Thinking Outside the Box Abdur Rahim, 2017-01-31 For centuries people attempted to know why religion. What are the roots of religion? Can we function and lead a decent moral meaningful and good life without blindly believing religious dogmas? So many questions are in the human mind. We are the superior species of all species on earth and thus we are free to think, gather new knowledge, innovate and create new things by virtue of our brains capability and power. This natural gift prompts us to ask unending questions and find answers to those questions. But religions block our freethinking and suggest not thinking beyond the holy books but believing them blindly. This is like totalitarianism modus operandi that silences the dissents. This is an important book and the first of its kind that gives a challenging proposition as to how we can live a good moral productive and meaningful life without instilling blind religious faith but to think rationally and lead life with reason, progress, prosperity and happiness, a humanistic life. We just need new principles based on scientific worldview that is science, technology, progress, civilization and humanity growing together. Conventional religions cannot free people but freethinking knowledge and karma can. The most realistic approach is one world, one life, one god, one universal religion, humanity. For All Living Beings, Feminist New Testament Studies K. Wicker, M. Dube, A. Spencer-Miller, 2016-09-27 This volume is an engaging and provocative introduction to Feminist Biblical Studies. The authors draw upon their own social, cultural and religious backgrounds and experiences in reading the New Testament as feminists in the context of globalization. They provide intentional interpretations of biblical texts that cast gender, race, class and power relationships as issues inherent in both the content and context of scripture and its interpretation. The essays call into question feminist social engagement that does not extend beyond academic halls, churches and Christians, suggesting directions for future research and teaching in Feminist Biblical Studies. Toward a Modern Chinese Buddhism Don Alvin Pittman, 2001-01-01 The Venerable Master Taixu 1890-1947 is the most important and controversial Chinese Buddhist reformer of the 20th century. This work focuses on his teachings and provides an interpretation of Taixu's aims and the diverse controversies that surrounded him. Political Theology in Chinese Society Joshua Mauldin, 2024-06-03 This book provides an itinerary for studying political theology in Chinese society including mainland China, Hong Kong and Taiwan. It explores the changing role of religion in Chinese history from the rise of Buddhism alongside Confucianism and Daoism through the arrival of Christianity and Islam to the suppression of religion under communism. Since the reform and opening period beginning in 1978, China has experienced a resurgence of religiosity with powerful societal implications. Governing authorities have sought to regulate religious practice in line with their governing system. Political theology in Chinese society is very much in flux and the chapters in this volume provide an array of windows through which to view the evolving reality. They include historical approaches and descriptive analyses with an interdisciplinary and international range of perspectives by contributors based in and outside China. The book will be of

Cross-Currents of Social Theorizing of Contemporary Taiwan Ananta Kumar Giri, Su-Chen Wu, 2022-08-22 The book presents aspects of cross currents of theorizing of self culture and society in the contemporary Taiwan Social theorizing has been addressed critically reflectively and creatively by the philosophical religious psychological and literary traditions of one of the world's great civilizations Theorizing is a dynamic movement of self culture society and the world as it is related to our actions reflections meditations to understand the world more meaningfully and holistically as well as to transform it But much of social theorizing in the modern world is primarily Euro American and despite the so-called globalization of knowledge this condition of one-sided Euro American valorization of knowledge and neglect of others continues unabated There is very little attention to theorizing about the human condition emerging from other parts of the world such as Taiwan and its global implication This book transforms this condition by mapping the field of theorizing in a wider spectrum of philosophy psychology religions social sciences and humanities in contemporary Taiwan Asia Major , 2000
