Monahan, Herbert R. Hengst, 1982 Knowing Educational Administration Colin W. Evers, C. W. Evers, Gabriele Lakowski, 1991 Educational administration is a field currently undergoing great intellectual change The dominant scientific tradition now competes with a range of alternative systematically different accounts of such major concerns in the field as the nature of administrative and organizational theory explaining and improving educational leadership and practice the place of values and human subjectivity in our accounts of educational organizations the nature of educational policy and the conduct of research Knowing Educational Administration surveys and analyzes all of the most important theories in the field However as differences among these theories reflect ultimately different philosophical positions the book offers a new philosophical perspective on educational administration For administrative theories to count as sound knowledge they must meet the demands of our best theories of knowledge The book outlines and defends a particular coherentist view of knowledge and then uses that view both to criticize existing administrative theories and to develop a distinctive alternative The alternative is a new postpositivist science of administration which is able to include ethics and subjectivity within the scope of sound administrative knowledge Cultural Awareness and Diversity

Management in Contemporary Education Özen, Hamit, Polat, Gülşah, 2024-12-10 In education cultural awareness and diversity management are essential elements for creating inclusive and equitable learning environments Cultural awareness enables educators to recognize and respect the diverse backgrounds perspectives and experiences of students fostering a sense of belonging Diversity management in turn involves implementing strategies that ensure all students are supported and valued regardless of their cultural linguistic or social differences By embracing these principles educators can promote a more dynamic and enriched learning experience where every student has the opportunity to succeed Cultural Awareness and Diversity Management in Contemporary Education educators can create inclusive supportive environments by recognizing and valuing the diverse backgrounds of their students It examines strategies for fostering equity reducing bias and promoting a deeper understanding of cultural differences to enhance the overall learning experience Covering topics such as conflict management skills disadvantages students and women leadership this book is an excellent resource for educators school administrators education policymakers curriculum developers and teacher education programs Ethical

Foundations for Educational Administration Eugenie Samier, 2003-12-16 Christopher Hodgkinson is one of the most important contributors to the field of educational administration This collection of essays open up the philosophical foundations of ethical educational administration by reviewing his writings and exploring the ethical theories of major philosophers as they apply to administration and leadership Ethical Foundations of Educational Administration is published in honour of the work of Christopher Hodgkinson It is divided into two sections The first comprises biographical essays and a critical evaluation of Professor Hodgkinson s work focusing on his personal and intellectual contributions to a moral theory of educational administration and leadership The second section looks at how his moral philosophy can inform administrative practice The work of a broad range of philosophers is discussed from the pre 20th century theories of Aquinas Adam Smith and Kant to the pragmatists Peirce James and Dewey Heidegger MacIntyre Bourdieu Churchland and Thagard Christopher Hodgkinson s definition of administration as philosophy in action is now famous within the field This collection illustrates the essential truth of that maxim showing that moral philosophy approached in the spirit promoted by Hodgkinson has both practical and critical purpose when brought to bear upon educational administration and leadership Educational Leadership Relationally Scott Eacott, 2015-01-19 Educational leadership management and administration has a rich history of epistemological and ontological dialogue and debate However in recent times at least since the publication of Colin Evers and Gabriele Lakomski s trilogy knowing exploring and doing educational administration there has been a distinct dearth

Educational Leadership Relationally explicitly returns matters of epistemology and ontology to the centre of the discussion Through a sustained and rigorous engagement with contemporary thought and analysis Scott Eacott articulates and defends a relational approach to scholarship in educational leadership management and administration Eacott belongs to a group of scholars in educational administration who could be called meta sociologist This group blends sociology historical revisionism managerial theories and general philosophy to emphasise the relevance of sociological analysis in the field of educational administration Proposing a relational turn Eacott outlines a methodological agenda for constructing an alternative approach to educational leadership management and administration scholarship that might be persuasive beyond the critical frontier The relational research programme is arguably the most ambitious agenda in educational leadership management and administration coming out of Australia since Colin Evers and Gabriele Lakomski s natural coherentism and Richard Bates Critical Theory of Educational Administration As a research agenda it engages with the centrality of administration in constructions of the social world the legitimation of popular labels such as leadership the inexhaustible and inseparable grounding of administrative labour in time and space and overcomes contemporary tensions of individualism collectivism and structure agency to provide a productive rather than merely critical space to theorise educational leadership management and administration

Issues and Problems in Contemporary Educational Administration Keith Goldhammer,1967

Contemporary Challenges Confronting School Leaders Michael DiPaola,Patrick B. Forsyth,2012-09-01 Contemporary Challenges Confronting School Leaders is the eleventh in a series on research and theory dedicated to advancing our understanding of schools through empirical study and theoretical analysis Consequently the chapters include analyses that investigate relationships between school organizations and administrative practice that affect teacher and student effectiveness This edition is organized around concepts that are significant to contemporary school leaders student achievement and variables that contribute to it or influence achievement indirectly

The Aesthetic Dimensions of Educational Administration & Leadership Eugenie A. Samier,Richard Bates,2006-11-22 The question of aesthetics as a theoretical framework for thinking about modern leadership issues in educational settings is an emergent area of inquiry that is receiving considerable attention There is a growing sense that the mechanistic approach to leadership which has been widely encouraged over the last ten years is sterile and that a more philosophical approach is now required This approach is covered here taking into account the importance of aesthetics on all aspects of the administrative and leadership world the ways ideas and ideals are created how their expression is conveyed the impact they have on interpersonal relationships and the organisational environment that carries and reinforces them and the moral boundaries or limits that can be established or exceeded While presenting a significant departure from conventional studies in the field the international contributors reflect a continuity of thought on administrative and leadership authority from the writings of Plato through to current theory
