Contemporary Clay Japanese Ceramics For The New Century:

Contemporary Clay Joe Earle, 2005 Essay by Joe Earle Japanese Design Penny Sparke, 2009 The Museum of Modern Art and 5 Continents Editions recently launched this series of books dedicated to industrial and graphic design Each volume offers an overview of a single country's design achievements and illustrates its particular design history and aesthetic by showcasing renowned architects and designers through exemplary works drawn from The Museum of Modern Art's unmatched collection This season they take on Japan Japanese designers special ability to combine aesthetic tradition with contemporary visual culture and material innovation has created a distinctive and exceptionally successful design industry in Japan which has produced such divergent icons of Modern design as Sori Yanagi's Butterfly Stool the Sony Walkman the Honey Pop Armchair by Tokujin Yoshioka and the Toyota Prius This volume traces the development of Japanese design from the country's craft revival in the early twentieth century to the extraordinary objects of high technology that have been a specialty of Japanese designers since the middle of the century Antonelli's lively introduction provides an overview of Japan's design culture while an essay and timeline by Penny Sparke illuminate the masterpieces of Modern Japanese design that are superbly reproduced in this volume's plate section Japan Info, 2005 Artistic Visions and the Promise of Beauty Kathleen M. Higgins, Shakti Maira, Sonia Sikka, 2017-03-06 This volume examines the motives behind rejections of beauty often found within contemporary art practice where much critically acclaimed art is deliberately ugly and alienating It reflects on the nature and value of beauty asking whether beauty still has a future in art and what role it can play in our lives generally The volume discusses the possible end of art what art is and the relation between art and beauty beyond their historically Western horizons to include perspectives from Asia The individual chapters address a number of interrelated issues including art beauty and the sacred beauty as a source of joy and consolation beauty as a bridge between the natural and the human beauty and the human form the role of curatorial practice in defining art order and creativity and the distinction between art and craft The volume offers a valuable addition to cross cultural dialogue and in particular to the sparse literature on art and beauty in comparative context It demonstrates the relevance of the rich tradition of Asian aesthetics and the vibrant practices of contemporary art in Asia to Western discussions about the future of art and the role of beauty Contemporary Japanese Ceramics, 1958 The Art of Japanese Craft Felice Fischer, 2008 From Japan's first forays onto the international stage of world's fairs in the late 19th century to the dynamic creativity of the 1920 and 1930s from the heady post World War II period to the present day Japanese crafts have exhibited a rich diversity of media and techniques One of the first illustrated surveys in English of modern era Japanese crafts including ceramics lacquerware metalcraft and wood this elegant book with 70 color illustrations is an invaluable guide for the collector and scholar Focusing on an important collection of Japanese crafts destined for the Philadelphia Museum of Art the text discusses the artists and ideas that shaped and defined the aesthetic of 20th century Japan noting that this nation which so deeply appreciates and fosters its crafts traditions hails its artists as living national treasures The book also includes artists biographies and reproductions of their signatures and marks Published in association with the Philadelphia Museum of Art Exhibition Schedule Philadelphia Museum of Art December 6 2008 fall 2009 Crafting Beauty in Modern Japan Nicole Coolidge Rousmaniere, 2007 Published to accompany an exhibition at the British Museum this important book presents a selection of the most beautiful and significant art crafts to have been produced in Japan over the last fifty years Making a Home Eric C.
