The Modern World-System IV Immanuel Wallerstein, 2011-06-10 Centrist liberalism as ideology Constructing the liberal state 1815 1830 The liberal state and class conflict 1830 1875 The citizen in a liberal state Liberalism as social science The argument restated The Modern World-system Immanuel Maurice Wallerstein, 1974 The Modern World System Immanuel Wallerstein s influential multivolume reinterpretation of global history traces the emergence and development of the modern world from the sixteenth century to the twentieth From publisher s description The Oxford Handbook of Gender, War, and the Western World Since 1600 Karen Hagemann, Stefan Dudink, Sonya O. Rose, 2020 To date war history has focused predominantly on the efforts of and impact of war on male participants However this limited focus disregards the complexity of gendered experiences with war and the military The Oxford Handbook of Gender War and the Western World since 1600 investigates how conceptions of gender have contributed to the shaping of military culture examining the varied ideals and practices that have socially differentiated men and women s wartime experiences Covering the major periods in warfare since the seventeenth century The Handbook explores cultural representations of war and the interconnectedness of the military with civil society and its transformations Social Education in Asia David L. Grossman, Joe Tin-Yau Lo, 2007-10-01 This book aims to fill this gap in the scholarship on social education by drawing on the research findings and or experiences from scholars in eight East and Southeast Asian societies In this regard the editors of this book hope that it will be a significant addition to the literature and will shed light on how the social education curricula are constructed and implemented across these societies in response to both internal and external forces At the same time this book is not a comprehensive survey of social education in the region Rather it is a selective set of case studies examining contested and compelling issues in the debates about social education in eight diverse societies in East and Southeast Asia The book will be intellectually stimulating and inspiring not only to the social educators and comparativists who can see more about social science education from non western perspectives but also to curriculum developers policy makers social educators and front line teachers who can enrich their professional experiences through learning from other countries regions The Cambridge History of Science: Volume 6, The Modern Biological and Earth Sciences David C. Lindberg, Peter J. Bowler, Ronald L. areas such as medicine is a major focus of the book as is its coverage of controversial areas such as science and religion and environmentalism

Marketable Values Desmond Fitz-Gibbon, 2018-12-10 The idea that land should be or even could be treated like any other commodity has not always been a given For much of British history land was bought and sold in ways that emphasized its role in complex networks of social obligation and political power and that resisted comparisons with more easily transacted and abstract markets Fast forward to today when house flipping is ubiquitous and references to the fluctuating property market fill the news How did we get here In Marketable Values Desmond Fitz Gibbon seeks to answer that question He tells the story of how Britons imagined organized and debated the buying and selling of land from the mid eighteenth to the early twentieth century In a society organized around the prestige of property the desire to commodify land required making it newly visible through such spectacles as public auctions novel professions like auctioneering and real estate journalism As Fitz Gibbon shows these innovations sparked impassioned debates on where when and how to demarcate the limits of a market society As a result of these collective efforts the real estate business became legible to an increasingly attentive public and a lynchpin of modern economic life Drawing on an eclectic range of sources from personal archives and estate correspondence to building designs auction handbills and newspapers Marketable Values explores the development of the British property market and the seminal role it played in shaping the relationship we have to property around the world today

Modern Spain Pamela Beth Radcliff, 2017-05-08 Modern Spain 1808 to the Present is a comprehensive overview of Spanish history from the Napoleonic era to the present day Places a large emphasis on Spain's place within broader European and global history The chronological political narrative is enriched by separate chapters on long term economic social and cultural developments This presentation of modern Spanish history incorporates the latest thinking on key issues of modernity social movements nationalism democratization and democracy

Britishness Abroad , 2007-01-01 As a global phenomenon Britishness encompassed trade conquest and settlement and the development of imperial cultures within the vast reaches of the British Empire At its zenith peoples around the world joined in shared traditions and common loyalties that were strenuously maintained even those who contested its claims found it difficult to escape its effects With the eclipse of British power and influence the importance of this legacy has attracted increasing attention from researchers seeking to escape the confines of national histories Britishness Abroad explores the cultural economic and political aspects of Britishness in Australia New Zealand New Guinea Canada and South Africa as well as in the United States and within Britain itself Leading scholars consider the movement of people money technology identities beliefs and attitudes around the British world and examine what happened to Britishness as the Empire declined Contributors Stephen Banfield Kate Darian Smith Anne Dickson Waiko Patricia Grimshaw David Goodman Jonathan Hyslop John MacKenzie Gary Magee and Andrew Thompson Adele Perry Bill Schwarz Stuart Ward

The Celts Ian Stewart, 2025-03-04 A new history of the Celts that reveals how this once forgotten people became a pillar of modern national identity in Britain Ireland and France Before the Greeks and Romans the Celts ruled the ancient world They sacked Rome invaded Greece and conquered much of Europe from Ireland to Turkey Celts registered deeply on the classical imagination for a thousand years and were variously described by writers like Caesar and Livy as unruly barbarians fearless warriors and gracious hosts But then in the early Middle Ages they vanished In The Celts Ian Stewart tells the story of their rediscovery during the Renaissance and their transformation over the next few centuries into one of the most popular European ancestral peoples The Celts shows how the idea of this ancient people was recovered by scholars honed by intellectuals politicians and other thinkers of various stripes and adopted by cultural revivalists and activists as they tried to build European nations and nationalisms during the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Long forgotten the Celts improbably came to be seen as the ancestors of most western Europeans and as a pillar of modern national identity in Britain Ireland and France Based on new research conducted across Europe and in the United States The Celts reveals when and how we came to call much of Europe Celtic why this idea mattered in the past and why it still matters today as the tide of nationalism is once again on the rise Research in Education ,1970 The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1979 Histories of Technology, the Environment and Modern Britain Jon Agar, Jacob Ward, 2018-04-09 Histories of Technology the Environment and Modern Britain brings together historians with a wide range of interests to take a uniquely wide lens view of how technology and the environment have been intimately and irreversibly entangled in Britain over the last 300 years It combines for the first time two perspectives with much to say about Britain since the industrial revolution the history of technology and environmental history Technologies are modified environments just as nature is to varying extents engineered Furthermore technologies and our living and non living environment are both predominant material forms of organisation and self organisation that surround and make us Both have changed over time in intersecting ways Technologies discussed in the collection include bulldozers submarine cables automobiles flood barriers medical devices museum displays and biotechnologies Environments investigated include bogs cities farms places of natural beauty and pollution land and sea The book explores this diversity but also offers an integrated framework for understanding these intersections Japan 1868-1945 Takao Matsumura, John Benson, 2014-09-25 The history of Imperial Japan from the Meiji Restoration through to defeat and occupation at the end of the Second World War is central to any understanding of the way in which modern Japan has developed and will continue to develop in the future This wide ranging accessible and up to date interpretation of Japanese history between 1868 and 1945 provides both a narrative and analysis Describing the major changes that took place in Japanese political economic and social life during this period it challenges widely held views about the uniqueness of Japanese history and the homogeneity of Japanese society The Interwar World Andrew Denning, Heidi J.S.

Tworek, 2023-08-29 The Interwar World collects an international group of over 50 contributors to discuss analyze and interpret this crucial period in twentieth century history A comprehensive understanding of the interwar era has been limited by Euro American approaches and strict adherence to the temporal limits of the world wars The volume s contributors challenge the era s accepted temporal and geographic framings by privileging global processes and interactions Each contribution takes a global thematic approach integrating world regions into a shared narrative Three central questions frame the chapters First when was the interwar Viewed globally the years 1918 and 1939 are arbitrary limits and the volume explicitly engages with the artificiality of the temporal framework while closely examining the specific dynamics of the 1920s and 1930s Second where was the interwar Contributors use global history methodologies and training in varied world regions to decenter Euro American frameworks engaging directly with the usefulness of the interwar as both an era and an analytical category Third how global was the interwar Authors trace accelerating connections in areas such as public health and mass culture counterbalanced by processes of economic protectionism exclusive nationalism and limits to migration By approaching the era thematically the volume disaggregates and interrogates the meaning of the global in this era As a comprehensive guide this volume offers overviews of key themes of the interwar period for undergraduates while offering up to date historiographical insights for postgraduates and scholars interested in this pivotal period in global history The

Care of Brute Beasts Louise Hill Curth, 2010 This book is about medical beliefs and practices for animals in early modern England Although there are numerous texts on human health this is the first to focus exclusively on animals during this period For most academics the foundation of the London Veterinary College in 1791 marks the beginning of modern veterinary medicine with the period before unworthy of serious study In fact there is ample evidence of how the importance of animals resulted in a highly complex system of both preventative and remedial care This book is divided into sections which start by setting the scene with an overview of animals in early modern England and the contemporary principles behind health and illness It moves onto an examination of the medical marketplace and printed literature on animal health care followed by an in depth look at preventative and remedial methods It ends by addressing the question of what impact if any new colleges had on veterinary beliefs and practices Alvar Aalto and Urban Design Robert Cody, Angela
