings discovered in the National Library Archives by Nora Foster Stovel and presented to the public here for the first time reflect Shields's interest in the relationships between reality and fiction mothers and daughters and gender and genre They also reveal her love of Canada especially Winnipeg her home for twenty years Originally written for women's magazines travel journals convocation addresses and even graduate school term papers Shields s imaginative essays explore ideas about home Canadian literature contemporary women s writing and the future of fiction Whether autobiographical cultural or feminist in focus these works vividly illuminate the multiple chapters of Shields s writing life Margaret Atwood and Lorna Crozier frame Shields s texts with tributes to her work and impact An introduction by Stovel situates Shields as a Canadian author and subversive feminist writer demonstrating how American born and raised Carol Anne Warner became the Canadian Shields a guintessential and beloved Canadian writer and the only author to win both the Pulitzer Prize and the Governor General's Gold Medal for Fiction Families in Transition Peter Gossage, 1999-09-01 Gossage uses a family reconstitution method drawing on local parish registers and manuscript census schedules to focus on marriage household organization and family size in this context of social and economic change Family formation was profoundly affected as couples adjusted to the new urban industrial setting Gossage demonstrates that demographic behaviour was increasingly differentiated by social class with distinct marriage and fertility patterns emerging among bourgeois and proletarian families Bourgeois women who married in the 1860s for example were already limiting family size a crucial shift that did not occur in working class families until almost a generation later Families in Transition demonstrates the extent to which stereotypes about family life in Quebec before the Quiet Revolution need to be revisited Far from being passive static uniformly prolific and constrained by religious and cultural perspectives Saint Hyacinthe families responded quickly to the changing realities of the day reinventing marriage patterns and domestic arrangements to fit the new industrial capitalism of the nineteenth century In this sense they were truly families in transition Man Robert Alexander Harrison, Osgoode Society for Canadian Legal History, 2003-01-01 Although unusual in his driving ambitions and his consuming need to accumulate a fortune Harrison remained in most respects thoroughly conventional and Victorian and his diary offers unrivalled insights into the voice of the mid nineteenth century Toronto male Respectable Citizens Lara A. Campbell, 2009-10-21 High unemployment rates humiliating relief policy and the spectre of eviction characterized the experiences of many Ontario families in the Great Depression Respectable Citizens is an examination of the material difficulties and survival strategies of families facing poverty and unemployment and an analysis of how collective action and protest redefined the meanings of welfare and citizenship in the 1930s Lara Campbell draws on diverse sources including newspapers family and juvenile court records premiers papers memoirs and oral histories to uncover the ways in which the material workings of the family and the discursive category of respectable citizenship were invested with gendered obligations and Anglo British identity Respectable Citizens demonstrates how women and men represented themselves as entitled to make specific claims on the state shedding new light on the cooperative and conflicting relationships between men and women parents and children and citizen and state in 1930s Canada A Short History of Quebec John Alexander Dickinson, 2008 Written by two of Quebec's most respected historians A Short History of Quebec offers a concise yet comprehensive overview of the province from the pre contact native period to the present day John A Dickinson and Brian Young bring a refreshing perspective to the history of Quebec focusing on the social and economic development of the region as well as the identity issues of its diverse peoples This revised fourth edition covers Quebec's recent political history and includes an updated bibliography and chronology and new illustrations A Canadian classic A Short History of Quebec now takes into account such issues as the 1995 referendum recent ideological shifts and societal changes considers Quebec s place in North America in the light of NAFTA and offers reflections on the Grard Bouchard Charles Taylor Commission on Accommodation and Cultural Differences in 2008 Engagingly written this expanded and updated fourth edition is an ideal place to learn about the dynamic history of Quebec A Short History of Quebec John A. Dickinson, Brian Young, 2002-10-30 In a new chapter on contemporary Quebec the book examines the 1995 referendum discusses the ideological shifts and societal changes in Quebec under the Bouchard government and considers Quebec s place in North America in the wake of NAFTA A Short History of Quebec offers a concise yet comprehensive overview of the province from the pre contact native period to the death of Pierre Trudeau in 2001 The authors provide an insightful perspective on the history of Quebec focusing on the social economic and political development of the region and its peoples Engagingly written this expanded and updated third edition is an ideal starting place to learn about Quebec My Dearest Wife Maud J. McLean, Robert M. Stamp, 1998-08-15 The Edgars lives symbolized the increasing complexity of Toronto society as older generations gradually gave way to a new generation of outsiders seeking prominence Buying a Bride Marcia A. Zug, 2016-06-07 There have always been mail order brides in America In this book Zug starts with the so called Tobacco Wives of the Jamestown colony and moves forward to today s modern same sex mail order grooms to explore the advantages and disadvantages of mail order marriage It's a history of deception physical abuse and failed unions It's also the story of how mail order marriage can offer women surprising and empowering opportunities The Politics of Pensions Ann Shola Orloff, 1993 By offering a comparative institutional analysis of how state supported pensions for the elderly developed in Britain Canada and the United States Ann Shola Orloff makes a profound contribution to understanding the growth of modern social welfare policies It is not enough Orloff demonstrates to simply examine socioeconomic factors in the growth of the welfare state She argues that welfare policies are shaped as well by the political institutions and processes that are the legacy of state formation and expansion in given nations Orloff explains why when and how poor relief was replaced by modern social insurance legislation and pensions for the elderly in the first three decades of the twentieth century She analyzes the long term social and political transformations that laid the basis for modern social politics the spread of waged work the development of New Liberal ideologies and the expansion and transformation of state administrative capacities Combining original historical research with the analysis of secondary sources Orloff's work is an excellent example of the use of comparative and historical methods to answer questions about macropolitical transformation such as the origin of the welfare state The Politics of Pensions outlines an original interdisciplinary approach that will appeal to a wide variety of readers political sociologists interested in the state social workers and specialists in old age policy and comparative

Thirsty Land into Springs of Water Brooke Kathleen Brassard, 2025-07-15 Looking at the example of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints Thirsty Land into Springs of Water answers questions about Canadian and religious identities immigration and integration Brooke Kathleen Brassard sheds light on the Latter day Saint experience in southern Alberta between 1887 and 1947 revealing how the Latter day Saints integrated into Canadian society while maintaining their peculiar identity through architecture business practices political participation gendered roles and family structures Drawing on family histories correspondence meeting minutes and oral histories Brassard explores how the Church negotiated the tension between integration and otherness The book demonstrates how Latter day Saints in southern Alberta embedded themselves in the social economic and political structures of Canada and how they adapted Mormonism to Canadian circumstances It draws on the concept of lived religion and historical methodologies to reveal the complications that occur in the process of negotiation for members of a minority religion in Canada Thirsty Land into Springs of Water ultimately illuminates the ways in which mainstream Canadian society forces newcomers to decide what they will adopt reject or adapt in order to belong Households of Faith Nancy Christie, 2002 Annotation An examination of the intersection of religious and familial discourse over the course of two centuries Households of Faith examines a variety of religious traditions with a particular focus on the way in which religious communities define gender identities. The authors explore the boundaries drawn in religious discourse between the private and public offering a revisionist perspective on the theoretical framework of separate spheres By analysing gender relations within the matrix of the family they explore both the conflicts and interdependency of gender roles Kate Chase and William Sprague Peg A. Lamphier, 2003-01-01 Motherless from an early age she became her father s official hostess during the Civil War and Reconstruction years as well as his unofficial campaign manager As the opening of the Civil War her husband William Sprague was a wealthy industrialist the boy governor of Rhode Island a dashing military figure and an alcoholic Land, Power, and Economics on the Frontier of Upper Canada John Clarke, 2001 Land Power and Economics on the Frontier of Upper Canada examines Ontario s formative years focusing on Essex County in Ontario from 1788 to 1850 Upper Canadian attitudes to land and society are shown to have been built on contemporary visions of the cosmos John Clarke examines the actions of individuals from the perspective of the political culture and its manifestations doing so within the constraints of geography and the cultural baggage of the settlers Placing human action in the context of economics and laissez faire capitalism Clarke shows how almost unbridled acquisitiveness and its concomitant land speculation could promote or hinder development Aspects of the Canadian Evangelical Experience George A. Rawlyk, 1997-02-17 An impressive list of specialists in the field examine the evangelical impulse in various denominations from the mainstream Methodists Presbyterians Anglicans and United through Baptists Mennonites and Lutherans to the more sectish groups including Holiness Christian Mission Alliance and the Pentecostals Also included are comparisons between Canadian and American British and Australian evangelicalism and essays on evangelical networks leaders and revivals women and evangelicalism in the 1990s Growing out of a conference sponsored by the Pew Charitable Trusts in 1995 at Queen s University the essays elaborate a variety of important themes in the study of historical and contemporary evangelicalism and weave them together to provide an informative and challenging exploration of aspects of the evangelical experience in Canada Contributors include Phyllis D Airhart Alvyn J Austin David W Bebbington Edith L Blumhofer Robert K Burkinshaw Sharon Anne Cook Nancy Christie P Lorraine Coops Duff Crerar Michael Gauvreau Daniel C Goodwin Andrew S Grenville Bruce L Guenther Bryan V Hillis D Bruce Hindmarsh Mark Hutchinson William H Katerberg Kevin Kee Ronald A N Kydd Barry Mack Mark A Noll David Plaxton Darrel R Reid John G Stackhouse Jr Marguerite Van Die Richard W Vaudry and Marilyn F rdig Whiteley
