Contemporary Images Of Christian Ministry:

Contemporary Images of Christian Ministry Donald E. Messer, 1989 Explains five contemporary images of ministry as a first step toward developing a personal vision wounded healer servant leader political mystic practical theologian enslaved liberator Ministry Between Miracles Thomson K. Mathew, 2002-12 Multi-Congregational Ministry Malcolm Grundy, 2015-06-30 Local church life is changing radically and patterns of clergy training and deployment with it Multi congregational groupings are increasingly the norm with fewer stipendiary clergy and greater reliance on self supporting and lay ministry Meanwhile some aspects of priestly ministry are being carried out by specialist practitioners such as missionaries working across a number of parishes All of this raises questions about how we understand prepare for and practice ministry and leadership in the church today As ministry increasingly becomes the responsibility of the local congregation and priesthood more about supervision this key book explores the theology of such a model and how it is beginning to work in practice drawing insights gained from rural ministry which has pioneered advances in multi congregation ministry settings Metaphors of Ministry David W. Bennett, 2004-01-28 Down through the centuries church leaders have studied the Gospels to discover patterns of leadership development that can be applied to their own context Yet the word leader does not appear in the Gospels Could it be that leadership has more to do with learning to follow than learning to command supervise or manage On right attitudes than on mastery of certain skills Many of the insights we need are embedded in the images which Jesus used to describe his followers So David W Bennett introduces his stimulating and scholarly study previously published under the title Biblical Images for Leaders and Followers He examines the many images and metaphors in the Gospels relating to how disciples follow Jesus and in turn influence others Then he moves on to survey much of the evidence to be found in the images of the rest of the New Testament Finally he draws some judicious conclusions for an understanding of Christian leadership in our own day The author has considerable cross cultural experience having taught church leaders in Japan India the Philippines Papua New Guinea Malaysia India Nepal Tanzania and Kenya in addition to pastoring churches in California Oregon and Massachusetts He has also traveled and done research among church leaders in Malawi South Africa Brazil Argentina Cambodia Vietnam China Korea Thailand Russia and the Czech Republic His aim is to stimulate thought on these questions in churches all over the world not just in the west Spirit-Led Ministry in the 21st Century Thomson K. Mathew, 2004-04 This book is a comprehensive guide to competent Spirit led ministry in the 21st century Written from a Pentecostal Charismatic perspective it focuses on four important aspects of effective ministry preaching teaching healing and leading Beginning with biblical definitions of ministry the book describes the challenges presented by the 21st century in light of the long history of Christian ministry and it offers biblically sound advice to address these challenges The role of the Holy Spirit in ministry is examined in detail The bulk of the book is devoted to the theory theology and practice of competent Spirit led ministry This book is a call to excellence in ministry as well as a guide to empowered preaching teaching healing and leading      The “Culture of Silence” Contributes to Perpetuating Domestic Violence Gabriel Amoateng-Boahen,2015-06-20 This is a unique must read book It has a revelation of hidden treasures with bifocal elements of universal need in this generation      Odwira and the Gospel Frank Kwesi Adams,2010

Kissing Fish Roger Wolsey,2011-01-10 Christianity gets plenty of media attention but often for all the wrong reasons If you ve ever felt disillusioned by the loudest most rigid voices in modern Christianity Kissing Fish Christianity for People Who Don t Like Christianity offers a refreshing alternative Roger Wolsey presents an accessible and engaging introduction to progressive Christianity a growing movement that reclaims the radical love inclusivity and transformative message at the heart of the Gospel Part postmodern systematic theology and part personal spiritual journey this book speaks directly to those who have left the church never felt welcome in it or are simply searching for a faith that makes sense in today s world Wolsey weaves together personal stories and deep theological reflection offering a candid and hopeful invitation to rediscover Christianity beyond dogma and exclusion His voice brings together the thoughtfulness of Brian McLaren and Diana Butler Bass the pastoral warmth and openness of Rob Bell and the prophetic call to social justice found in the work of Jim Wallis and Shane Claiborne Like Walter Wink Wolsey explores the powers and principalities with clarity and courage and like Wes Howard Brook he calls readers to return to the radical roots of the Christian tradition There s also an authenticity and down to earth narrative style reminiscent of Donald Miller Kissing Fish challenges harmful stereotypes while presenting a faith that is intellectually honest emotionally satisfying and spiritually fulfilling Whether you re spiritual but not religious a progressive believer or someone standing at the edges of faith this book offers a way forward If you like Jesus but struggle with Christianity Kissing Fish invites you to explore a path that embraces mystery fosters compassion and empowers you to love boldly and live authentically in today s complex world      Church Conflict Norma Cook Everist,2004 You love your work You love the people most of the time They respect you most of the time You work together with colleagues staff and laity with energy and enthusiasm most of the time But then something goes wrong a word spoken in anger a misunderstanding and things turn sour What do you do How do you deal with conflict whether it be long or short term low or high intensity Conflict is a part of the human predicament yet it need not define or control your ministry This book is designed to help the reader ask certain key questions about the nature and scope of the conflict they are experiencing and based on the answers to those questions move beyond conflict The author lays out the variety of responses to conflict running the gamut from avoidance to accommodation to compromise to collaboration Written with the real needs of congregations in mind this book will serve as a reliable guide to all who wish to move through conflict into a more effective and authentic fulfillment of their calling

Recalling Our Own Stories Edward P. Wimberly,2019-02-01 How religious caregivers can find spiritual renewal in their own story Recalling Our Own Stories which author Edward P Wimberly describes as a spiritual retreat in book form is designed to help clergy and religious caregivers face the challenges of ministry It is also a valuable resource for practitioners who assist these clergy and caregivers in meeting the challenges of their work Wimberly enables caregivers to map out and come to grips with cultural expectations of their profession He also helps readers explore and edit the mythologies that make up their self image attitudes toward others expectations about their performance and role and convictions about ministry Finally he provides a model for spiritual and emotional review grounded in narrative psychology and spiritual approaches As Wimberly explains this book offers a way to renew our motivation for ministry by reconnecting to our original call visualizing again how God has acted and remains intricately involved in our lives Wimberly demonstrates how religious caregivers often facing burnout can tap the sources of renewal that reside in the faith community      Courageous Hope Leonard Doohan,2011

Outlines a spirituality of leadership that challenges leaders to present a vision of hope to excite and empower others to be prophets mystics charismatics and healers to transform society and to effectively respond to the world that is desperate for leaders of hope      God's Ambassadors E. Brooks Holifield,2007-09-25 In God's Ambassadors E Brooks Holifield masterfully traces the history of America's Christian clergy from the seventeenth to the twenty first century analyzing the changes in practice and authority that have transformed the clerical profession Challenging one sided depictions of decline in clerical authority Holifield locates the complex story of the clergy within the context not only of changing theologies but also of transitions in American culture and society The result is a thorough social history of the profession that also takes seriously the theological presuppositions that have informed clerical activity With alternating chapters on Protestant and Catholic clergy the book permits sustained comparisons between the two dominant Christian traditions in American history At the same time God's Ambassadors depicts a vocation that has remained deeply ambivalent regarding the professional status marking the other traditional learned callings in the American workplace Changing expectations about clerical education as well as enduring theological questions have engendered a debate about the professional ideal that has distinguished the clerical vocation from such fields as law and medicine The American clergy from the past four centuries constitute a colorful diverse cast of characters who have in ways both obvious and obscure helped to shape the tone of American culture For a well rounded narrative of their story told by a master historian God's Ambassadors is the book to read      Global Dictionary of Theology William A. Dyrness,Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen,2009-10-25 Theological dictionaries are foundational to any theological library But until now there has been no Global Dictionary of Theology a theological dictionary that presumes the contribution of the Western tradition but moves beyond it to embrace and explore a full range of global expressions of theology The Global Dictionary of Theology is inspired by the shift of the center of Christianity from the West to the Global South But it also reflects the increase in two way traffic between these two sectors as well as the global awareness that has permeated popular culture to an unprecedented degree The editorial perspective of the Global Dictionary of Theology is an ecumenical evangelicalism that is receptive to discovering new facets of truth through listening and conversation on a global scale Thus a distinctive feature of the Global Dictionary of Theology is its conversational approach Contributors have been called on to write in the spirit of engaging in a larger theological conversation in which alternative views are expected and invited William A Dyrness Veli Matti K rkk inen Juan F Martinez and Simon Chan edit approximately 250 articles written by over 100 contributors representing the global spectrum of theological perspectives Pastors theological teachers theological students and lay Christian leaders will all find the Global Dictionary of Theology to be a resource that unfolds new dimensions and reveals new panoramas of theological perspective and inquiry Here is a new launching point for doing theology in today s global context Paul's Message and Ministry in Covenant Perspective Scott J. Hafemann,2015-01-22 The essays presented here represent over twenty five years of thinking about the theology and life of the Apostle Paul who as a slave of Jesus Christ Rom 1 1 was a servant of the new covenant with a ministry of the Spirit 2 Cor 3 6 8 Taking the questions raised by the history of scholarship since F C Baur as their starting point Hafemann s exegetical studies focus on how Paul s self understanding shaped his message the motivations of his ministry and his consequent call to suffer for the sake of his churches Hafemann s work reveals that Paul s views of redemption of his own redemptive mission and of the life of the redeemed derived from his eschatological conviction that the purpose of the new covenant realities inaugurated by the Christ is to prepare for their promised consummation when Christ returns to judge the world Pastoral Care in a Market

Economy S. St. John Redwood,1999 This volume examines pastoral care in a market economy from a Caribbean perspective

Clown of the City Stephan de Beer,2020-11-25 At opening this book everything one has learned or thought about urban ministry is challenged and changed Stephan de Beer offers a fresh exciting and thoroughly engaging approach The title is enticing and playful but the book is a serious grappling with the daunting realities of a shadowed marginalised urban life It does not theorise or pontificate about a concept The author is not a distant neutral observer He is an engaged minister to the people a struggler in their struggles prophet to the powerful This book invites the reader to join the people of the cities under siege by failed policies empty promises and disastrous politics in their struggles for meaningful life and it makes a powerful persuasive case Stephan de Beer has offered us a great gift and a wonderful opportunity to think and hope anew and differently about the life reality and future of the city By What Authority Do We Teach? Robert W. Pazmiño,2002-04-29 To reject power and its legitimate use is ultimately to reject God s gift and intention for Christians as we live in the world writes Robert W Pazmino He defines what authority is and how it is perceived by and operates in various Christian communities He applies these factors and the need for confident authoritative teachers specifically to the ministry of Christian education By What Authority Do We Teach completes a trilogy covering key elements of evangelical education Also in print are Foundational Issues in Christian Education an agenda of theological sociological psychological curricular and other concerns and Principles and Practices of Christian Education which integrates conversion and connection into the teaching task

Feasting on the Word: Year A, Volume 4: Preaching the Revised Common Lectionary David L. Bartlett,Barbara Brown Taylor,2011-01-01 This 12 volume series covers all of the Sundays in the three year lectionary cycle along with moveable occasions For each lectionary text preachers will find brief essays one each on the exegetical theological pastoral and homiletical challenges of the text Each volume also contains an index of biblical passages so that nonlectionary preachers may make use of it

The Church Transforming Michael Jinkins, 2012-01-01 Theologian and author Michael Jinkins probes the present state and future of the Reformed faith

Doing Ministry in the Igbo Context Cajetan E. Ebuziem, 2011 Doing Ministry in the Igbo Context Towards an Emerging Model and Method for the Church in Africa arises out of reflection on experience and practice The volume reflects on the author's own cultural context religious heritage and pastoral functioning In addition it considers the author's personal experiences in relation to the common experiences of others within the author's cultural and religious traditions and places these experiences and the voices they represent into mutually critical correlation Thus commonalities and dissonances in them emerge leading to insights where to go from there in providing ministry to the People of God in the local church context and still within the framework of one universal church This book presents a contextual model of local theology that begins its reflection with the Igbo cultural context The Igbo or Nigerian or African Church can have a pattern of ministry with a model and a method that are consistent with the people's values To accomplish this goal a local cultural value must be explored and brought into the scene Since the Igbo society is the heart of Christianity and Catholicism in Africa the author relies on Igboland as his situational context The exploration of the indigenous Igbo value of collaboration will be an advantage in ministering to the rest of the African people who have cultural resemblances to Igbos The African Church has to learn from the Igbo values of umunna bu ike Umunna is the basic Igbo unit and possibly the most powerful missionary force in Igboland and potentially an Igbo gift to the Church in Nigeria and Africa and even beyond Back cover
