Documentary's Awkward Turn Jason Middleton,2013-12-04 Despite the prominence of awkwardness as cultural buzzword and descriptor of a sub genre of contemporary film and television comedy it has yet to be adequately theorized in academic film and media studies Documentary's Awkward Turn contributes a new critical paradigm to the field by presenting an analysis of awkward moments in documentary film and other reality based media formats It examines difficult and disrupted encounters between social actors on the screen between filmmaker and subject and between film and spectator These encounters are of course often inter connected Awkward moments occur when an established mode of representation or reception is unexpectedly challenged stalled or altered when an interviewee suddenly confronts the interviewer when a subject who had been comfortable on camera begins to feel trapped in the frame when a film perceived as a documentary turns out to be a parodic mockumentary This book makes visible the ways in which awkwardness connects and subtends a range of transformative textual strategies political and ethical problematics and modalities of spectatorship in documentary film and media from the 1970s to the present Women Filmmakers in Sinophone World Cinema Zhen Zhang,2025-10-01

Women Filmmakers in Sinophone World Cinema portrays a group of important contemporary women filmmakers working across the Sinophone world including Taiwan Hong Kong mainland China and beyond The book delineates and conceptualizes their cinematic and trans media practices within an evolving multifaceted feminist intimate public commons The films by these experienced and emerging filmmakers including Huang Yu shan Yau Ching Ai Xiaoming Wen Hui Huang Ji and others represent some of the most innovative and socially engaged work in both fictional and non fictional modes in Chinese language cinema as well as global women s cinema Their narrative documentary and experimental film practices from the 1980s to the present along with their work in sister media such as dance theater literature and contemporary art their activities as scholars educators activists and film festival organizers or jurors have significantly reshaped the landscape of Sinophone film culture and expanded the borders of world cinema

The Biopic in Contemporary Film Culture Tom Brown,Belén Vidal,2013-12-17 The biographical film or biopic is a staple of film production in all major film industries and yet within film studies its generic aesthetic and cultural significance has remained underexplored The Biopic in Contemporary Film Culture fills this gap conceptualizing the biopic with a particular eye toward the life of the genre internationally New theoretical approaches combine with specially commissioned chapters on contemporary biographical film production in India Italy South Korea France Russia Great Britain and the US in order to present a selective but well rounded portrait of the biopic s place in film culture From Marie Antoinette to The Social Network the pieces in this volume critically examine the place of the biopic within ongoing debates about how cinema can and should represent history and real lives Contributors discuss the biopic s grounding in the conventions of the historical film and explore the genre s defining traits as well as its potential for innovation The Biopic in Contemporary Film Culture expands the critical boundaries of this evolving versatile genre

Growing Up With Audrey Hepburn Rachel Moseley,2002 Growing up with Audrey Hepburn is the first full length academic study of one of the most loved stars of Hollywood cinema A study of both Hepburn s star persona and films it is also an audience study using interviews to explore accounts given by British women who have admired her in the 1950s and 1960s and more recently in the 1990s

The Essay Film Timothy Corrigan,2011-08 Why have certain kinds of documentary and non narrative films emerged as the most interesting exciting and provocative movies made in the last twenty years Ranging from the films of Ross McElwee Bright Leaves and Agnes Varda The Gleaners and I to those of Abbas Kiarostami Close Up and Ari Folman Waltz with Bashir such films have intrigued viewers who at the same time have struggled to categorize them Sometimes described as personal documentaries or diary films these eclectic works are rather best understood as cinematic variations on the essay So argues Tim Corrigan in this stimulating and necessary new book Since Michel de Montaigne essays have been seen as a lively literary category and yet despite the work of pioneers like Chris Marker seldom discussed as a cinematic tradition The Essay Film offering a thoughtful account of the long rapport between literature and film as well as novel interpretations and theoretical models provides the ideas that will change this
