Contemporary Ecuadorian Short Stories:

Contemporary Ecuadorian Short Stories Vladimiro Rivas Iturralde, 2002 Twentieth-century Ecuadorian Narrative K. J. A. Wishnia, 1999 It examines works by several of Ecuador's most important writers in terms of the interrelations of history and myth of realism and magic or marvelous realism and the problems of using orality and dialogism to actively undermine authoritative discourse BOOK JACKET Imagining Ecuador Luis A. Medina Cordova, 2022 How are contemporary authors reimagining the idea of Ecuador following the worst financial crisis in the nation's history and how do countries on the periphery of the global literary market challenge and enrich World Literature Winner of the 2020-21 AHGBI Spanish Embassy Publication Prize In March 1999 in an effort to stave off financial collapse the Ecuadorian government suspended all banking operations and froze all bank accounts in the country for a period of five days This episode the Feriado Bancario represents the peak of the worst financial crisis in the nation's history and one which had far reaching and long last effects on society politics the economy and cultural production The very idea of Ecuador was transformed as Ecuador became a country marked by constant interaction with the world beyond its borders This book explores how contemporary Ecuadorian authors are reimagining the nation following the Feriado Bancario Starting from a rereading of Ecuador's national novel Jorge Icaza's Huasipungo 1930 which saw the nation as rooted in the land the book examines post crisis fiction which offers an image of Ecuador as a transnational space It posits that these novels Eli cer C rdenas El oscuro final del Porvenir 2000 Leonardo Valencia s Kazbek 2008 Carlos Arcos Memorias de Andr s Chiliquinga 2013 and Gabriela Alem n s Humo 2017 both reflect and explain the new reality of Ecuador as a nation that can no longer be defined by its territory At the same time the book uses the Ecuadorian case to challenge the conceptualisation of Latin American literature as post national and to show how countries on the periphery of the global literary market can from the very fact of their minoritarian position enrich and better define World Literature Ancestral Knowledges and Postcoloniality in Contemporary Ecuador Julia von Sigsfeld, 2022-11-04 In light of an unprecedented constitutional acknowledgement of diverse epistemologies and stipulation making the protection and advancement of so called ancestral knowledges a duty of the state this research provides an analysis of the uptake of historically subalternised knowledges by the state during the government of Rafael Correa 2007-2017 as well as of the strive for epistemic justice by peoples and nationalities organisations in the context of struggles for social change decolonisation and self determination On the basis of rich empirical material the analysis traces state discourses and practices and mechanisms to govern ancestral knowledges in the framework of the government's Knowledge Society project and delineates how leaders of peoples and nationalities organisations struggle for the decolonisation of knowledge This monograph will be of interest to those concerned with relations between peoples and nationalities and Latin American states politics of recognition and collective rights the workings of purportedly post neoliberal governments and the possibilities and limits for alternatives to development the struggle of peoples and nationalities organisations for epistemic decolonisation as well as ongoing re conceptualisations of cosmopolitanisms against restructurations of the coloniality of knowledge and being
