Cover Up Robert Holden, 1995 A study of Australian magazine covers over a century with emphasis on the interwar period and particularly The Home magazine Fully illustrated in colour with a select bibliography Artists include Norman Lindsay May Gibbs Hera Roberts and Sydney Ure Smith

History of the Book in Australia Volume 3 Craig Munro, 2006-07 This new volume in UQP's History of the Book in Australia series explores Australian book production and consumption from 1946 to the present day In the immediate postwar era most books were imported into a colonial market dominated by British publishers Paper Empires traces this fascinating and volatile half century using wide ranging research oral history and memoir to explore the worlds of book publishing selling and reading After 1945 Australian publishing went from a handful of fledgling businesses to the billion dollar industry of today with thousands of new titles each year and a vast array of imported books Publishing's postwar expansion began with the baby boom and the increased demand for school texts with independent houses blossoming during the 1960s and 70s followed by the current era dominated by global conglomerates All aspects of print culture are explored from authorship and editing to bookselling libraries and reading habits in the context of today's rapidly changing publishing landscape with its many technological challenges A wide range of expert contributors including book trade practitioners have produced this lively and indispensable account of our vital cultural industry

The World Upside Down, 2000 The World Upside Down Australia 1788 1830 draws on the National Library of Australia's collections to explore some of the many fascinating aspects of life and art in colonial Australia

A Companion to Australian Art Christopher Allen, 2021-04-27 A Companion to Australian Art is a thorough introduction to the art produced in Australia from the arrival of the First Fleet in 1788 to the early 21st century Beginning with the colonial art made by Australia's first European settlers this volume presents a collection of clear and accessible essays by established art historians and emerging scholars alike Engaging clearly written chapters provide fresh insights into the principal Australian art movements considered from a variety of chronological regional and thematic perspectives The text seeks to provide a balanced account of historical events to help readers discover the art of Australia on their own terms and draw their own conclusions The book begins by surveying the historiography of Australian art and exploring the history of art museums in Australia The following chapters discuss art forms such as photography sculpture portraiture and landscape painting examining the practice of art in the separate colonies before Federation and in the Commonwealth from the early 20th century to the present day This authoritative volume covers the last 250 years of art in Australia including the Early Colonial High Colonial and Federation periods as well as the successive Modernist styles of the 20th century and considers how traditional Aboriginal art has adapted and changed over the last fifty years The Companion to Australian Art is a valuable resource for both undergraduate and graduate students of the history of Australian artforms from colonization to postmodernism and for general readers with an interest in the nation's colonial art history

A Career in Writing David

John Carter, 1993 This thesis examines the literary career of Judah Waten 1911-1985 in order to focus on a series of issues in Australian cultural history and theory The purpose is not to discover a single key to Waten's writing across the oeuvre but rather to plot the specific occasions of this writing in the context of the structure of a career and the cultural institutions within which it was formed The Design Manual David Whitbread, 2001 A comprehensive reference guide to the design and production of documents Written as a companion volume to the Commonwealth Style Manual The Design Manual is an indispensable reference for traditional and digital publishing Magazines and Modern Identities Tim Satterthwaite, Andrew Thacker, 2023-09-21 In the late nineteenth and early twentieth century ideals of technological progress and mass consumerism shaped the print cultures of countries across the globe Magazines in Europe the USA Latin America and Asia inflected a shared internationalism and technological optimism But there were equally powerful countervailing influences of patriotic or insurgent nationalism and of traditionalism that promoted cultural differentiation In their editorials images and advertisements magazines embodied the tensions between these domestic imperatives and the forces of global modernity Magazines and Modern Identities explores how these tensions played out in the magazine cultures of ten different countries describing how publications drew on resisted and informed the ideals and visual forms of global modernism Chapters take in the magazines of Australia Europe and North America as well as China The Soviet Turkic states and Mexico With contributions from leading international scholars the book considers the pioneering developments in European and North American periodicals in the modernist period whilst expanding the field of enquiry to take in the vibrant magazine cultures of east Asia and Latin America The construction of these magazines modern ideals was a complex dialectical process in dialogue with international modernism but equally responsive to their local cultures and the beliefs and expectations of their readers Magazines and Modern Identities captures the diversity of these ideals in periodicals that both embraced and criticised the globalised culture of the technological era To Try Her Fortune in London Angela Woollacott, 2001-08-30 Between 1870 and 1940 tens of thousands of Australian women were drawn to London their imperial metropolis and the center of the publishing art musical theatrical and educational worlds Even more Australian women than men made the pilgrimage home seeking opportunities beyond those available to them in the Australian colonies or dominion In tracing the experiences of these women this volume reveals hitherto unexamined connections between whiteness colonial status gender and modernity Paper Empires Craig Munro, Robyn Sheahan-Bright, 2010-07 This new volume in UQP's History of the Book in Australia series explores Australian book production and consumption from 1946 to the present day In the immediate postwar era most books were imported into a colonial market dominated by British publishers Paper Empires traces this fascinating and volatile half century using wide ranging research Design in Australia, 1880-1970 Michael Bogle, 1998 This investigation of design explores the experience of poets painters critics museum curators and journalists to illustrate the vitality of the discipline Ghost Nation Laurie Duggan, 2001 A vividly written account of Australia's visual arts from

Federation through to the end of the Depression the period from which the modernist movement evolved Poet Laurie Duggan draws together areas of Australian cultural history which have formerly been treated through separate disciplines eg modernism and feminism

Surface and Deep Histories Anuradha Chatterjee, 2014-06-26 Surface in architecture has had a deeper and a more pervasive presence in the practice and theory of the discipline than is commonly supposed Orientations to the surface emerge collapse and reappear sustaining it as a legitimate theoretical and artefactual entity despite the twentieth century disciplinary definition of architecture as space structure and function Even though surface is defended for its pervasiveness Kurt Forster its function as a theoretical motif with generative power Andrew Benjamin and in constituting the operative principles of modern architecture as a visual phenomenon Mark Wigley it occupies the interstice or the space of the unconscious within architectural discourse from where it defends its legitimacy as architecturally valuable or functional as opposed to merely visually pleasurable Surface and Deep Histories positions surface within the scholarship of critical theory and design based approaches and invites academics and designers and art and architectural historians based in Australia to consider the uses figurations scales and typologies of surfaces The collection choreographs contributions that focus on a variety of topics such as montage and construction of colonial modernity and visual culture Molly Duggins wallpaper rational space and femininity Anna Daly the inter constituted nature of bodies clothes and cities Stella North the reconstruction of the urban surface through a true integration of information and topology M Hank Haeusler James Fergusson's theory of ornament Peter Kohane traditional and new verandahs in Australia Chris Brisbin contradictory effects of surface in Green architecture debates Flavia Marcello and Ian Woodcock and the thickness of thin curtain walls in contemporary Australian architecture Anuradha Chatterjee Surface and Deep Histories shows that surface is not thin spatially or conceptually It demonstrates that the practice of surface is simultaneously superficial and pervasive symbol and space meaningful and functional static and transitory and object and envelope
