Of Business In Western Asia: Land Of Bazaars And High-tech Booms* Leo-paul Dana,Aidin Salamzadeh,Veland Ramadani,Ramo Palalic,2022-05-05 Not one size fits all Yet some books teach business with minimal focus on the context for business In reality firms large and small are highly affected by the context in which they operate yet context is not uniformly conceptualized theorized and operationalized by scholars of business and management While most theories have come from developed countries with bountiful contexts the diverse contexts of Western Asia are little understood Religious factors are profoundly dominant in Western Asia and businesses in this diverse area operate with considerations that are rarely considered in research This book reveals a variety of schools of thought that have molded several business models and mechanisms which are to some extent different from the context of Western economies
