Contemporary Criticism In Literature:

A Guide to Literary Criticism and Research Bonnie Klomp Stevens, Larry L. Stewart, 1996 Like the first two editions of A Guide to Literary Criticism and Research this edition is based both on a recognition of a practical need felt in many literature courses and a view of literary study. It attempts to meet the practical need by offering upper level students a condensed but adequate guide to the range of modern criticism and to basic methods of research. In addition it is a hope that the book will give students a more comprehensive view of literary study by helping them to recognize criticism and research as two closely linked parts of a single process.

Contemporary Literary Criticism, 2008-02 Each volume profiles about six to eight novelists poets playwrights short story writers and other creative and nonfiction writers who are currently active or who died after Dec 31 1999. A biographical and critical introduction to each author prefaces a collection of reprinted critical essays and reviews. A cumulative title index to the entire series is available separately included in subscription. Modern Literary Criticism and Theory Rafey Habib, 2008 Exploring the works of a diverse group of 20th century writers including D H Lawrence H L Mencken Jean Paul Sartre and Jacques Derrida this book provides an accessible scholarly introduction to modern literary theory and criticism placing various modes of criticism in their historical and intellectual contexts.

Grounds of Literary Criticism Suresh Raval, 1998 This sophisticated and wide ranging look at literary criticism addresses the major theorists of today and proposes a constructive approach to challenging critical debates Disclosing conflict as the inevitable outcome of historical change Suresh Raval refuses the stark either or choice between the foundationalist stance which seeks to find the right answers and the relativist position which denies the possibility of identifying right and wrong Raval explores the question of conflict in literary criticism and theory by analyzing how different theories have treated key issues not to resolve these problems but to show why they resist decisive solution
