Transforming Missiology Fohle Lygunda li-M, 2018-02-28 Dr

Fohle Lygunda li M provides a thorough analysis of missiological teaching in theological institutions in Africa with special reference to ten Christian universities in the Democratic Republic of the Congo His detailed examination of current teaching of mission theory and practice builds a solid foundation for the articulation of a new paradigm of missiological education In this book Dr Lygunda presents the case for a transformed approach to raising up seminarians who are equipped to lead indigenous missional churches that will fulfil the Great Commission in their own communities and beyond their national borders

Missiological Education for the Twenty-first Century J. Dudley Woodberry, Charles E. Van Engen, Edgar J. Elliston, 2005-06-07 Thoughtful and original contributions from twenty one of the world s foremost missiologists in a volume dedicated to Fuller Seminary s former dean Paul E Pierson outline an agenda for mission education that will provoke lively discussion for years to come Fuller Theological Seminary s School of World Mission is the locus of some of the most creative thought and scholarly reflection on Christian mission in today s world Edited by the School s dean and two professors a score of authors respond to the question How should missiological education be carried out to prepare men and women to work in the twenty first century Contributors Andrew F Walls Gerald H Anderson Paul G Hiebert Kenneth Mulholland L Grant McClung Jerald D Gort Mary Motte Michael James Oleksa Tite Tienou Samuel Escobar Ken R Gnanakan Wilbert R Shenk Darrell Whiteman Roger S Greenway Philip C Stine Stuart Dauermann Ralph D Winter J Dudley Woodberry Viggo Sogaard Charles Van Engen Edgar J Elliston

Advanced Missiology Kenneth Nehrbass, 2021-04-02 Advanced Missiology draws the connections between the theory and practice of missions Using the metaphor of a river the book shows how theories upstream such as theology education anthropology community development and history have exerted an influence on missiology and missiology in turn has gone back upstream to influence those disciplines What causes these disciplines to converge in missiology is the goal of making disciples across cultures Whereas missiologists are not always explicit about how their abstract theories actually relate to the task of making disciples across cultures each chapter in Advanced Missiology shows how numerous theories sub fields models and strategies of missiology ultimately facilitate the Great Commission The book argues that by using interdisciplinarity for this fundamental purpose missiological studies will be more credible and useful With contributions from Rebecca Burnett Leanne Dzubinski Julie Martinez

Missiological Hermeneutics Shawn B. Redford, 2012-10-18 How have those engaged in the mission of God been challenged to reinterpret Scripture through their experience In what ways were the missionaries in the Bible challenged to reevaluate Scripture in their own time Redford attempts to give shape to the nature of missional hermeneutics by examining Scripture present day cultural values historical struggles and the experience of those who are engaged in the mission of God In order for missionaries to overcome the scientific polarization in Western hermeneutics they must be able to perceive and learn from the overarching missional and spiritual hermeneutics found throughout Scripture so that they can balance missional spiritual historical critical and even unforeseen hermeneutical paths providing increased confidence in biblical interpretation

Comprehending Mission: The Questions, Methods, Themes, Problems, and Prospects of Missiology Stanley H. Skreslet (II.), 2012 Stanley H Skreslet offers an inviting new proposal for conceptualizing the field of missiology Comprehending Mission includes a concise overview of the development of missiology of the last century introducing its characteristic methodologies and offering insight into the kinds of questions missiologists typically ask In the last hundred years missiology has moved from emphasizing the practical challenges of foreign mission service to highlighting the intercultural aspects of Christian outreach Today missiology is less a form of practical theology than a field of study where theological concerns intersect with critical studies undertaken by anthropologists historians and other scholars Fill the Earth Matthew Newkirk, 2020-03-09 Why does the church engage in missions Where in the Bible do we find support for this work These questions have been asked and answered by many throughout the centuries though rarely does the investigation span across the entire canon of Scripture In this study Newkirk explores the breadth and depth of biblical teaching concerning God's mission for his people and the church's call to spread the gospel to the ends of the earth By beginning with creation and ending with new creation this study reveals that rather than simply deriving from a few missions verses the church's call to missions is grounded in the full spectrum of biblical revelation Mission in the Way of Paul Christopher R. Little, 2005 What relevance does the Apostle Paul have for the mission of the church in the twenty first century By investigating his socioeconomic background examining his doxological orientation in mission delineating how and why he shared resources in the first century and then relating all this to what has been called the contemporary International Partnership Movement this book demonstrates that when the church engages in cross cultural mission and ignores Pauline orthopraxy it places unnecessary obstacles in the path of the missio Dei Therefore Mission in the Way of Paul Biblical Mission for the Church in the Twenty First Century is pertinent for any course devoted to learning from and implementing biblical models of mission today The Lion, the Dove, & the Lamb, Revised Edition A. Bryden Black, 2018-12-14 How might the formal Christian doctrine of the Trinity make a real concrete difference in the lives of individuals and in the life of the church This book proposes there are two parts to answering this important but elusive question In the first place how on earth did the Early Church actually reach its conclusions about this understanding of God and why What's the real point behind their endeavors How might we apprehend what is otherwise sheer mystification or even nonsense in some people's minds Arising out of the answers to such questions we can secondly construct an appropriately simple model of the Trinity By means of this model we can understand with sufficient justice the ways the triune God has come among us in our human history ways that are still ongoing today For the proposed model allows us to begin to appreciate the true mystery of the Christian Faith while also making a practical difference to the lives of Christian discipleship in prayer worship and mission The Lion, the Dove, & the Lamb A. Bryden Black, 2015-06-22 How might the formal Christian doctrine of the Trinity make a real concrete difference in the lives of individuals and in the life of the church This book proposes there are two parts to answering this important but elusive question In the first place how on earth did the Early Church actually reach its conclusions about this understanding of God and why What s the real point behind their endeavors How might we apprehend what is otherwise sheer mystification or even nonsense in some people s minds Arising out of the answers to such questions we can secondly construct an appropriately simple model of the Trinity By means of this model we can understand with sufficient justice the ways the triune God has come among us in our human history ways that are still ongoing today For the proposed model allows us to begin to appreciate the true mystery of the Christian Faith while also making a practical difference to the lives of Christian discipleship in prayer worship and mission Reclaiming Mission as Constructive Theology Paul S. Chung, 2012-03-09 Reclaiming Mission as Constructive Theology offers a compelling case for the need to integrate God s mission and missional church conversation with a public and post colonial study of World Christianity Driven by a commitment to publicly engaged theology that takes seriously the reality of Global Christianity Paul Chung presents a vital new model for understanding the mission of God as a dynamic word event This is argued in conversation with contemporary missional theology and analysis of the development of Global Christianity and as such brings important transcultural issues to bear on contemporary American conversations about the missional church All of this serves to innovatively stimulate this missional church conversation and more directly address the various questions that arise in pursuing mission in a multiculturalized American society Transcending Mission Michael W. Stroope, 2017-02-28 Is the language of mission clearly evident across the broad reaches of time Or has the modern missionary enterprise distorted our view of the past Michael Stroope investigates how the modern church has come to understand speak of and engage in the global expansion of Christianity offering a hopeful way forward in this pressing conversation Heart for the Gospel, Heart for the World Paul J. Visser, 2003-10-28 In this study one finds the missiologically inheritance of the first Reformed missiologist Johan Herman Bavinck in an organized and systematic form The following topics are discussed theology of religion biblical theology of missions elenctics mission apologetics and practical subjects such as inculturation ecumenism and the race issue The context in which Bavinck developed his vision is discussed in an explicit way Special attention is given to the influence of Hendrik Kramer on Bavinck s development as well as the psychological dimension in his theologizing The author evaluates the relevancy of Bavinck s missiology for the development of a Reformed missiology The above is made complete by an extensive biographical sketch shedding light on the background and way of life of this Johan Herman Bavinck Missiological Education Union Biblical Seminary (Pune, India). Centre for Mission Studies. Consultation, 2009 God So Loves the City Charles E. Van Engen, Jude Tiersma, 2009-08-01 From the explosive contexts of Nairobi Mexico City Los Angeles and Madras burst fresh insights on the mission of the church for the city Jude Tiersma and Charles Van Engen worked closely with an international team of experienced urban practitioners to explore the most urgent issues facing those who minister in today's cities From each particular urban setting a team member contributed a story from ministry in the city Each story uniquely illustrates a different challenge of urban ministry in the face of injustice marginalization and urban structures This book brings you these stories then retells them in light of Scripture introducing new hope to each one From these stories emerge new ideas about the nature of cities and how to practice ministry in them The new methodology employed by Van Engen and Tiersma's team leads us in the first steps toward a theology of mission for the city God So Loves the City is a must for pastors seminary students missiologists congregation members and all who are concerned about urban ministry The J. H. Bavinck Reader John Bolt, James D. Bratt, Paul J. Visser, 2013-06-03 Crucial themes and issues explored by a premier missiologist Johan Herman Bavinck 1895-1964 was a prominent twentieth century Dutch Calvinist missiologist who wrestled with the tension between religious absolutism and relativism as many Christians do in today's pluralistic context The J H Bavinck Reader gathers together a choice selection of Bavinck's significant writings that are essential for understanding his theology of missions his approach to world religions and his religious psychology His treatment of religious consciousness and Christian faith expands on the brief treatment of it in his own work The Church Between Temple and Mosque The concluding chapters show how Bavinck's theoretical reflection on religious consciousness was rooted in his close observation during his years as a missionary in Indonesia Offering a constructive way forward Bavinck affirms both the particularity of salvation in Christ and the universality of the Christian hope A substantial introduction enhances the book with the most thorough biographical sketch of Bavinck available Appropriate Christianity Charles H. Kraft, 2005-06-01 Appropriate Christianity consists of 28 chapters by 18 authors approaching contextualization in three dimensions truth allegiance and spiritual power Over the years there have been quite a number of helpful discussions of the contextualization of theological truth Though we have been helped greatly by them it is high time we began to deal also with allegiance and spiritual power two additional dimensions that Jesus considered of great importance Any adequate and appropriate treatment of the contextualization of biblical Christianity needs to deal with all three of these crucial dimensions For allegiance to Christ is the basis for all we do that makes us Christian and Jesus was very much into spiritual power If we are to be truly biblical we must deal also with these areas This book is not a festschrift even though it is dedicated to Dr Dean S Gilliland who joined the faculty of Fuller's School of Intercultural Studies in 1977 and has since been developing an emphasis on teaching and research concerning contextualized theology This is a new textbook aimed at expanding our understanding of contextualization and better enabling us to effectively and appropriately communicate biblical Christianity The Good News of The Kingdom Charles E. Van Engen, Dean S. Gilliland, 1999-09-17
