Contemporary Sublime:

The Transcendental Sublime in Contemporary Art Nandita Mukand, 2015-04-21 Essay from the year 2013 in the subject Art Miscellaneous grade A course BA Hons Fine Arts language English abstract In Robert Rosenblum's book Modern Painting and the Northern Romantic Tradition: Friedrich to Rothko Rosenblum traces a continuing tradition in art from the 18th century to the 1960s which centres upon the term sublime. In the past many artists amongst them Caspar David Friedrich, Turner, Wassily Kandinsky, Mark Rothko, Barnett Newman and theorists amongst them Edmund Burke, Immanuel Kant, Jean-François Lyotard have explored the transcendental nature of the sublime in art. Today we live in an age that prides itself on the loss of illusion. Ideas of transcendence in art are often seen as sentimental and viewed with skepticism. The word sublime seems to be stripped down to the shock of the new often centered on horror. This essay explores how the transcendental sublime is situated in contemporary art. The transcendental sublime will here refer to how looking at a work of art can enable one to be transported going beyond the given limits to a place of accessing one's spiritual side. Art that has used shock and terror to achieve a sense of the sublime will be excluded from this discussion. Contemporary Visual Culture and the Sublime Temenuga Trifonova, 2017-09-22 In the course of its long and tumultuous history the sublime has alternated between spatial and temporal definitions from its conceptualization in terms of the grandeur and infinity of Nature spatial to its postmodern redefinition as an event temporal from its conceptualization in terms of our failure to cognitively map the decentered global network of capital or the rhizomatic structure of the postmetropolis spatial to its neurophenomenological redefinition in terms of the new temporality of presence produced by network real time temporal. This volume explores the place of the sublime in contemporary culture and the aesthetic cultural and political values coded in it. It offers a map of the contemporary sublime in terms of the limits cinematic cognitive neurophysiological technological or environmental of representation. The Sublime Simon Morley, 2010 Sumario The unrepresentable Transcendence Nature Technology Terror The uncanny Altered states Aesthetics and contemporary discourse Herbert Grabes, 1994 The Contemporary Sublime Aubrey Robinson, 2011 Contemporary Review, 1878 The Contemporary Sublime Paul Crowther, 1995 Beauty and the Contemporary Sublime Jeremy Gilbert-Rolfe, 1999-12 This book offers an unpredictable humorous and politically unconstrained perspective on today's heated debates about the meaning and role of beauty in art and contemporary society. The Contemporary Review, 1893 Discourses of Space Judit Pieldner, 2014-07-18 Ever since the emergence of the spatial turn in several scientific discourses special attention has been paid to the surrounding space conceived as a construct created by the dynamics of human activity. The notion of space assists us in describing the most varied spheres of human existence. We can speak of various physical metaphysical social and cultural and communicative spaces as structuring components providing access to various literary linguistic social and cultural phenomena thus promoting the initiation of a cross disciplinary dialogue. The essays selected in this volume cover a wide range of topics related to space intercultural and interethnic spaces linguistic textual space formation the narratology of space spatial temporal relationships space construction in literature and film space in contemporary art inter art relations and intermediality spaces of cultural memory nature and culture cultural geography cross cultural connections between the East and the West Central and Eastern European geocultural paradigms the relationship between geographical space and cyberspace and relational spaces The approaches used in this volume range across various discursive practices related to space outlining the shifts and displacements concerning existence and identity in the continuously changing restructuring always transitory in between spaces

The Photographer's Mind Michael Freeman, 2012-11-12 The source of any photograph is not the camera or even the scene viewed through the viewfinder it is the mind of the photographer this is where an image is created before it is committed to a memory card or film In The Photographer's Mind the follow up to the international best seller The Photographer's Eye photographer and author Michael Freeman unravels the mystery behind the creation of a photograph The nature of photography demands that the viewer constantly be intrigued and surprised by new imagery and different interpretations more so than in any other art form The aim of this book is to answer what makes a photograph great and to explore the ways that top photographers achieve this goal time and time again As you delve deeper into this subject The Photographer's Mind will provide you with invaluable knowledge on avoiding cliché the cyclical nature of fashion style and mannerism light and even how to handle the unexpected Michael Freeman is the author of the global bestseller The Photographer's Eye Now published in sixteen languages The Photographer's Eye continues to speak to photographers everywhere Reaching 100 000 copies in print in the US alone and 300 000 worldwide it shows how anyone can develop the ability to see and shoot great digital photographs

Interrogating Trauma Mick Broderick, Antonio Traverso, 2013-09-27 Throughout the past century traumatic experiences have been re enacted frequently by evolving media and art forms Now there is a significant body of theory across academic disciplines focused on the representation of cataclysmic European and US historical events However less critical attention has been devoted to the representation of havoc outside the West even though depictions of Third World disasters saturate contemporary media and art around the globe This book considers traumatic histories internationally in a broad range of creative arts and visual media representations Deploying diverse applications of the conventional theories of trauma it examines the theoretical limitations at the same time as considering alternative methodologies Interrogating Trauma is concerned with the examination of the concept of trauma and how it is often unproblematically used to theorise the cultural representation of disaster and atrocity It offers a theorisation of trauma in order to reappraise the relationship between cultural representation and the socio historical processes which are marked by violence conflict and suffering This book was published as a special issue of Continuum Journal of Media and Cultural Studies

The Dusk of Design Jose Antonio Lara-Hernandez, Alessandro Melis, Paola Boarin, Priscila Besen, 2025-01-13 The Dusk of Design explores the intersection of evolutionary theories and architectural design Drawing inspiration from the concept of exaptation in biology the book argues that natural selection as the most successful designer on our planet thrives on the diversity variability and redundancy of creative structures By transferring these mechanisms to architectural design the book contends that we can cultivate more resilient and sustainable architecture and cities in the face of environmental crises This book seeks to illuminate the profound potential of multidisciplinary by examining case studies from architecture worldwide By exploring how evolutionary theories can explain various architectural phenomena it aims to inspire architects designers researchers and students to adopt a holistic and transdisciplinary approach to their work The book provides a clear and concise overview of evolutionary principles demonstrating their relevance to architecture It will showcase a range of case studies that highlight the application of evolutionary theories in solving architectural challenges such as adaptive reuse sustainable urban planning and resilient design in the face of climate change Ultimately The Dusk of Design aims to bridge the gap between biology and architecture presenting a fresh perspective on how we can create more innovative sustainable and resilient built environments

Caspar David Friedrich: The Soul of Nature Alison Hokanson ,Joanna Sheers Seidenstein ,2025-02-03 Caspar David Friedrich 1774-1840 reimagined European landscape painting by portraying nature as a setting for profound spiritual and emotional encounters Working in the vanguard of the German Romantic movement which championed a radical new understanding of the bond between nature and the inner self Friedrich developed pictorial subjects and strategies that emphasize the individuality intimacy open endedness and complexity of our responses to the natural world The vision of the landscape that unfolds in his art meditative mysterious and full of wonder is still vital today Presented in honor of the 250th anniversary of Friedrich's birth in 2024 Caspar David Friedrich The Soul of Nature is the first comprehensive exhibition dedicated to the artist held in the United States Organized in cooperation with the Alte Nationalgalerie of the Staatliche Museen zu Berlin Staatliche Kunstsammlungen Dresden and Hamburger Kunsthalle with unprecedented loans from more than 30 lenders in Europe and North America the exhibition will present approximately 75 works by Friedrich Oil paintings finished drawings and working sketches from every phase of the artist's career along with select examples by his contemporaries will illuminate how Friedrich developed a symbolic vocabulary of landscape motifs to convey the personal and existential meanings that he discovered in nature The exhibition will situate Friedrich's art within the tumultuous politics and vibrant culture of 19th century German society and by extension highlight the role of German Romanticism in shaping modern perceptions of the natural world

Fashioning the Future in Roman Greece Estelle Strazdins, 2023-01-10

Fashioning the Future in Roman Greece Memory Monuments Texts uses literature inscriptions art and architecture to explore the relationship of elite Greeks of the Roman imperial period to time This wide ranging work challenges conventional thinking about the temporal positioning of imperial Greece and the so called Second Sophistic which holds that it was obsessed above all with the Classical past Instead the volume establishes that imperial Greek temporality was far more complex than scholarship has previously allowed by detailing how contemporary cultural output used the past to position itself within tradition but was crafted to speak to the future At the same time the book emphasizes the value of interdisciplinary analysis in any explication of elite culture in Roman Greece since abundant extant evidence reveals its purveyors were often responsible for the production of both literature and material culture Strazdins shows how these two modes of cultural production in the hands of elites such as Herodes Atticus Arrian Aelius Aristides Lucian Dio Chrysostom Polemon Pausanias and Philostratus exhibit a shared rhetoric oriented towards posterity and informed by a heightened awareness of the fragility of cultural and personal memory over large spans of time The book thus provides a sophisticated analysis of the tensions anxieties and opportunities that attend the fashioning of commemorative strategies against the background of the Second Sophistic and the Roman empire and details the consequences of embroilment with futurity on our understanding of the cultural and political concerns of elite imperial Greeks

Introducing Radical Orthodoxy James K. A. Smith, 2004-12-01 Although God is making a comeback in our society popular culture still takes its orders from the Enlightenment a movement that denied faith a prominent role in society Today many are questioning this elevation of reason over faith How should Christians respond to a secular world that continues to push faith to the margins While there is still no consensus concerning what a postmodern society should look like James K A Smith suggests that the answer is a reaffirmation of the belief that Jesus is Lord over all Smith traces the trends and directions of Radical Orthodoxy proposing that it can provide an old but new theology for a new generation of Christians This book will challenge and encourage pastors and thoughtful laypeople interested in learning more about currents in contemporary theology
