Contemporary Writer A Practical Rhetoric:

The Contemporary Writer W. Ross Winterowd, 1981-01-01      The Contemporary Writer W. Ross Winterowd, John S. Nixon, 1989-09-01      Techne, from Neoclassicism to Postmodernism Kelly Pender, 2011-05-21 Techne from Neoclassicism to Postmodernism offers a deconstructive reading of the debates that have surrounded the term techne in rhetoric and composition explaining how we can affirm its value as a theory and pedagogy of writing without denying the legitimacy of the postmodern critiques that have been leveled against it      Invention in Rhetoric and Composition Janice M. Lauer, 2004 Invention in Rhetoric and Composition examines issues that have surrounded historical and contemporary theories and pedagogies of rhetorical invention citing a wide array of positions on these issues in both primary rhetorical texts and secondary interpretations It presents theoretical disagreements over the nature purpose and epistemology of invention and pedagogical debates over such issues as the relative importance of art talent imitation and practice in teaching discourse After a discussion of treatments of invention from the Sophists to the nineteenth century Invention in Rhetoric and Composition introduces a range of early twentieth century multidisciplinary theories and calls for invention's awakening in the field of English studies It then showcases inventional theories and pedagogies that have emerged in the field of Rhetoric and Composition over the last four decades including the ensuing research critiques and implementations of this inventional work As a reference guide the text offers a glossary of terms an annotated bibliography of selected texts and an extensive bibliography Janice M Lauer is Professor of English Emerita at Purdue University where she was the Reece McGee Distinguished Professor of English In 1998 she received the College Composition and Communication Conference's Exemplar Award Her publications include Four Worlds of Writing Inquiry and Action in Context Composition Research Empirical Designs and New Perspectives on Rhetorical Invention as well as essays on rhetorical invention disciplinary writing as inquiry composition pedagogy historical rhetoric and empirical research      Rhetoric and Composition Steven Lynn, 2010-09-30 An accessible introduction to teaching and studying rhetoric and composition      1977 Brent Henze, Jack Selzer, 2008-02-20 A product of extensive archival research and numerous interviews 1977 A Cultural Moment In Composition examines the local state and national forces economic political cultural and academic that fostered the development of the first year composition program at one representative site Penn State University in the late 1970s      Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1977      Essays on Classical Rhetoric and Modern Discourse Robert J. Connors, Lisa S. Ede, Andrea A. Lunsford, 1984 Eighteen essays by leading scholars in English speech communication education and philosophy explore the vitality of the classical rhetorical tradition and its influence on both contemporary discourse studies and the teaching of writing Some of the essays investigate the rhetorical and historical issues Others show the bearing of classical rhetoric on contemporary problems in composition thus blending theory and practice Common to the varied approaches and viewpoints expressed in this volume is one central theme the 20th century revival of rhetoric entails a recovery of the classical tradition with its marriage of a rich and fully articulated theory with an equally efficacious practice A preface demonstrates the contribution of Edward P J Corbett to the 20th century revival and a last chapter includes a bibliography of his works

Writer's Block Mike Rose, 2009-06-30 Writer's block is more than a mere matter of discomfort and missed deadlines sustained experiences of writer's block may influence academic success and career choices Writers in the business world professional writers and students all have known this most common and least studied problem with the composing process Mike Rose however sees it as a limitable problem that can be precisely analyzed and remedied through instruction and tutorial programs Rose defines writer's block as an inability to begin or continue writing for reasons other than a lack of skill or commitment which is measured by passage of time with limited productive involvement in the writing task He applies insights of cognitive psychology to reveal dimensions of the problem never before examined In his three faceted approach Rose develops and administers a questionnaire to identify writers experiencing both high and low degrees of blocking through stimulated recall he examines the composing processes of these writers and he proposes a cognitive conceptualization of writer's block and of the composing process In drawing up his model Rose delineates many cognitive errors that cause blocking such as inflexible rules or conflicting planning strategies He also discusses the practices and strategies that promote effective composition The reissue of this classic study of writer's block includes a new preface by the author that advocates more mixed methods research in rhetoric and composition details how he conducted his writer's block study and discusses how his approach to a study like this would be different if conducted today

A New Perspective on Cohesion in Expository Paragraphs Robin Bell Markels, 1984 In asserting that cohesion both exists in a superordinate relationship to unity and emphasis and must be considered a part of the surface structure of written language as well as the deep structure this text provides a commentary on the paragraph as the basic unit of written language and an analysis of the structure underlying paragraph information Explanation examples and supporting evidence are offered in the six chapters which are titled 1 Basic Notions 2 The Cohesive Paragraph 3 The Reader and Cohesion 4 Single Term Paragraphs 5 Multiple Chain Paragraphs and 6 Implications and Applications CRH

Motives For Metaphor James E. Seitz, 2010-06-15 Despite urgent calls for reform composition literature and creative writing remain territorial competitive fields This book imagines ways in which the three English camps can reconnect Seitz contends that the study of metaphor can advance curriculum reform precisely because of its unusual institutional position By pronouncing equivalence in the very face of difference metaphor performs an irrational discursive act that takes us to the nexus of textual social and ideological questions that have stirred such contentious debate in recent years over the function of English studies itself As perhaps the most radical yet also quotidian means by which language negotiates difference metaphor can help us to think about the politics of identification and the curricular movements such a politics has inspired

Writing Studies Research in Practice Lee Nickerson, Mary P Sheridan, 2012-09-10 An essential reference for students and scholars exploring the methods and methodologies of writing research What does it mean to research writing today What are the practical and theoretical issues researchers face when approaching writing as they do What are the gains or limitations of applying particular methods and what might researchers be overlooking These questions and more are answered by the writing research field's leading scholars in Writing Studies Research in Practice Methods and Methodologies Editors Nickoson and Sheridan gather twenty chapters from leaders in writing research spanning topics from ethical considerations for researchers quantitative methods and activity analysis to interviewing and communitybased and Internet research While each chapter addresses a different subject the volume as a whole covers the range of methodologies technologies and approaches both old and new that writing researchers use and examines the ways in which contemporary writing research is understood practiced and represented An essential reference for experienced researchers and an invaluable tool to help novices understand research methods and methodologies Writing Studies Research in Practice includes established methods and knowledge while addressing the contemporary issues interests and concerns faced by writing researchers today

Instructor's Manual to Accompany The Contemporary Writer, a Practical Rhetoric W. Ross Winterowd, 1975     The Writing Teacher's Sourcebook, 1981

The Rhetoric of Cicero in its Medieval and Early Renaissance Commentary Tradition Virginia Cox, John Ward, 2018-11-12 This multi authored volume by an authoritative team of international scholars examines the transmission of Ciceronian rhetoric in medieval and early Renaissance Europe concentrating on the fortunes in particular of the two dominant classical rhetorical textbooks of the time Cicero's early De inventione and the contemporary pseudo Ciceronian Rhetorica ad Herennium The volume is unprecedented in range and depth as a presentation of the place of classical rhetoric in medieval culture and will serve to revise views of a period seen until recently as largely indifferent to the values of eloquence The main body of the volume is composed of a series of ground breaking studies of the relationship between Ciceronian rhetoric and a wide range of intellectual traditions and cultural practices including dialectic law conduct theory memory poetics and practical composition teaching preaching ars dictaminis and political oratory Also included are important contextualizing essays on the commentary tradition of the Ciceronian juvenilia on the textual history and manuscript transmission of Cicero's rhetorical works and on the Latin and vernacular traditions of Ciceronian rhetoric in Italy The volume concludes with an annotated appendix of illustrative texts containing extracts from the commentary tradition on Ciceronian rhetoric most of which have not been previously available in print

Resources in Education

, 1990     Policies and Practice in Language Learning and Teaching Sabine Doff, Richard Smith, 2025-10-01 This book brings together studies from Georgia Germany Italy Japan New Zealand Poland South Korea and the UK which explore links between policy and practice in language teaching in the twentieth century The 14 contributions set out to expand the remit of grounded history within the field of History of Language Learning and Teaching HoLLT by focusing on language teaching policies and linking these to practices and to contexts situating policy formulation in particular contexts on the one hand and exploring the relationship between policy and practice on the other In this sense the book shows how the theories policy pronouncements curricula textbooks and overall teaching approaches which tend to feature in most histories of language teaching always emerge from particular researchable contexts and in the other direction are interpreted and responded to in practice again in particular contexts In this way it hopes to contribute a context based perspective that highlights diversity of practices in opposition to received views that language teaching methodology is universal and context free Rethinking

Meditation David L. McMahan, 2023 Mindfulness practices derived from Buddhist sources have become ubiquitous Meditation teachers will sometimes say that this is the same practice that the Buddha taught over 2500 years ago David McMahan shows that the standard articulation of mindfulness is rather a distillation of particular strands of Buddhist thought that have combined with western ideas to create a unique practice tailored to modern life Rethinking Meditation asks how and why these practices coalesced into the version we have today Encyclopedia of Rhetoric and Composition Theresa Enos, 2013-10-08 First Published in 1996 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Statesmanship and Party Government Harvey C. Mansfield, 2024-05-31 In this incisive look at early modern views of party politics Harvey C Mansfield examines the pamphlet war between Edmund Burke and the followers of Henry St John First Viscount Bolingbroke during the mid eighteenth century In response to works by Bolingbroke published posthumously Burke created his most eloquent advocacy of the party system Taking an interdisciplinary approach to the material Mansfield shows that present day parties must be understood in the light of the history of party government The complicated organization and the public actions of modern parties are the result he contends and not the cause of a great change in opinion about parties Mansfield points out that while parties have always existed the party government that we know today is possible only because parties are now considered respectable In Burke s day however they were thought by detractors to be a cancer in a free polity Even many supporters of the parties viewed them as a dangerous instrument only to be used cautiously by statesmen in dire times Burke however was an early champion of the party system in Britain and made his arguments with a clear eyed realism In Statesmanship and Party Government Mansfield provides a skillful evaluation of Burke s writings and sheds light present day party politics through a profound understanding of the historical background of the their inception
