Contemporary Theatre Architecture:

Contemporary Theatre Architecture Ned Allan Bowman, 1965 Play on Alistair Fair, 2019 This book documents and celebrates Britain's contemporary theater architecture. It is about the conception, design and delivery of spaces for drama between 2008 and 2018, a period of economic recession and financial austerity that has nonetheless seen a significant number of well-received theater building projects. Intended not only for theater enthusiasts but also for individuals and organizations that may be contemplating a capital project of their own, Play On provides detailed contemporary histories of ten recent projects. It includes new theaters like Liverpool's prize-winning Everyman Theatre and Cast in Doncaster as well as major refurbishment and restoration projects such as the National Theatre in London and the Citizens Theatre in Glasgow. Architects whose work is discussed include Haworth Tompkins, Aedas Arts Team, Bennetts Associates, Richard Murphy Architects and Page Park. An extended introductory section sets the case studies in their historical and contemporary contexts and draws out key themes including sustainability, accessibility and the need for theaters to be efficient yet welcoming public spaces.

Ping from Germany Thorleifur Arnarsson from Iceland and Kjersti Hom Alexander M. R. Eidem and Sigrid Strøm Reibo from Norway the book investigates why and how the theatre continues to engage with canonical plays In particular the book questions the political and cultural implications of theatrical reproductions of the literary canon Drawing on Chantal Mouffe's theories of agonism and critical art the book investigates whether theatrical reproduction of the canon always reconstitutes the hegemonic values and ideologies of the canon or whether theatrical interventions in the canon can challenge such values and ideologies and thereby also challenge the dominant ideologies and hegemonies of contemporary culture and society This study will be of great interest to academics and students in drama and theatre particularly those who work with theatre in the twenty-first century directors theatre and the political impact of theatre
