Hawaiian Quilts Reiko Mochinaga Brandon, Loretta G. H. Woodard, 2004 Recognized the world over for their bright colors and bold graphic designs Hawaiian applique quilts reflect the lush subtropical flora of the islands where they were born The book provides an extensive overview of Hawaiian quilting from its beginning as an art form in the 1870s to the present day The book includes twenty two quilts created by three influential master quilters and thirty contemporary quilts by six highly respected modern quilters that reflect a new range in styles and techniques from traditional to trend setting being explored by island quilters today This bilingual publication English and Japanese visually explores a vibrant and ongoing cultural treasure of Hawai i These quilts demonstrate both the rich tradition of this textile art and its continuing strength in the realm of contemporary art

Transnational Crossroads Camilla Fojas, Rudy P. Guevarra, Jr., 2012-06-01 The twentieth century was a time of unprecedented migration and interaction for Asian Latin American and Pacific Islander cultures in the Americas and the American Pacific Some of these ethnic groups already had historic ties but technology migration and globalization during the twentieth century brought them into even closer contact Transnational Crossroads explores and triangulates for the first time the interactions and contacts among these three cultural groups that were brought together by the expanding American empire from 1867 to 1950 Through a comparative framework this volume weaves together narratives of U S and Spanish empire globalization resistance and identity as well as social labor and political movements Contributors examine multiethnic celebrities and key figures migratory paths cultural productions and social and political formations among these three groups Engaging multiple disciplines and methodologies these studies of Asian American Latin American and Pacific Islander cultural interactions explode traditional notions of ethnic studies and introduce new approaches to transnational and comparative studies of the Americas and the American Pacific

Divine Domesticities Hyaeweol Choi, Margaret Jolly, 2014-10-29 Divine Domesticities Christian Paradoxes in Asia and the Pacific fills a huge lacuna in the scholarly literature on missionaries in Asia Pacific and is transnational history at its finest Co edited by two eminent scholars this multidisciplinary volume an outgrowth of several conferences seminars critically examines various encounters between western missionaries and indigenous women in the Pacific Asia Taken as a whole this is a thought provoking and an indispensable reference not only for students of colonialism imperialism but also for those of us who have an interest in transnational and gender history in general The chapters are very clearly written engaging and remarkably accessible the stories are compelling and the research is thorough The illustrations are equally riveting and the bibliography is extremely useful Theodore Jun Yoo History Department University of Hawai i The editors of this collection of papers have done an excellent job of creating a coherent set of case studies that address the diverse impacts of missionaries and Christianity on domesticity and therefore on the women and children who were assumed to be the rightful inhabitants of that sphere The introduction to the volume is beautifully written and sets up the rest of the volume in a comprehensive way It explains the book s aim to advance theoretical and methodological issues by exploring the role of missionary encounters in the development of modern domesticities showing the agency of indigenous women in negotiating both change and continuity and providing a wide range of case studies to show breadth and complexity and the local and national specificities of engagements with both missionaries and modernity My view is that all three aims are well and truly fulfilled Helen Lee Head Sociology and Anthropology La Trobe University Melbourne

American Patchwork Sonja Hakala, 2025-09-23. For those who enjoyed the honesty and insight of How to Make an American Quilt, this is a moving collection of personal stories that highlight the laughter, sadness, friendships, frustrations, and triumphs shared by the more than 21 million people across the country who call themselves quilters. These touching tales from sixty-seven contributors nationwide form a patchwork of their own. In the words of each individual's unique narrative: From the quilt that reunited a family divided by war and an ocean to the twenty-two foot banner that accompanied a dying woman on her last journey, American Patchwork is sure to capture the hearts of quilters and quilt lovers everywhere. Wonderfully varied, instructive, nostalgic, amusing, and often poignantly written, this gem of a book will be treasured for years to come.

The Quilt Elise Schebler Roberts, Helen Kelley, Sandra Dallas, Jennifer Chiaverini, Jean Ray Laury. Here is the largest, most comprehensive history of American quilts ever published. The Quilt explores the evolution of quilting in America, showing in vivid colors and patterns how African American, Amish, Hawaiian, Hmong, and Native American quilts celebrate cultural identity and how quilts connect us to one another through quilting bees and other community groups. Noted quilt historian Elise Schebler Roberts also goes beyond the historical nature of quilts to cover current efforts at quilt preservation, collecting, and appraising, and state documentation projects. Her book features an encyclopedia of favorite quilt styles and is gloriously illustrated with more than 200 full color photographs of classic collectible quilts Spaces of Care - Confronting Colonial Afterlives in European Ethnographic Museums Wayne Modest, Claudia Augustat, 2023-09-01

Alarming environmental shifts and disasters have raised public awareness and anxieties regarding the future of the planet While planetary in scale the negative effects of this global crisis are distributed unequally affecting some of the already most fragile communities most intensely thus contributing to rising global inequality The pairing of environmental crises and a sense of inadequacy facing hitherto celebrated models of citizenry informs a current spirit of the times The contributors to this volume place ethnographic or world cultures museums at the centre of these debates these museums have been embroiled in longstanding debates about their histories collections and practices in relation to the colonial past Hybrid
