Contested Meanings Joseph R. Gusfield, 1996 This work brings together a selection of the author's articles written over a period of 20 years observing the place of alcohol in American culture The text also contains several ethnographic studies of bars in San Diego and a study of court mandated programmes for drink drivers Contested Meanings Joseph R.

Gusfield, 1996 Joseph R Gusfield has been for decades the most creative penetrating and far sighted sociologist of alcohol's ambiguous place in American society Combining in his work the perspectives and methods of historian anthropologist and sociologist Gusfield brings together in this volume many of his most important articles from a span of twenty years as well as several fascinating but little known ethnographic studies of bars in San Diego and a previously unpublished study of court mandated procedures involving convicted drinking drivers Gusfield begins by offering two new constructionist analyses of social problems focusing on alcohol His theme throughout Contested Meanings is the conflicting and changing ways society defines social problems when does alcohol consumption cross the line from social activity to social problem and on the social and policy consequences of those definitions He emerges in the course of the book as a thoughtful and realistic social critic who looks beyond analyses of drinking as pathological behavior to consider the place of alcohol in American popular and leisure culture From Science to Action? 100 Years Later - Alcohol Policies Revisited Richard Müller, Harald

Klingemann, 2004-03-31 Relevant to both scientists and policy makers this authoritative text provides alcohol policy from different perspectives covering both science research treatment and prevention practice and links these areas The

Sociology of Knowledge Approach to Discourse Reiner Keller, 2024-07-24 In this updated version of a contemporary classic of discourse research Reiner Keller develops the theoretical and methodological foundations of the Sociology of Knowledge Approach to Discourse SKAD Translated from the original German into English for the first time this book brings together two previously unconnected domains of knowledge analysis in social science the rich traditions of sociology of knowledge and symbolic interactionism on one hand and the works of discourse studies especially in relation to Michel Foucault on the other It presents a critical discussion of key developments in sociology of knowledge symbolic interactionist and related interpretive approaches explains the communicational turn of recent work in the field and examines how traditions within sociology of knowledge shifted focus or converged over time Following this the book discusses the development of discourse theory and discourse analysis since the 1960s including critical discourse analysis hegemony analysis or cultural studies approaches Embarking from a profound reconstruction of Michel Foucault's work the book then sets its own distinctive course by integrating major elements of Foucault's perspective with the sociology of knowledge Along this path Reiner Keller establishes the heuristics and methodology for a sociology of knowledge approach to discourse providing a comprehensive research programme for the study of social relations of knowledge and politics of knowledge Since its first publication in 2005 SKAD has informed a multitude of studies worldwide and across several academic from the Victorian period The product of several years of research this book aims to help readers re evaluate their understandings of drinking As such it is essential reading for students academics and anyone with a serious interest in Britain s drink problem Addiction Trajectories Eugene Raikhel, William Garriott, 2013-04-18 Bringing anthropological perspectives to bear on addiction the contributors to this important collection highlight the contingency of addiction as a category of human knowledge and experience Based on ethnographic research conducted in sites from alcohol treatment clinics in Russia to Pentecostal addiction ministries in Puerto Rico the essays are linked by the contributors attention to the dynamics including the cultural scientific legal religious personal and social that shape the meaning of addiction in particular settings They examine how it is understood and experienced among professionals working in the criminal justice system of a rural West Virginia community Hispano residents of New Mexico s Espanola Valley where the rate of heroin overdose is among the highest in the United States homeless women participating in an outpatient addiction therapy program in the Midwest machine gaming addicts in Las Vegas and many others The collection s editors suggest addiction trajectories as a useful rubric for analyzing the changing meanings of addiction across time place institutions and individual lives Pursuing three primary trajectories the contributors show how addiction comes into being as an object of knowledge a site of therapeutic intervention and a source of subjective experience Contributors Nancy D Campbell E Summerson Carr Angela Garcia William Garriott Helena Hansen Anne M Lovell Emily Martin Todd Meyers Eugene Raikhel A Jamie Saris Natasha Dow Sch ll Routledge Handbook of Intoxicants and Intoxication Geoffrey Hunt, Tamar Antin, Vibeke Asmussen Frank, 2022-11-30 Bringing together scholars from different disciplines in the humanities and social sciences this multidisciplinary Handbook offers a comprehensive critical overview of intoxicants and intoxication The Handbook is divided into 34 chapters across eight thematic sections covering a wide range of issues including the meanings of intoxicants the social life of intoxicants intoxication settings intoxication practices alternative approaches to the study of intoxication scapegoated intoxicants discourses shaping intoxication and changing notions of excess It explores a range of different intoxicants including alcohol tobacco coffee tea and legal and illicit drugs including amphetamine cannabis ecstasy khat methadone and opiates Chapter length case studies explore these intoxicants in a variety of countries including the USA the UK Australia Bosnia Herzegovina Brazil Denmark Ireland Japan Kyrgyzstan Nigeria Singapore and Sweden across a broad timespan covering the nineteenth century to the present day This wide ranging Handbook will be of great interest to researchers students and instructors within the humanities and social sciences with an interest in a wide range of different intoxicants and different intoxication practices Chapters 15 and 31 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license The Drinking Curriculum Elizabeth Marshall, 2024-01-02 A lively exploration into America s preoccupation with childhood innocence and its corruption In The Drinking Curriculum Elizabeth Marshall brings the taboo

topic of alcohol and childhood into the limelight Marshall coins the term the drinking curriculum to describe how a paradoxical set of cultural lessons about childhood are fueled by adult anxieties and preoccupations By analyzing popular and widely accessible texts in visual culture temperance tracts cartoons film advertisements and public service announcements Marshall demonstrates how youth are targets of mixed messages about intoxication Those messages range from the overtly violent to the humorous the moralistic to the profane Offering a critical and at times irreverent analysis of dominant protectionist paradigms that sanctify childhood as implicitly innocent The Drinking Curriculum centers the graphic narratives our culture uses to teach about alcohol the roots of these pictorial tales in the nineteenth century and the discursive hangover we nurse into the twenty first

Moral Panics in the Contemporary World Julian Petley, Chas Critcher, Jason Hughes, Amanda Rohloff, 2013-06-18 Moral Panics in the Contemporary World represents the best current theoretical and empirical work on the topic taken from the international conference on moral panics held at Brunel University The range of contributors from established scholars to emerging ones in the field and from a working journalist as well helps to cover a wide range of moral panics both old and new and extend the geographical scope of moral panic analysis to previously underrepresented areas Designed from the outset to comprise a coherent and integrated set of viewpoints which share a common engagement with critically exploring moral panics in the contemporary world it contains case studies instantly recognisable and familiar to a student readership drugs alcohol sexual abuse and racism The collection brings a fresh approach to analysis and argument by testing and extending the concept of moral panic and analyzing a range of topics and geographical contexts accurately reflecting the state of the art moral panics research today Judging Addicts Rebecca Tiger, 2013 The number of people incarcerated in the U S now exceeds 2.3 million due in part to the increasing criminalization of drug use over 25% of people incarcerated in jails and prisons are there for drug offenses Judging Addicts examines this increased criminalization of drugs and the medicalization of addiction in the U S by focusing on drug courts where defendants are sent to drug treatment instead of prison Rebecca Tiger explores how advocates of these courts make their case for what they call enlightened coercion detailing how they use medical theories of addiction to justify increased criminal justice oversight of defendants who through this process are defined as both sick and bad Tiger shows how these courts fuse punitive and therapeutic approaches to drug use in the name of a progressive and enlightened approach to addiction She critiques the medicalization of drug users showing how the disease designation can complement rather than contradict punitive approaches demonstrating that these courts are neither unprecedented nor unique and that they contain great potential to expand punitive control over drug users Tiger argues that the medicalization of addiction has done little to stem the punishment of drug users because of a key conceptual overlap in the medical and punitive approaches that habitual drug use is a problem that needs to be fixed through sobriety Judging Addicts presses policymakers to implement humane responses to persistent substance use that remove its control entirely from the criminal justice system and ultimately explores the nature of crime and punishment in the U S today Getting Wasted Thomas Vander Ven, 2011 Vander Ven argues that college students rely on drunk support Contrary to most accounts of alcohol abuse as being a solitary problem of one person drinking to excess the college drinking scene is very much a social one where students support one another through nights of drinking games rituals and rites of passage The Third Asiatic Invasion Rick Baldoz, 2011-02-28 Winner of the 2012-2013 Asian Pacific American Librarian's Association Book Award Winner of the 2013 American Sociological Association's Asia and Asian America Section Distinguished Book Award The first half of the twentieth century witnessed a wave of Filipino immigration to the United States following in the footsteps of earlier Chinese and Japanese immigrants the first and second Asiatic invasions Perceived as alien because of their Asian ethnicity yet legally defined as American nationals granted more rights than other immigrants Filipino American national identity was built upon the shifting sands of contradiction ambiguity and hostility Rick Baldoz explores the complex relationship between Filipinos and the U S by looking at the politics of immigration race and citizenship on both sides of the Philippine American divide internationally through an examination of American imperial ascendancy and domestically through an exploration of the social formation of Filipino communities in the United States He reveals how American practices of racial exclusion repeatedly collided with the imperatives of U S overseas expansion A unique portrait of the Filipino American experience The Third Asiatic Invasion links the Filipino experience to that of Puerto Ricans Mexicans Chinese and Native Americans among others revealing how the politics of exclusion played out over time against different population groups Weaving together an impressive range of materials including newspapers government reports legal documents and archival sources into a seamless narrative Baldoz illustrates how the quixotic status of Filipinos played a significant role in transforming the politics of race immigration and nationality in the United States
