Contemporary Finnish Poetry:

Contemporary Finnish Poetry Herbert Lomas, 1990-12-31 Finnish poetry is a popular poetry It does not solve problems or try to but people turn to it for solace inspiration stimulation to think about themselves extensions of experience and the shaping spirit This poetry has fed a clearly felt hunger the need for companionable reports on what it is like to be a Finn in this phase of the muddle for survival But like all authentic local reports its appeal is universal It is very spare Our own poetry can look baroque to the Finns not leaving enough silence between the words The younger poets are already moving in new directions Inheriting a flexible common idiom forged by the previous generation they have been liberated Herbert Lomas Herbert Lomas's anthology traces the history of post war Finnish poetry showing the rise and repercussions of Finland's own revolution in poetry In a wide ranging introduction he describes the poetry of all 21 writers featured in the book and presents a detailed analysis of the two major poets with international reputations Paavo Haavikko and Pentti Saarikoski the most famous of the brilliant generation of 21 year olds who led the rejuvenation of Finnish poetry in the 1950s The selections from the towering and controversial figures of Haavikko and Saarikoski cover their whole careers But the other poets too ranging from Eeva Liisa Manner born 1921 to Satu Salminiitty born 1959 are comprehensively presented Among the book's surprises are the animal parables of Kirsi Kunnas Finland's Stevie Smith and the satires of Jarkko Laine whose work is fuelled by a hatred of conventional poetry and religion

Anttonen,2005-02-06 In their study of social practices deemed traditional scholars tend to use the concept and idea of tradition as an element of meaning in the practices under investigation But just whose meaning is it Is it a meaning generated by those who study tradition or those whose traditions are being studied In both cases particular criteria for traditionality are employed whether these are explicated or not Individuals and groups will no doubt continue to uphold their traditional practices or refer to their practices as traditional While they are in no way obliged to explicate in analytical terms their criteria for traditionality the same cannot be said for those who make the study of traditions their profession In scholarly analysis traditions need to be explained instead of used as explanations for apparent repetitions and replications or symbolic linking in social practice values history and heritage politics This book takes a closer look at tradition and folklore in order to conceptualize them within discourses on modernity and modernism The first section discusses modern and traditional as modern concepts and the study of folklore as a modern trajectory The underlying tenet here is that non modernity cannot be represented without modern mediation which therefore makes the representations of non modernity epistemologically modern The second section focuses on the nation state of Finland and the nationalistic use of folk traditions in the discursive production of Finnish modernity and its Others The insights are applicable worldwide in discussions on cultural representation
