Contemporary Societies Problems And Prospects:

Contemporary Societies Daniel J. Curran, Claire M. Renzetti, 1994 In editing this book one of our primary concerns was to assist students in developing a structural analysis of the serious social problems they repeatedly hear about on television in political campaigns and in newspapers and more importantly that some may experience in their everyday lives We wanted to help them see the personal as political so that they could critically evaluate the structural causes of these problems and in turn begin to conceive of structural or collective actions to solve them Consequently readers will find in the chapter introductions in this book and in the readings themselves a strong critical or conflict orientation with an emphasis on the roles of particular social institutions and normative policies and procedures in the generation and perpetuation of social problems In addition a major theme of the text is the global reach of social problems

Problems and Prospects of Sustaining Democracy in Nigeria Bamidele A. Ojo, 2001 The past few years have been very traumatic ones for many Nigerians With the exception of those in power or close to the seat of power the changes of 1998 were a welcome relief given the tyranny and repression that the country had suffered under General Abacha With many people in prison and more in exile the death of Abacha was received with a sigh of relief Many observers have seen the resilience that has come to signify the strength and potential of this once giant of Africa as well as the destruction and the socio political and economic decay of the past decades The Nigerian people have endured the exploitation of their rights due to the lack of democratic leadership and with this in mind they have been called to attention to fight for their country

Invisible Crisis of Contemporary Society Bernard S Phillips, Louis C. Johnston, 2015-12-03 Is there a growing gap in today's world between cultural aspirations and their fulfillment a gap that is increasing social problems of all kinds If so what forces are producing that gap How can these forces be changed To answer these questions Phillips and Johnston employ a very broad approach to the scientific method drawing evidence from a wide variety of data and sources including sociologists psychologists political scientists historians philosophers educators psychiatrists and novelists They find substantial evidence for a widening gap suggesting an invisible crisis throughout contemporary society They also find substantial evidence that a simplistic and static metaphysical stance or worldview is largely responsible for that gap and that an alternative worldview can work to close that gap Young, Muslim and Criminal Mohammed Qasim, 2018-01-24 In recent years there has been significant negative attention towards young British male Muslims who are perceived to be increasingly dangerous and criminal However few studies have attempted to understand their lived experiences After spending four years with a group of young British Pakistani Muslim men who were accused of criminal acts Qasim gained unique first hand insight into their multifaceted lives In this book he unwraps their lives taking into account their socioeconomic situation the make up of their community and the cultural and religious influences which impacted on them and their involvement in crime He explores their identities and explains what role if any religion and Pakistani culture play in their criminal behavior With a focus on the apparent link with gun crime and drug dealing this important book exposes the complex nature of the young men s pathways into crime Combat Sports in Contemporary Society: An Interdisciplinary Exploration Lazar Toskić, Leonardo Jose Mataruna-Dos-Santos, Alex Ojeda-Aravena, Leonardo Vidal Andreato, Jimmy Youn, 2025-02-24 Combat sports spanning a diverse array of disciplines from boxing to mixed martial arts have deep historical roots tracing back to ancient civilizations Beyond the physical confrontations emblematic of these sports they are intricately woven into the socio cultural psychological and technological tapestry of our times With the burgeoning advancements in sports science and technology coupled with a heightened focus on mental well being and societal implications there emerges a compelling need to delve into combat sports from an interdisciplinary lens Frontiers in Sports and Active Living presents a special issue dedicated to combat sports aiming to bridge the realms of physiological psychological sociological and technological studies New Pedagogical Challenges in the 21st Century Olga Bernad-Cavero, Núria Llevot-Calvet, 2018-07-04 The societies of the twenty first century are subject to social cultural political and economic changes In this context the school is asked to educate the future citizens in the present To respond to this kaleidoscopic reality the school is immersed in a pedagogical revolution In this book the reader will find a selection of avant garde research works from different disciplines and contexts which have their epicenter in the school and in the faculties of education New issues in pedagogy and education and new roles of teachers and students are discussed in a global and diverse context And new methodological and formative proposals are also proposed to build the ideal school and the ideal teacher from the initial and continuous teacher training Nonrational Logic in Contemporary Society Jim Kline, 2023-04-14 Nonrational Logic in Contemporary Society explores modern examples of beliefs that defy logic but nevertheless are enthusiastically embraced by legions of contemporary people living in technologically advanced societies The appeal of nonrational logic is based upon C G Jung s ideas regarding archetypes considered to be unconscious thought and behavioural patterns universal to all of humanity and expressed in dreams art religion and reports of supernatural and paranormal experiences such as the belief in UFOs conspiracy theories associated with child sacrifice and devil worship lizard people who secretly rule the world and internet demons whom many insist are real C G Jung insisted that archetypal reality must be acknowledged for what it is expressions of universal truths about the human condition Nonrational Logic includes a multitude of examples from world folklore and reports of traditional customs from around the world collected in the multivolume anthropological classic The Golden Bough by James Frazer comparing these traditional reports with contemporary ones to underscore the human psyche's obsessive desire to embrace the fantastic the extraordinary and the unbelievable Nonrational Logic in Contemporary Society is important reading for analytical psychologists Jungian psychotherapists and other professionals as well as the general public seeking to understand how prevalent nonrational thinking is in modern societies and how it reflects traditional expressions
