Elizabeth Grant,Kelly Greenop,Albert L. Refiti,Daniel J. Glenn,2018-06-26 This Handbook provides the first comprehensive international overview of significant contemporary Indigenous architecture practice and discourse showcasing established and emerging Indigenous authors and practitioners from Australia Aotearoa New Zealand the Pacific Islands Canada USA and other countries It captures the breadth and depth of contemporary work in the field establishes the historical and present context of the work and highlights important future directions for research and practice The topics covered include Indigenous placemaking identity cultural regeneration and Indigenous knowledges The book brings together eminent and emerging scholars and practitioners to discuss and compare major projects and design approaches to reflect on the main issues and debates while enhancing theoretical understandings of contemporary Indigenous architecture The book is an indispensable resource for scholars students policy makers and other professionals seeking to understand the ways in which Indigenous people have a built tradition or aspire to translate their cultures into the built environment It is also an essential reference for academics and practitioners working in the field of the built environment who need up to date knowledge of current practices and discourse on Indigenous peoples and their architecture

Contemporary Architects Ann Lee Morgan, Colin Naylor, 1987 To strengthen the contemporary focus of this volume we have added about forty architects and have deleted some whose activity ceased before World War II In making these decisions we have been assisted by an Advisory Board As in the first volume we have continued to define the word architect very broadly so as to include planners theorists structural engineers and landscape architects whose work seems to be central to the enterprise of creating habitable spaces in our day

Editor's note

Architectural Theorisations and Phenomena in Asia Francis Chia-Hui Lin, 2017-08-16 This book is the first overall and detailed discussion of contemporary Asia's architectural theorisations and phenomena based on its heteroglossic and decolonisation character Lin presents a theoretical journey of transdisciplinary reflection upon contemporary Asia's pragmatic phenomena which is methodologically achieved by means of elaborations of how tangible Asian architecture can be philosophically theorised and how interchangeable architectural theory is practically Asianised Discussions in the book are critically integrated with comparative studies focused on Japan Taiwan China Hong Kong Singapore Malaysia Australia New Zealand and the UK These empirical examinations are highlights of phenomenal localities architecture cities and cultures which reference the historicity of the Asia Pacific Asia's contemporary architectural situations and their subtle relationship with the West The schematisation of intended fuzziness for Asia and its architecture is framed as the notion polychronotypic jetztzeit to represent a present time place context of contemporary Asian architecture and urbanism This book will be of great interest to scholars of Asian Studies Architectural Studies Postcolonial Studies Urban Studies and Cultural Studies

Contemporary Australian Architecture Graham Jahn, 1994 Traces the development of new ideas in Australian architecture since 1975 and documents 45 important buildings chosen because of the ideas they embody Houses offices churches and sports stadia designed by Australian architects or by Japanese or American architects working in Australia are included The presentation is lavish abundant color p

Experiments in Modern Living Milton Cameron, 2012-05-01 When a group of brilliant young scientists arrived in Australia's national capital after World War II to take up leading roles in the establishment of national research institutions they commissioned Australia's leading architects to design their private houses The houses that resulted from these unique collaborations rejected previous architectural styles and wholeheartedly embraced modernist ideologies and aesthetics The story of how these progressive clients contributed to the innovative design of their houses brings fresh insights to mid twentieth century Australian domestic architecture and to Canberra's rich cultural history Expanded Architecture At The Rocks Sarah Breen Lovett, Claudia Perren, 2013 When Modern Became Contemporary Art Charles Green, Heather Barker, 2024-09-19 This book is a portrait of the period when modern art became contemporary art. It explores how and why writers and artists in Australia argued over the idea of a distinctively Australian modern and then postmodern art from 1962 the date of publication of a foundational book Australian Painting 1788-1960 up to 1988 the year of the Australian Bicentennial. Across nine chapters about art exhibitions, curators and critics, this book describes the shift from modern art to contemporary art through the successive attempts to define a place in the world for Australian art. But by 1988 Australian art looked less and less like a viable tradition inside which to interpret our art. Instead vast gaps appeared since mostly male and often older White writers had limited their horizons to White Australia alone. National stories by White men like borders had less and less explanatory value. Underneath this a perplexing subject remained the absence of Aboriginal art in understanding what Australian art was during the period that established the idea of a distinctive Australian modern and then contemporary art. This book reflects on why the embrace of Aboriginal art was so late in art museums and histories of Australian art, arguing that this was because it was not part of a national story dominated by colonial then neo-colonial dependency. It is important reading for all scholars of both global and Australian art and for curators and artists. Swatt | Miers The Images Publishing Group, Swatt | Miers Architects, 2017-03-01 This new monograph of the work of Bay Area based internationally acclaimed Swatt Miers Architects features 30 exciting new projects including 20 new homes covering the prolific decade between 2006 and 2016. This 10-year period has seen the work of Swatt Miers expand into different regions of California including the Central Valley, the Northern California wine country and Los Angeles, different states including Hawaii and Colorado and other regions of the world including Canada, India and Spain. Designed from the inside out, the constant threads that pervade the work include strong relationships of architecture to land, open planning for informal living and dissolving the boundary between inside and outside, all designed to be as beautiful to live in as to behold. This volume showcases this firm's award-winning projects and recent accomplishments in glorious full color and is replete with insightful and engaging commentary across the monograph's extraordinary collection of international works. Designer Suburbs Judith O'Callaghan, Charles Pickett, 2012-11-01 In the 1950s, 60s and 70s architects like Harry Seidler, Robin Boyd, Ken Woolley, Michael Dysart and Graeme Gunn applied their talents to project homes, bringing high-end design to the suburbs. Backed by Pettit Sevit Merchant Builders and other project builders, architects created small, deceptively simple houses which transformed the look of suburbia. Today the distance between the architectural profession and suburban housing has never been greater with Australia's super-sized energy guzzling project homes, the biggest in the world. With photographs by Max Dupain, David Moore, Wolfgang Sievers and Eric Sierins alongside original plans, Designer Suburbs explores the relationship between architects, builders and affordable housing since 1900 and the lessons we can learn from twentieth-century designer suburbs. APAIS 1991: Australian public affairs information service , ReHousing Shane Murray, Simon Whibley, Diego Ramírez-Lovering, 2008 In October 2006 RMIT University hosted a conference that sought to bring focussed discussion to the difficult relationship between architecture and mass housing design The RE housing conference provided a number of platforms for that discussion combining invited speakers with academics and local architectural practitioners in order to engage with the broader less customised design concerns relevant to the provision of housing at large volumes Underpinning this structure was a premise that architecture has a valid contribution to make to the design of housing in a more general condition a contribution that is becoming more necessary as Australian cities densify in response to rising housing demand and shrinking resources Provided by publisher World's Contemporary Architecture: Various countries Yuichi Ino, Shinji Koike, 1953 Advanced Building Materials and Sustainable Architecture Yong Bo Shao, Shu Guang Hao, Yu Ping Luo, Ji Bo Xing, Zhi Yong Liu, 2012-05-14 Selected peer reviewed papers from the 2nd International Conference on Civil Engineering Architecture and Building Materials CEABM 2012 May 25 27 2012 Yantai China
