Contemporary Critical Theory A Selective Bibliography:

Contemporary Critical Theory Donald G. Marshall, 1993 Contemporary Critical Theory is an up to date overview of significant theories and theorists in literary studies The volume contains introductory essays on a range of critical theories from Russian formalism and New Criticism to postcolonial studies and the new historicism and lists nearly two thousand journals and books including translations published in English Many of the entries provide brief annotations Marshall summarizes the work of fifty prominent theorists such as Mikhail Bakhtin Roland Barthes Walter Benjamin Julia Kristeva and Jacques Lacan The bibliography and author summaries are arranged topically but listings are cross referenced to help users locate books that discuss a variety of approaches

Criticism and Literary Theory 1890 to the Present Chris Baldick, 2014-06-11 Presents a coherent and accessible historical account of the major phases of British and American Twentieth century criticism from decadent aestheticism to feminist deconstructionist and post colonial theories Special attention is given to new perspectives on Shakespearean criticism theories of the novel and models of the literary canon The book will help to define and account for the major developments in literary criticism during this century exploring the full diversity of critical work from major critics such as T S Eliot and F R Leavis to minor but fascinating figures and critical schools Unlike most guides to modern literary theory its focus is firmly on developments within the English speaking world

African American Literary Theory Winston Napier, 2000-07 The first volume to expound African American literary theory from the 1920s to present African American Literary Theory A Reader is the first volume to document the central texts and arguments in African American literary theory from the 1920s through the present As the volume progresses chronologically from the rise of a black aesthetic criticism through the Black Arts Movement feminism structuralism and poststructuralism and the rise of queer theory it focuses on the key arguments themes and debates in each period By constantly bringing attention to the larger political and cultural issues at stake in the interpretation of literary texts the critics gathered here have contributed mightily to the prominence and popularity of African American literature in this country and abroad African American Literary Theory provides a unique historical analysis of how these thinkers have shaped literary theory and literature at large and will be an indispensable text for the study of African American intellectual culture Contributors include Sandra Adell Michael Awkward Houston A Baker Jr Hazel V Carby Barbara Christian W E B DuBois Ann duCille Ralph Ellison Henry Louis Gates Jr Addison Gayle Jr Carolyn F Gerald Evelyn Hammonds Phillip Brian Harper Mae Gwendolyn Henderson Stephen E Henderson Karla F C Holloway Langston Hughes Zora Neale Hurston LeRoi Jones Amiri Baraka Joyce A Joyce Alain Locke Wahneema Lubiano Deborah E McDowell Harryette Mullen Larry Neal Charles I Nero Robert F Reid Pharr Marlon B Ross George S Schuyler Barbara Smith Valerie Smith Hortense J Spillers Sherley Anne Williams and Richard Wright

Theory/Theatre: An Introduction Mark Fortier, 2002-01-31 Theory Theatre An Introduction provides a unique and engaging introduction to literary theory as it relates to theatre and performance Mark Fortier lucidly examines current theoretical approaches from semiotics poststructuralism to cultural materialism postcolonial studies and feminist theory Drawing upon examples from Shakespeare and Aphra Behn to Chekhov Artaud Cixous and Churchill the author examines the specific realities of theatre in order to come to a richer understanding of the relations between performance and cultural theory Theatre An Introduction is the only study of its kind and will be invaluable reading for new students and scholars of performance studies

Teaching Literary Research Kathleen A. Johnson, Steven Robert Harris, 2009

Cervantes and His Postmodern Constituencies Anne J. Cruz, Carroll B. Johnson, 2018-10-24 The essays in this collection represent the first effort in Hispanism to address the conflicted status of Cervantes studies by interrogating the possibility of continued critical dialogue in the context of postmodern theories that threaten to divide into oppositional discourses Comprising broad historical overviews as well as close readings of texts and wielding the rhetoric of scientific detachment and of impassioned political commitments the essays at once exemplify and critique multiple critical positions The collection takes a meaningful and timely look at the formation of cervantismo from the early twentieth century to the prevailing debates on postmodernism and the current crisis of literary studies

Critical Confrontations Meili Steele, 1997 To broaden the interpretive scope of critical theory and increase its usefulness this text draws tradition based views of language and anti humanistic theories from their abstract frameworks into the field of cultural studies It examines major thinkers and contemporary writers

Reading Old English Texts Katherine O'Brien O'Keeffe, 1997-08-28 Reading Old English Texts first published in 1997 focuses on the critical methods being used and developed for reading and analysing writings in Old English The collection is timely given the explosion of interest in the theory method and practice of critical reading Each chapter engages with work on Old English texts from a particular methodological stance The authors are all experts in the field but are also concerned to explain their method and its application to a broad undergraduate and graduate readership The chapters include a brief historical background to the approach a definition of the field or method under consideration a discussion of some exemplary criticism with a balance of prose and verse passages an illustration of the ways in which texts are read through this approach and some suggestions for future work

A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 2023-11-15

Comparative Criticism: Volume 16, Revolutions and Censorship E. S. Shaffer, 1994-10-27 This 1994 book addresses literary theory and criticism comparative studies in terms of theme genre movement and influence and interdisciplinary perspectives

The Ecocriticism Reader Cheryll Glotfelty, Harold Fromm, 1996 This book is the first collection of its kind an anthology of classic and cutting edge writings in the rapidly emerging field of literary ecology Exploring the relationship between literature and the physical environment literary ecology is the study of the ways that writing from novels and folktales to U S government reports and corporate advertisements both reflects and influences our interactions with the natural world

theory as well as showing them how to perform literary analysis Designed to be used alongside primary theoretical texts as an introduction to theory or alongside literary texts as a model for performing literary analysis Presents a series of exemplary readings of particular literary texts such as Jane Eyre Heart of Darkness Ulysses To the Lighthouse and Midnight's Children Provides a brief history of the rise of literary theory in the twentieth century in order that students understand the historical contexts for different theories Presents an alphabetically organized series of entries on key figures and publications from Adorno to i ek Features descriptions of the major movements in literary theory from critical theory through to postcolonial theory

Literary Research and British Postmodernism Bridgit McCafferty, Arianne Hartsell-Gundy, 2015-09-02 Literary Research and British Postmodernism is a guide for scholars that aims to connect the complex relationships between print and multimedia technological advancements and the influence of critical theory that converge in postwar British literature This era is unique in that strict boundaries between fiction nonfiction multimedia and print are not useful Postmodern literature is defined by the breaking down of boundaries as a reaction to modernism and requires an innovative multifaceted approach to research In this guide the authors explore these complex relationships and offer strategies for researching this new period of literature This book takes a holistic approach to postmodern literature that recognizes the way in which digital media film critical theory popular music and more traditional print sources are inextricably linked Through this approach the authors present a broad view of postmodernism that includes a wide variety of British authors writing in the last half of the twentieth century The book's definition of postmodern includes any British literature following World War II that engages issues central to postmodern theory including the social construction of gender sexuality and power the subjectivity of truth technology as a social force intertextuality metafiction post colonial narrative and fantasy This guide aims to aid researchers of postwar British literature by defining best practices for scholars conducting research in a period so broadly varied in the way it defines literature

Contexts for Criticism Donald Keeseey, 1998 In this introduction to literary criticism the major critical theories of literary interpretation historical formal reader response mimetic intertextual poststructural and new historical are presented in separate chapters that include detailed introductions theoretical essays that explain and argue the value of each theory and applications essays in which the theories are applied to the same three literary works William Shakespeare's The Tempest Kate Chopin's The Awakening and William Wordsworth's Ode Intimations of Immortality Wordsworth's and Chopin's works are included in the book

Arthurian Literature and Christianity Peter Meister, 2013-05-13 Intended as the other bookend to Jessie Weston's work some eighty years earlier this essay collection provides a careful overview of recent scholarship on possible overlap between Arthurian literature and Christianity From Ritual to romance and Notes taken together bracket contemporary inquiry into the relationship if any between Jesus and Arthur T S Eliot's The Waste Land is here regarded as one strand joining this matter to many a recent literary riddle such as the meaning of the term postmodernism Without reprinting work readily available elsewhere and no longer subject to revision through dialogue with fellow contributors Notes attempts to do justice to all sides in twentieth century exploration of christianity s contribution to an art form which is also grounded in early European polytheism paganism Grounds of Literary Criticism Suresh Raval,1998 This sophisticated and wide ranging look at literary criticism addresses the major theorists of today and proposes a constructive approach to challenging critical debates Disclosing conflict as the inevitable outcome of historical change Suresh Raval refuses the stark either or choice between the foundationalist stance which seeks to find the right answers and the relativist position which denies the possibility of identifying right and wrong Raval explores the question of conflict in literary criticism and theory by analyzing how different theories have treated key issues not to resolve these problems but to show why they resist decisive solution American Academic Culture in Transformation Thomas Bender,Carl E. Schorske,2021-03-09 In the half century since World War II American academic culture has changed profoundly Until now those changes have not been charted nor have their implications for current discussions of the academy been appraised In this book however eminent academic figures who have helped to produce many of the changes of the last fifty years explore how four disciplines in the social sciences and humanities political science economics philosophy and literary studies have been transformed Edited by the distinguished historians Thomas Bender and Carl Schorske the book places academic developments in their intellectual and socio political contexts Scholarly innovators of different generations offer insiders views of the course of change in their own fields revealing the internal dynamics of disciplinary change Historians examine the external context for these changes including the Cold War Vietnam feminism civil rights and multiculturalism They also compare the very different paths the disciplines have followed within the academy and the consequent alterations in their relations to the larger public Initiated by the American Academy of Arts and Sciences the study was first published in Daedalus in its 1997 winter issue The contributors are M H Abrams William Barber Thomas Bender Catherine Gallagher Charles Lindblom Robert Solow David Kreps Hilary Putnam Jos David Sald var Alexander Nehamas Rogers Smith Carl Schorske Ira Katznelson and David Hollinger Resources in Education ,1990-07

Baudelaire Nicolae Babuts,1997 In his poetry and critical writings Baudelaire performs a vast fusion of experiential and literary sources explores in a more resolute manner the domain of correspondences and thereby marks a radical departure from the accepted norms He challenges humbles and then reaffirms and recenters Western tradition That is his finest achievement
