Contentious Memories Looking Back At The Gdr:

Contentious Memories Jost Hermand, Marc Silberman, 1998 Who is remembering the German Democratic Republic and how do they go about it This volume of contentious memories brings together essays and critical responses in a look back at three aspects of GDR studies It presents an opportunity for self reflection on German Studies past and ongoing engagement with the GDR and post unification transformations It seeks to evaluate old questions and raises new ones concerning the historical knowledge of GDR culture and our interpretations of it Finally it examines blindspots and self deceptions of the past as well as those forming all too quickly in the present Characterized by a self awareness and historical understanding that is often neglected in the current tendency to write of the GDR this collection marks a milestone in the re assessment of GDR studies in North America Film and Memory in East Germany Anke Pinkert, 2008 Rethinks the politics of public memory in East German film East German Historians since Reunification Axel Fair-Schulz, Mario Kessler, 2017-06-29 Surveys how reunification in 1990 impacted historical scholarship in the former East Germany With German reunification and the demise of the German Democratic Republic in 1990 East German historians and their traditions of historiography were removed from mainstream discourse in Germany and relegated to the periphery By the mid 1990s few GDR trained historians remained in academia These developments led to a greater degree of intellectual pluralism yet marginalized many accomplished scholars East German Historians since Reunification assesses what was gained and lost in the process of dissolving and remaking GDR institutions of historical scholarship The collection combines primary and secondary sources younger scholars offer analyses of East German historiography while senior scholars who lived through the dismantling process provide firsthand accounts Contributors address broad trends in scholarship as well as particular subfields and institutions What unites them is a willingness to think critically about the achievements and shortcomings of GDR historiography and its fate after German reunification Rereading East Germany Karen Leeder, 2016-01-14 This volume is the first to address the culture of the German Democratic Republic GDR as a historical entity but also to trace the afterlife of East Germany in the decades since the fall of the Berlin Wall An international team of outstanding scholars offers essential and thought provoking essays combining a chronological and genre based overview from the beginning of the GDR in 1949 to the unification in 1990 and beyond with in depth analysis of individual works A final chapter traces the resonance of the GDR in the years since its demise and analyses the fascination it engenders The volume provides a rereading of East Germany and its legacy as a cultural phenomenon free from the prejudices that prevailed while it existed offering English translations throughout a guide to further reading and a chronology Art Outside the Lines, 2015-06-29 This collection of essays written by leading scholars in the fields of East German art film literature music and museum studies seeks to renegotiate the artistic legacy of the German Democratic Republic Combining a range of theoretical and practical perspectives the volume challenges the narrow frameworks of totalitarianism and Ostalgie that have dominated discussions of art produced in the GDR It explores the diversity of art produced in the state and contests the long held perception that socialist realism and artistic innovation were mutually exclusive Crucially the collection puts art itself to the fore GDR art is considered not simply as a political by product as is so often the case but as an entity of innovation and aesthetic value in its own right On the Social Life of Postsocialism Daphne Berdahl,2010 Anthropologist Daphne Berdahl was one of the leading scholars of the transition from state socialism to capitalism in central and eastern Europe From her pathbreaking ethnography of a former East German border village in the aftermath of German reunification to her insightful analyses of consumption nostalgia and citizenship in the early 21st century Berdahl s writings probe the contradictions paradoxes and ambiguities of postsocialism as few observers have done This volume brings together her essays from an early study of memory at the Vietnam War memorial in Washington D C to research on consumption and citizenship undertaken in Leipzig in the years before her untimely death It serves as a superb introduction to the development of the field of postsocialist cultural studies

Creech, 2016-08-08 Mothers Comrades and Outcasts in East German Women s Film merges feminist film theory and cultural history in an investigation of women s films that span the last two decades of the former East Germany Jennifer L Creech explores the ways in which these films functioned as an alternative public sphere where official ideologies of socialist progress and utopian collectivism could be resisted Emerging after the infamous cultural freeze of 1965 these women s films reveal a shift from overt political critique to a covert politics located in the intimate problem rich experiences of everyday life under socialism Through an analysis of films that focus on what were perceived as women s concerns marital problems motherhood emancipation and residual patriarchy Creech argues that the female protagonist served as a crystallization of socialist contradictions By framing their politics in terms of women s concerns these films used women s desire and agency to contest the more general problems of social alienation and collectivism and to re imagine the possibilities of self fulfillment under socialism
