Literacy, Culture and Development Daniel A. Wagner, 1993 Literacy is thought to be one of the primary cultural transmitters of information and beliefs within any society where it exists Yet when considered as a social phenomenon literacy is remarkably difficult to define because its functions meanings and methods of learning vary from one cultural group to the next This book compares and contrasts our understanding of literacy and its acquisition and retention It addresses major debates in education policy today such as the importance of mother tongue literacy programs the notion of literacy relapse and the concept of educational poverty The author focuses on Moroccan children whose parents are unschooled whose language is often different from that used in the classroom and whose first instruction often involves rote religious teaching Philosophies of Islamic Education Mujadad Zaman, Nadeem A. Memon, 2016-03-31 The study of Islamic education has hitherto remained a tangential inquiry in the broader focus of Islamic Studies In the wake of this neglect a renaissance of sorts has occurred in recent years reconfiguring the importance of Islam's attitudes to knowledge learning and education as paramount in the study and appreciation of Islamic civilization Philosophies of Islamic Education stands in tandem to this call and takes a pioneering step in establishing the importance of its study for the educationalist academic and student alike Broken into four sections it deals with theological pedagogic institutional and contemporary issues reflecting the diverse and often competing notions and practices of Islamic education As a unique international collaboration bringing into conversation theologians historians philosophers teachers and sociologists of education Philosophies of Islamic Education intends to provide fresh means for conversing with contemporary debates in ethics secularization theory child psychology multiculturalism interfaith dialogue and moral education In doing so it hopes to offer an important and timely contribution to educational studies as well as give new insight for academia in terms of conceiving learning and education dynamics as opposed to an alleged incompatibility between religious tradition and modernity The emphasis on pathways indicates that critical engagement and contestation have always been intrinsic to the history of Islam The aim of the book is to elaborate the contemporary pathways and analyse the trends that contest the Islamic intellectual tradition the relationship between religion and politics and the individual and collective practice of religion The collection of essays analyses the current efforts of critical re engagement with the Islamic intellectual tradition and underlines the historical diversity of Islamic orthodoxies that led to the establishment of various pathways in the practice and role of religion in Muslim societies

Literacy Development in A Multilingual Context Aydin Y. Durgunoglu, Ludo Verhoeven, 2013-12-16 During the past decades literacy has gradually become a major concern all over the world Though there is a great diversity in both the distribution and degree of literacy in different countries there has been an increasing awareness of the number of illiterates and the consequences of being illiterate However literacy is no longer seen as a universal trait When one focuses on culturally sensitive accounts of reading and writing practices the concept of literacy as a single trait does not seem very feasible A multiplicity of literacy practices can be distinguished which are related to specific cultural contexts and associated with relations of power and ideology As such literacy can be seen as a lifelong context bound set of practices in which an individual's needs vary with time and place This volume explores the use of literacy outside the mainstream in different contexts throughout the world It is divided into four sections Section 1 presents an anthropological perspective analyzing the society and the individual in a society Section 2 presents a psychological perspective focusing on the individuals themselves and analyzing the cognitive and affective development of young children as they acquire literacy in their first and second languages Section 3 presents an educational perspective highlighting the variations in educational approaches in different societies as well as the outcomes of these approaches Section 4 summarizes the studies presented in this volume Both theoretical issues and educational implications related to the development of literacy in two languages are discussed An attempt is also made to open up new directions in the study of literacy development in multilingual contexts by bringing these various disciplinary perspectives together

Fixing Governance from Below Masooda Bano, Professor of Development Studies Masooda Bano, 2025-11-03 In this book Masooda Bano critically examines the repeated failures of decentralizing education systems and promoting community participation as solutions to learning crises Drawing on compelling research from Pakistan India Nigeria and Indonesia the book reveals how international aid programs designed based on what works in Western contexts routinely misjudge local realities At the same time national governments implement costly donor approved reforms to gain international credibility while real on the ground issues remain unaddressed With sharp insights and thought provoking analysis this book calls for a fundamental shift in how we approach educational reform one that respects local contexts prioritizes genuine accountability and moves beyond one size fits all solutions

presents the views of leading scholars academics and educators on the renewal of Islamic schools in the Western context The book argues that as Islamic schools in Western contexts have negotiated the establishment phase they must next embrace a period of renewal Renewal relates to a purposeful synthesis of the tradition with contemporary educational practice and greater emphasis on empirical research substantiating best practices in Islamic schools This renewal must reflect teaching and learning practices consistent with an Islamic worldview and pedagogy It should also inform among other aspects classroom management models and relevant and contextual Islamic and Arabic studies This book acquaints the reader with contemporary challenges and opportunities in Islamic schools in the Western context with a focus on Australia

Islamic Education in Africa Robert Launay,2016-10-03 Writing boards and blackboards are emblematic of two radically different styles of education in Islam The essays in this lively volume address various aspects of the expanding and evolving range of educational choices available to Muslims in sub Saharan Africa Contributors from the United States Europe and Africa evaluate classical Islamic education in Africa from colonial times to the present including changes in pedagogical methods from sitting to standing from individual to collective learning from recitation to analysis Also discussed are the differences between British French Belgian and Portuguese education in Africa and between mission schools and Qur'anic schools changes to the classical Islamic curriculum the changing intent of Islamic education the modernization of pedagogical styles and tools hybrid forms of religious and secular education the inclusion of women in Qur'anic schools and the changing notion of what it means to be an educated person in Africa A new view of the role of Islamic education especially its politics and controversies in today's age of terrorism emerges from this broadly comparative volume

Wellbeing in Islamic Schools Mohamad Abdalla,Nadeem Memon,Dylan Chown,2025-02-26 Islamic schools are growing exponentially in the West to meet the demands of Muslim learners and their parents Today there are hundreds of Islamic schools that are constantly expanding A key focus of the philosophy of Islamic schools and education is the nurturing of the mind body and soul Yet to date there is no book that addresses the issue of well being in Islamic schools This book provides a comprehensive approach to well being and highlights both academic and practitioners findings thoughts and experiences as well as school classroom based examples related to well being in Islamic schooling

Decolonising Education in Islamic West Africa Anneke Newman,2024-12-24 This book uses perceptions and experiences of Qur'anic schools in West Africa to outline a much needed postsecular approach reconsidering the place of Islamic education within African decolonial debates about educational pluralism and the contributions of religious perspectives in academic and international development spaces Decolonial theory is used to overcome the challenges of problematic Eurocentric and colonialist stereotypes about religious actors and faith based schools which persist within international education scholarship and global policy agendas Through fine grained ethnography chapters discuss how parents and young people today engage with classical Qur'anic schools Islamic schools and French medium secular education in Senegal thereby exposing inequalities around gender descent based or caste identities and socioeconomic status as well as their influence on young people's pursuit of knowledge. These findings are valuable for scholars exploring the development education religion nexus and promoting Education for All in communities characterised by other than secular worldviews. The book will be of interest to academics, researchers and postgraduate students working in the sociology of education, international education, anthropology and religious education. Practitioners involved in postcolonial and decolonial debates will also benefit from recommendations regarding educational reform in plural educational contexts.
